XXI. For Fair Weather.

1. O Almighty Lord God, who for the sin of

1. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually:

man didst once drown all the world, except eight persons, and the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; and, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh. Gen. vi. 5. 7. 17. And the flood was forty days upon the earth: and the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered: and every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth; and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark. Gen. vii. 17. 19. 23. Once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. 1 Peter iii. 20.

2. and afterward of thy great mercy didst promise never to destroy it so again;

2. I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth; and I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh: and the bow shall be in the cloud, and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth. Gen. ix. 11. 15, 16, 17. This is as the waters of Noah unto me, for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee. Is. liv. 9.—See also, Gen. viii. 21.

3. We humbly beseech thee, that although we for our iniquities have worthily deserved a plague of rain and waters,

3. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the Lord our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season; he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest: your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you. Jer. v. 24, 25. I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. Ezek. xxxviii. 22. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces. Dan. ix. 7.

4. yet upon our true repentance thou wilt send us such weather as that we may receive the fruits of the earth in due season;

4. I smote you with blasting, and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the Lord: consider now from this day and upward, even from the day that the foundation of the Lord's temple was laid, consider it: is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree, hath not brought forth; from this day will I bless you. Hag. ii. 17, 18, 19. Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted. Isa. xlix. 13.

XXII. In the Time of Dearth and Famine. No. 1.

1. O God, heavenly Father, whose gift it is, that the rain doth fall, the earth is fruitful, beasts increase, and fishes do multiply; heart, and with all your soul, that I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil: and I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full. Deut. xi. 13, 14, 15. And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth. Gen. i. 22. O Lord, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field: the beasts of the field cry also unto thee; for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness. Joel i. 16, 17, 18, 19, 20. All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O Lord, and consider. Lamen. i. 11. Look upon my adversity and my misery, and forgive me all my sin. Psal. xxv. 17.

3. and grant that the scarcity and dearth which we do now most justly suffer for our iniquity, may through thy goodness be mercifully turned into cheapness and plenty;

3. Give us this day our daily bread. Matt. vi. 11. Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted; He turneth a fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein. Psal. cvii. 17. 33, 34. If, when evil cometh upon us, as judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. 2 Chron. xx. 9. 3. Have pity upon us miserable sinners, who now are visited with great sickness and mortality;

3. Come, and let us return unto the Lord; for he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. Hosea vi. 1. I cried unto thee, O Lord; I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living: attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low. Psal. cxlii. 5, 6. Oh remember not against us former iniquities, let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us; for we are brought very low. Psal. lxxix. 8. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth. Psal. xxxix. 11. We are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled. Psal. xc. 7.

4. That like as thou didst then accept of an atonement, and didst command the destroying angel to cease from punishing,

4. And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people; and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people: and he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. Num. xvi. 47, 48. And David spake unto the Lord when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the Lord in the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite: and David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings: so the Lord was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel. 2 Sam. xxiv. 17, 18. 25.

5. so it may now please thee to withdraw from us this plague and grievous sickness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

5. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach: then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people. Joel ii. 17, 18. O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days: make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us. Psal. xc. 14, 15. Remove thy stroke away from me, I am consumed by the blow of thine hand: hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry, hold not thy peace at my tears; for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were; O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more. Psal. xxxix. 10. 12, 13. If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and will do that which is right in his sight, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians; for I am the Lord that healeth thee. Exod. xv. 26. Ye shall serve the Lord your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. Exod. xxiii. 25.

XXVI. In the Ember Weeks. No. 1.

1. Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to thyself an universal Church by the precious blood of thy dear Son,

1. God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself. 2 Cor. v. 19. Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it. Eph. v. 25. Feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Acts xx. 28. After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes; and one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Rev. vii. 9. 13, 14.

2. Mercifully look upon the same, and at this time so guide and govern the minds of thy servants the Bishops and Pastors of thy flock,

2. O God of hosts, look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine. Psal. lxxx. 14. Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel. Deut. xxvi. 15. Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Eph. iv. 7. The Lord give thee understanding in all things. 2 Tim. ii. 7. The Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them: and when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. Acts xiii. 2, 3.—See also, Prov. xxi. 1.

3. that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but faithfully and wisely make choice of fit persons to serve in the sacred Ministry of thy Church.

3. Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins. 1 Tim. v. 22. How shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? Rom. x. 14, 15. We are ambassadors for Christ. 2 Cor. v. 20. And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship. Acts i. 24, 25. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Procorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch; whom they set before the apostles, and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. Acts vi. 5, 6.

4. And to those which shall be ordained to any holy function give thy grace and heavenly benediction; that both by their life and doctrine they may set forth thy glory,

4. O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel, therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me: when I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Ezek. xxxiii. 7, 8. The Lord said unto Moses, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord? now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say. Exod. iv. 11, 12. Who is sufficient for these things? our sufficiency is of God; who also hath made us able ministers of the New Testament. 2 Cor. ii. 16. iii. 5, 6. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 2 Tim. ii. 15. Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity: take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them; for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 12. 16. In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works; in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned. Titus ii. 7, 8. Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit; and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. Eph. vi. 18, 19, 20. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. iv. 11.—See also, 1 Tim. vi. 11 to 14.

5. And set forward the salvation of all men; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

5. Unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven. 1 Pet. i. 12. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matt. v. 16. These men are the servants of the Most High God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. Acts xvi. 17. God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation: now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Cor. v. 18, 19, 20. We are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish; to the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. 2 Cor. ii. 15, 16. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves; for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account. Heb. xiii. 17. This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Tim. ii. 3, 4.

XXVII. In the Ember Weeks. No. 2.

1. Almighty God, the Giver of all good gifts,

1. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. James i. 17. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven, give good things to them that ask him? Matt. vii. 11. When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men: he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. iv. 8. 11, 12. To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. 1 Cor. xii. 8, 9, 10.

2. Who of thy Divine Providence hast appointed divers Orders in thy Church;

2. Jesus continued all night in prayer to God: and when it was day, he called unto him his disciples; and of them he chose twelve, whom he named apostles. Luke vi. 12, 13. After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Luke x. 1. For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee. Titus i. 5. Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus, which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons. Phil. i. 1. The things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 2 Tim. ii. 2. Take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar Aaron's sons; and thou shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. Exod. xxviii 1. 41. No man taketh this honour unto himself but he that is called of God, as was Aaron: so also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee. Heb. v. 4, 5 And Eleazar the priest, took the brazen censers and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar, to be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the Lord. Num. xvi. 39, 40.—See also the whole chapter.

3. Give thy grace, we humbly beseech thee, to all those who are to be called to any Office and Administration in the same;

3. Behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high. Luke xxiv. 49. Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you. Acts i. 8. Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Eph. iv. 7. As thy days, so shall thy strength be. Deut. xxxiii. 25. Who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods: unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one. Matt. xxv. 14, 15. This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare. 1 Tim. i. 18. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 1 Tim. iv. 14.

4. and so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and endue them with innocency of life,

4. And of Levi he said, Let thy Thummim and thy Urim [i. e. light, or illumination, and perfection*] be with thy Holy One. Deut. xxxiii. 8. Sanctify them through thy truth, thy word is truth. John xvii. 17. The priest's lips should keep knowledge, he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. ii. 7. He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth. The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, He shall teach you all things. When He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth. John xiv. 16, 17. 26. xvi. 13. Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures. Luke xxiv. 45. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. iii. 16, 17. A bishop then must be blameless; likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience: and let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. 1 Tim. iii. 2. 8, 9, 10. In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works, in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity. Titus ii. 7. Thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness: I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; that thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Tim. vi. 11. 13, 14.

5. that they may faithfully serve before thee,

5. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God: moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Cor. iv. 1, 2. Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. iv. 17. None of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God. Acts xx. 24.

6. to the glory of thy great Name,

6. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit. John xv. 8. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth; that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ. 1 Peter iv. 11. And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling: and my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power; that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. 1 Cor. ii. 3, 4, 5. We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Cor. iv. 7. Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. 2 Cor. ix. 11. O Lord, thy saints shall bless thee: they shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom. Psal. cxlv. 10, 11, 12.—See also, 1 Cor. i. 27, 28, 29. and No. xxvi. § 4.

7. and the benefit of thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7. Forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church: in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue: Let all things be done unto edifying. 1 Cor. xiv. 12. 19. 26. For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. iv. 12 to 16. Even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. v. 25, 26, 27.

XXVIII. A Prayer that may be said after any of the former.

1. O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive,

1. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him. Dan. ix. 9. The Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty. Exod. xxxiv. 6. 7. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy: he will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Mic. vii. 18, 19.

2. Receive our humble petitions;

2. O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation. Psal. lxix. 13. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble; thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear. Psal. x. 17. God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pet. v. 5. Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words, I have heard thee, saith the Lord. 2 Chron. xxxiv. 27.

3. and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins,

3. I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. Acts viii. 23. Pride compasseth them about as a chain. Psal. lxxiii. 6. Innumerable evils have compassed me about; mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head; therefore my heart faileth me. Psal. xl. 12. I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members; O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? Rom. vii. 23, 24. Of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. 2 Pet. ii. 19.

4. yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us;

4. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. James v. 11. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name. Psal. cxlii. 7. They cried unto the Lord in their trouble; and he brake their bands in sunder. Psal. cvii. 13, 14. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. Psal. ciii. 13. And the children of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned, do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee, deliver us only, we pray thee, this day: and they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord; and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel. Judg. x. 15, 16.

5. for the honour of Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

5. Who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vii. 24, 25. Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. John xvi. 23. There is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5. These things write I unto you, that ye sin not; and if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 John ii. 1.

XXIX. A Prayer for the High Court of Parliament.

1. Most gracious God, we humbly beseech thee, as for this Kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious Queen at this time assembled:

1. I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. 1 Tim. ii. 1, 2. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Psal. cxxii. 6. God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us: that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations. Psal. lxvii. 1, 2. Seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the Lord for it, for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. Jer. xxix.

7. When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn. Prov. xxix. 2. Where no counsel is, the people fall; but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety. Prov. xi. 14. By wise counsel thou shalt make thy war. Prov. xxiv. 6. And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers. Josh. xxiv. 1. And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people? 1 Kings xii. 6.

2. That thou wouldest be pleased to direct and prosper all their consultations to the advancement of thy glory, the good of thy Church, the safety, honour and welfare of our Sovereign, and her Dominions:

2. The Lord our God be with us, let him not leave us, nor forsake us. 1 Kings viii. 57. Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Cor. x. 31. And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader; and David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the Lord our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where that are left in the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us; and let us bring again the ark of our God to us. 1 Chron. xiii. 1, 2, 3. The king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem. 2 Chron. xxx. 2. He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God; and as long as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper. 2 Chron. xxvi. 5. Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build. Neh. ii 20.—See also, 2 Chron. x. 6 to 10. xxii. 3, 4.

3. that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavours.

3. Every purpose is established by counsel. Prov. xx. 18. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Prov. iv. 26. To the counsellors of peace is joy. Prov. xii. 20.

upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations.

These are the things that ye shall do, Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates; and love no false oath; love the truth and peace. Zec. viii. 16, 17. 19. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. Psal. cxxii. 7. I, the Lord, love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth. Isa. lxi. 8. Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates; that which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land. Deut. xvi. 18. 20. Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people. Prov. xiv. 34. I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me; keep therefore and do them: for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes; only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons and thy sons' sons; specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. Deut. iv. 5, 6. 9, 10. The Lord commands us to do all these statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our good always. Deut. vi. 24. 4. These and all other necessaries, for them, for us, and thy whole Church, we humbly beg, in the Name and Mediation of Jesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

4. 3. More especially, we pray for the good estate of the Catholick Church;

3. As we have opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. vi. 10. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee: for my* brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee. Psal. cxxii. 6. 8. unto thee shall the vow be performed. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it; thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water; thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it: thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly; thou settlest the furrows thereof; thou makest it soft with showers; thou blessest the springing thereof: thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness: they drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; and the little hills rejoice on every side: the pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing. Psal. lxv. 1. 9 to 13. He watereth the hills from his chambers; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works: he causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart. Psal. civ. 13, 14, 15—See also, Deut. xi. 14, 15.

to his seed for evermore. Psal. xviii. 6. 17. 48, 49, 50. Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand, many times did he deliver them. Psal. cvi. 42, 43. Blessed be the Lord, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications: the Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him: the Lord is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed. Psal. xxviii. 6, 7, 8.—See also, Psal. xxi. 31. cxl. 7. cxliv. 10.

3. We acknowledge it thy goodness that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them:

3. If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, now may Israel say; if it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us; then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us; then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul: then the proud waters had gone over our soul: blessed be the Lord, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth: our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken, and we are delivered. Psal. cxxiv. to 7.

4. beseeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. Thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. Psa xxvii. 9. O continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee, and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. Psal. xxxvi. 10. I will not fa thee, nor forsake thee. Josh. i. 5. It is of th Lord's mercies that we are not consumed; becaus his compassions fail not: they are new ever morning, great is thy faithfulness. Lam. iii. 22, 2 Let these my words, wherewith I have made sup plication before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lor our God day and night, that he maintain th cause of his servant, and the cause of his peop of Israel; that all the people of the earth ma know that the Lord is God, and that there is nor else. 1 Kings viii. 59, 60. All men that see it shall say, This hath God done, for they shall perceive that it is his work. Psal. lxiv. 9. And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine; and all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. Isa. xlix. 26.—See also, Gen. xiv. 20.—Exod. xv.—Jude 5.—2 Sam. xxii.—2 Chron. xx.—Psal. xxi.—liv.—lxxvi.—lxxxiii.—cxliv. &c.

XXXVI. For Restoring Public Peace at Home.

1. O eternal God, our heavenly Father, who alone makest men to be of one mind in a house, and stillest the outrage of a violent and unruly people;

1. He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house. Psal. lxviii. 6. Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh; and the Lord thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel: therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord. 1 Chron. xi. 1, 2, 3. Be still, and know that I am God. Psal. xlvi. 10. Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people. Psal. lxv. 7. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of my people. 2 Sam. xxii. 44.

2. We bless thy Holy Name, that it hath pleased thee to appease the seditious tumults which have been lately raised up amongst us;

2. The Lord liveth, and blessed be my rock, and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation: it is God that avengeth me, and that bringeth down the people under me, and that bringeth me forth from mine enemies; thou also hast lifted me up on high, above them that rose up against me; thou hast delivered me from the violent man. 2 Sam. xxii. 47, 48, 49. And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the Lord for ever; and the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon. 1 Kings ii. 45, 46. When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal; but Jehosheba took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him.—And they made him king, and anointed him: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason; but Jehoiada the priest commanded, Have her forth without the ranges; and him that followeth her kill with the sword: and they laid hands on her; and Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people, that they should be the Lord's people; between the king also and the people: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet, and they slew Athaliah with the sword. 2 Kings xi. 1, 2. 12. 14 to 17. 20. Blessed be the Lord my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight; my goodness and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me. Psal. cxliv. 1, 2.

3. most humbly beseeching thee to grant to all of us grace, that we may henceforth obediently walk in thy holy commandments; and, leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty,

3. Make me to understand the way of thy precepts; make me to go in the path of thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 27. 35. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. Rom. xiii. 1. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake. Fear God. Honour the king. 1 Pet. ii. 13. 17. My son, fear thou the Lord and the king; and meddle not with them that are given to change; for their calamity shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the ruin of them both? Prov. xxiv. 21, 22. I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men, for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. 1 Tim. ii. 1, 2. I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart. Psal. cxix. 32. Whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil. Prov. i. 33.

4. may continually offer to thee our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, for these thy mercies towards us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. Psal. cvii. 21, 22. So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture, will give thee thanks for ever; we will shew forth thy praise to all generations. Psal. lxxix. 13. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. Heb. xiii. 15.

XXXVII. For Deliverance from the Plague, or other common Sickness. No. 1.

1. O Lord God, who hast wounded us for our sins,

1. And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel: and God was displeased with this thing, therefore he smote Israel. 1 Chron. xxi. 1. 7. God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses. Psal. lxviii. 21. They have cast away the law of the Lord of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel; therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them; and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. Isa. v. 24, 25.

2. and confirmed us for our transgressions, by our late heavy and dreadful visitation;

2. Thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us because of our iniquities. Isa. lxiv. 7. We are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled: thou hast set our iniquities before thee, and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. Psal. xc. 7, 8. And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy Name, shall the house of Israel no more defile; in their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall betwen me and them, they have even defiled my holy Name by their abominations that they have committed; wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. Ezek. xliii. 7, 8. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. Heb. x. 31.

3. and now, in the midst of judgment remembering mercy, hast redeemed our souls from the jaws of death;

3. O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in wrath remember mercy. Hab. iii. 2. I will visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes: nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail: my covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Psal. lxxxix. 32, 33, 34. The Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you. Exod. xii. 23. The Lord will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt upon thee. Deut. vii. 15. And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough; stay now thine hand. 2 Sam. xxiv. 16. He, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. Psal. lxxviii. 38. O Lord, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave, thou hast kept me alive that I should not go down to the pit. Psal. xxx. 3. Thou hast delivered my soul from death; wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living? Psal. lvi. 13.—See also, Psal. cvi. 29. 43, 44, 45.

4. We offer unto thy fatherly goodness, ourselves, our souls and bodies, which thou hast delivered, to be a living sacrifice unto thee,

4. What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits towards me? Psal. cxvi. 12. I beseech you therefore, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Rom. xii. 1. My lips will be fain when I sing unto thee, and so will my soul whom thou hast delivered. Psal. lxxi. 21. Return unto thy rest, O my soul, for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee: for thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. Psal. cxvi. 7, 8. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies: like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. Psal. ciii. 2, 3, 4. 13.

5. always praising and magnifying thy mercies in the midst of thy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

5. Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee, let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be magnified. Psal. xl. 16. My tongue shall speak of thy righteousness, and of thy praise all the day long. Psal. xxxv. 28. I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings; I will pay thee my vows, which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble. Psal. lxvi. 13, 14. In the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee. Heb. ii. 12. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people, in the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord. Psal. cxvi. 18, 19. Unto him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen. Eph. iii. 21.

XXXVIII. For Deliverance from the Plague, &c. No. 2.

1. We humbly acknowledge before thee, O most merciful Father, that all the punishments which are threatened in thy law might justly have fallen upon us, by reason of our manifold transgressions and hardness of heart;

1. It shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee. Deut. xxviii. 15. If ye shall despise my statutes, so that ye will not do all my commandments, I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart. Lev. xxvi. 15. 16. He that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief. Prov. xxviii. 14. Harden not your heart as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness. Psal.

xcv. 8. After all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this; should we again break thy commandments, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping? O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day. Ezra ix. 13, 14, 15. It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. Lam. iii. 22.—See also, Isa. lix. 12 to 15. 18.—Deut. xxviii. 21, 22. 27. 61.

2. Yet seeing it hath pleased thee of thy tender mercy, upon our weak and unworthy humiliation,

2. Through the tender mercy of our God. Luke i. 78. His tender mercies are over all his works. Psal. cxlv. 9. O remember not against us former iniquities; let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us; for we are brought very low. Psal. lxxix. 8. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. Dan. ix. 9, 8. Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me; because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days. 1 Kings xxi. 29. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them: and God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them, and he did it not. Jonah iii. 5. 10.

3. to assuage the contagious sickness wherewith we lately have been sore afflicted, and to restore the voice of joy and health into our dwellings:

3. If I send pestilence among my people, if my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 2 Chron. vii. 13, 14. I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord, Jer. xxx. 17. The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous. Psal. cxviii. 15. Thus saith the Lord, Again there shall be heard in this place, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, the voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the Lord of hosts; for the Lord is good; for his mercy endureth for ever. Jer. xxxiii. 10, 11. O Lord my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me: thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing; thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness; to the end that my glory may sing praise unto thee, and not be silent; O Lord, my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever. Psal. xxx. 2. 11, 12.—See also, Jer. xxxi. 13.

4. We offer unto thy divine Majesty the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name, for such thy preservation and providence over us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his Name. Heb. xiii. 15. The Levites said, Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy glorious Name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. Neh. ix. 5. The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence: but we will bless the Lord from this time forth and for evermore: Praise the Lord. Psal. cxv. 17, 18. The grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee, they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth: the living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the father to the children shall make known thy truth. Isa. xxxviii. 18, 19. My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. Luke i. 46, 47. I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. Psal. lxix. 30. The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me; I found trouble and sorrow; then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul: gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful: the Lord preserveth the simple; I was brought low, and he helped me. Psal. cxvi. 3, 4, 5, 6. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge, and my fortress; my God; in him will I trust: surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence: because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation; there shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. Psal. xci. 2, 3. 9, 10. The Lord preserveth all them that love him. Psal. cxlv. 20.

A PRAYER FOR CONVERSION FROM SIN.

1. Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light,

1. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do, of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13. This is the condemnation, that light is to come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil: for every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved: but he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. John iii. 19, 20, 21. Without me ye can do nothing. John xv. 5. In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul. Psal. cxxxviii. 3. Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. v. 11. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Rom. xiii. 12. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth; but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 6, 7. Ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. iii. 9, 10.

2. now in the time of this mortal life, (in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility,)

2. Behold, now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation. 2 Cor. vi. 2. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. John xii. 16. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. John viii. 12. Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. Matt. xxi. 5. Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phil. ii. 5, 6, 7. The Day-spring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. Luke i. 78, 79.

3. that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and dead,

3. The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels. 2 Thess. i. 7. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory; and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another. Matt. xxv. 31, 32. Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. 1 Peter iv. 5. The hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. John v. 28, 29.

4. we may rise to the life immortal,

4. I am he that liveth, and was dead: and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen. Rev. i. 18. The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Thess. iv. 16, 17. Thy brother shall rise again: Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day: Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. John xi. 23 to 26. This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality: so when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Cor. xv. 53, 54.

5. through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen

5. Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept; for as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. xv. 20. 22. Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him; for in that he died, he died unto sin once; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Rom. vi. 9, 10. He is LORD of lords, and KING of kings. Rev. xvii. 14. He hath on his vesture and on his thigh a Name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. Rev. xix. 16. Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever. Heb. i. 8.

A PRAYER BEFORE READING THE SCRIPTURE.

1. Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning;

1. And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee; but he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. Luke xi. 27, 28. The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. 2 Sam. xxiii. 2. Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Rom. xv. 4. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 2 Tim. iii. 16. All these things happened unto them for ensamples, and they are written for our admonition. 1 Cor. x. 11.—See also, Mark xii. 36.

2. Grant that we may in such wise bear them,

2. Take heed therefore how ye hear, for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. Luke viii. 18. Lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. James i. 21.

4. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Acts xvii. 11. And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day; for it is not a vain thing for you, because it is your life. Deut. xxxii. 46, 47.

5. learn,

5. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me; give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 73. As new-born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. 1 Peter ii. 2. Grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Peter iii. 18.

6. and inwardly digest them,

6. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein; for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Josh. i. 8. We ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. Heb. ii. 1.

7, that by patience, and comfort of

thy Holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast, the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Heb. x. 36. My soul fainteth for thy salvation, but I hope in thy word. Psal. cxix. 81. These are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing, ye might have life through his name. John xx. 31. Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein. Rev. i. 3. That on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. Luke viii. 15. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. Rom. xv. 13.—See also above, in § 1. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Peter i. 3, 4. That we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us; which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail; whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus. Heb. vi. 18, 19, 20.

When we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death: I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Rom. vii. 5. 23. Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John iii. 3, 4, 5. Know ye not that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death? therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. Rom. vi. 3, 4. XLIV. Saint Stephen's Day.

A PRAYER FOR THE IMITATION OF THE SAINTS.

1. Grant, O Lord, that, in all our sufferings here upon earth for the testimony of thy truth,

1. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord: if they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you. John xv. 20. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you; and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. Matt. xxiv. 9. And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Acts v. 41. When he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held. Rev. vi. 9.

2. we may stedfastly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that shall be revealed;

2. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth. Isa. xlv. 22. Stephen being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Acts vii. 55, 56. I will direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up. Psal. v. 3. I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Rom. viii. 18. Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for we walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Cor. iv. 17, 18.—v. 7. Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy: if ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye, for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. 1 Pet. iv. 13, 14.

3. and, being filled with the Holy Ghost, may learn to love and bless our persecutors by the example of thy first Martyr Saint Stephen, who prayed for his murderers to thee, O blessed Jesus, who standest at the right hand of God to succour all those that suffer for thee, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

3. They cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, and cast him out of the city; and they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit: and he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. Acts vii. 57 to 60. Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you. Matt. v. 44. Bless them which persecute you; bless, and curse not. Rom. xii. 14. If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink. Prov. xxv. 21. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Luke xxiii. 34. Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Matt. xxviii. 18. Jesus Christ, who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. 1 Pet. iii. 21, 22. He himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted. Heb. ii. 18. He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Heb. vii. 25.

A PRAYER FOR THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.

1. Merciful Lord, we beseech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy Church,

1. This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 1 John i. 5. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. John viii. 12. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. John i. 4.

2. that it being enlightened by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist Saint John

2. Of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles,—James and John. Luke vi. 13, 14. His servant John, who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ. Rev. i. 1, 2. This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things. John xxi. 24. That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the Word of life; that which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you. 1 John i. 1. 3. I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people. Rev. xiv. 6. Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord. Eph. v. 8. God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. iv. 6.

3. may so walk in the light of thy truth, that it may at length attain to the light of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. Isa. lx. 1. Yet a little while is the light with you; walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you; for he that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth. John xii. 35. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth; but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 6, 7. Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 1 Pet. i. 9. With thee is the fountain of life; in thy light shall we see light. Psal. xxxvi. 9. Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. Col. i. 12. And [he] shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, and the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it; for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof: and the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it. Rev. xxi. 10. 23, 24. Now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life: the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 22, 23. The Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. Isa. lx. 19.

When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. iv. 4. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him; but John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared, and he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was: when they saw the star they rejoiced with exceeding great joy; and when they were come into the house they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him. Matt. ii. 1, 2. 7 to 11. Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh; justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Tim. iii. 16. The Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat; but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not. Luke xxii. 31, 32. There were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction; and many shall follow their pernicious ways. 2 Peter ii. 1, 2. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness. 2 Pet. iii. 17. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world. Phil. ii. 15.—See also, Micah vii. 2, 3.

And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us; we perish: and he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Matt. viii. 25, 26. Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I: and Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. When one of the maids of the high priest saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth; but he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest: and a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto: but he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And the second time the cock crew. Mark xiv. 29, 30. 66 to 72.—See also, Psal. ciii. 15, 16.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might; put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. vi. 10, 11. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus; but when he saw the wind boisterous he was afraid; and, beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me; and immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? Matt. xiv. 29, 30, 31. Unless the Lord had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence. Psal. xciv. 17. My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Cor. xii. 9. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations. 2 Pet. ii. 9. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Psal. xxxiv. 17, 18, 19. A PRAYER FOR LOVE AND CHARITY.

1. O Lord, who hast taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth;

1. Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal: and though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing: and though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. 1 Cor. xiii. 1, 2, 3. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind; this is the first and great commandment: and the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: on these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Matt. xxii. 37 to 40. This is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. 1 John v. 3. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? 1 John iv. 20.

Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? my little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth. 1 John iii. 17, 18. The end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned. 1 Tim. i. 5.

2. Send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity,

2. By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body. 1 Cor. xii. 13. The communion of the Holy Ghost be with you. 2 Cor. xiii. 14. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law. Gal. v. 22, 23. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. Acts x. 45. Covet earnestly the best gifts. 1 Cor. xii. 31. Follow after charity. 1 Cor. xiv. 1. The God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded one towards another. Rom. xv. 5. The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you. 1 Thess. iii. 12. The Lord direct your hearts into the love of God. 2 Thess. iii. 5.

3. the very bond of peace and of all virtues,

3. Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves; for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Peter iv. 8. Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Eph. iv. 3. Above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. Col. iii. 14. All the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Gal. v. 14.—See also, 1 Tim. i. 7.

4. without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before thee:

4. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death. 1 John iii. 14. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. 1 John iv. 8. If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. James ii. 15, 16. 26.. I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Rev. iii. 1.—See also, 1 Tim. v. 6.

5. Grant this for thine only Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

5. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. John xvii. 20, 21, This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. As the Father hath loved me, so I have loved you: continue ye in my love. John xv. 12. 9.

2. Now saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning; and rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Joel ii. 12, 13. God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Acts iii. 19. 26. 3. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me : the sacrifices of God are a broken spirit ; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Psal. li. 10. 17. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you ; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. Ezek. xxxvi. 26. 4. Behold this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge ! godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of ; but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 2 Cor. vii. 11. 10. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, because we have sinned against thee. Dan. ix. 8. Woe unto us that we have sinned ! for this our heart is faint ; for these things our eyes are dim. Lam. v. 16, 17. Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly ; but these sheep, what have they done ? 2 Sam. xxiv. 17.—See also, Rev. iii. 17, 18.

5. and acknowledging our wretchedness,

5. Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee; I will lay mine hand upon my mouth. Job xl. 4. I am feeble and sore broken, I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart; my heart panteth, my strength faileth me; as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me. Psal. xxxviii. 8. 10. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? Rom. vii. 24. I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear; but now mine eye seeth thee; wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. Job xlii. 5, 6. A PRAYER FOR CHASTITY.

Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind. 1 Pet. iv. 1. Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. Heb. v. 8, 9.

2. Give us grace to use such abstinence, that, our flesh being subdued to the Spirit,

2. Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked; thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the rock of his salvation. Deut. xxxii. 15. If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Rom. viii. 13. He that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption, but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Gal. vi. 8.

3. we may ever obey thy godly motions in righteousness, and true holiness,

3. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin; but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God: I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. Rom. vi. 13. 19. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13. Put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. iv. 24. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence: he shall cover thee with his feathers; and under his wings shalt thou trust; his truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day, nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday: a thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Psal. xci. 3 to 7. LXIV. The Sunday next before Easter.

A PRAYER THAT WE MAY FOLLOW THE EXAMPLE OF CHRIST.

1. Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ,

1. Ye have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. James v. 11. God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John iii. 16. He first loved us. 1 John iv. 19. He spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all. Rom. viii. 32. God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Rom. v. 8. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him: herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the Propitiation for our sins. 1 John iv. 9, 10.

2. to take upon him our flesh,

2. The word was made flesh and dwelt among us. John i. 14. Christ Jesus, who made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phil. ii. 5. 7. As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; for verily he took not on him the nature of angels, but he took on him the seed of Abraham. Heb. ii. 14. 16. Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; God was manifest in the flesh. 1 Tim. iii. 16.

3. and to suffer death upon the cross,

3. We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death. Heb. ii. 9. Being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phil. ii. 8. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified; and they took Jesus and led him away; and he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a scull, where they crucified him: when Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. John xix. 16, 17, 18. 30.

4. that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility;

4. Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps. 1 Peter ii. 21. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others: let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus. Phil. ii. 4, 5. Ye call me Master and Lord, and ye say well; for so I am: if I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet: for I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. John xiii. 13, 14, 15. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart. Matt. xi. 29.

5. Mercifully grant, that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

5. Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus. Heb. xii. 1, 2. Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him, that judgeth righteously. 1 Peter ii. 23. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Isa. liii. 7. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgement for me; he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness. Micah vii. 9. Consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. Heb. xii. 3. As ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. 2 Cor. i. 7. Since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead: for as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 1 Cor. xv. 21, 22, 23. I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death. Phil. iii. 8. 10. It is a faithful saying, for if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him, if we suffer we shall also reign with him. 2 Tim. ii. 11, 12.—See also Rom. viii. 16, 17.

A PRAYER FOR THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.

1. Almighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family,

1. For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named. Eph. iii. 14, 15. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. iii. 26. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. ii. 19. Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Luke xii. 32.

2. for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross,

2. Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, one of you which eateth with me shall betray me. Mark xiv. 18. Rise, let us be going: behold he is at hand that doth betray me. Matt. xxvi. 46. He that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whosoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely: and as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, Master; and kissed him: and they laid their hands on him, and took him. Mark xiv. 44, 45, 46. Lo, I come, in the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God; I am content to do it; yea, thy law is within my heart. Psal. xl. 9, 10. When we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. Rom. v. 6. Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it. Eph. v. 25. The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Isa. liii. 6. As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up; that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. John iii. 14, 15.—See also, John xiii. 26, 27.

3. who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

3. Being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross: wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name; that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Phil. ii. 8. to 11. I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore. Amen. Rev. i. 18. Unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. Heb. i. 8. The Lord remaineth a King for ever. Psal. xxix. 9. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Tim. i. 17. Alleluia; for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Rev. xix. 6.

A PRAYER FOR THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.

1. Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified;

1. We being many are one bread, and one body. 1 Cor. x. 17. As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ: for by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Cor. xii. 12, 13. Such were some of you, but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Cor. vi. 11. The household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. ii. 19 to 22. The Father shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. John xiv. 16, 17. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them: so they being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed. Acts xiii. 2. 4. It seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things. Acts xv. 28. That the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. Rom. xv. 16. Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. i. 2.

2. Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve thee; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

2. I exhort that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men. 1 Tim. ii. 1. Pray one for another. James v. 16. Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. Eph. vi. 18. I beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long suffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace: there is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all: but unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Eph. iv. 1 to 7. We, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another: having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Rom. xii. 5 to 8. Shewing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Tit. ii. 10. Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as to the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance; for ye serve the Lord Christ. Col. iii. 23, 24.

A PRAYER FOR JEWS, TURKS, INFIDELS, AND HERETICS.

1. O Merciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made,

1. Thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Rev. iv. 11. Know ye that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves. Psal. c. 3. The Lord is good to all, and his tender mercies are over all his works. Psal. cxlv. 9. Your Father which is in heaven maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Matt. v. 45. God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John iii. 16.

2. nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live;

2. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O House of Israel? Ezek. xxxiii. 11. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. Hosea xi. 8. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pet. iii. 9. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. Ezek. xviii. 30. If thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul. Deut. iv. 29.

3. Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics,

3. Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. Rom. x. 1. Because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith: and they also, if they abide not in unbelief, shall be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again: and so all Israel shall be saved. Rom. xi. 20. 23. 26. Ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel: and it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the Holy Mount at Jerusalem. Isa. xxvii. 12, 13. To whom shall I speak, and give warning? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken; behold, the word of the Lord is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Jer. vi. 10. If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost; in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Cor. iv. 3, 4. Ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep. John x. 26. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established. Isa. vii. 9. My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. Jer. ii. 13. Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark xvi. 15. In this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things; and he will destroy in this mountain the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations. Isa. xxv. 6, 7.

It shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall see my glory: and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles; and they shall bring all your brethren to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the Lord: and it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord. Isa. lxvi. 18, 19, 20. 23. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. John xii. 32. The heathen shall fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth thy glory. Psal. cii. 15. God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. Rom. xi. 32.

4. and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word;

4. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Hosea iv. 6. My people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding; they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. Jer. iv. 22. They considered not the miracle of the loaves; for their heart was hardened. Mark vi. 52. They have cast away the law of the Lord of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. Isa. v. 24. · Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness. Psal. xcv. 8. Lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them? Jer. viii. 9. To this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. Isa. lxvi. 2. Even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their [the Jews'] heart; nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. 2 Cor. iii. 15, 16. In that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. Isa. xxix. 18. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. Hab. ii. 14. The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; and that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. 2 Tim. ii. 24, 25, 26.

5. and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

5. When he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. Luke xv. 6. Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock. Jer. xxxi. 10. The Lord God which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him. Isa. lvi. 8. If the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness? Rom. xi. 12. I am the good Shepherd; the good Shepherd giveth his life for the sheep: I am the good Shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine: as the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep: and other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd. John x. 11. 14, 15, 16. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. ii. 18. Ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. 1 Pet. ii. 25. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved. Rom. ix. 27. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. Rom. xi. 5. Thy kingdom come. Matt. vi. 10.

A PRAYER FOR MORTIFICATION.

1. Grant, O Lord, that as we are baptized into the death of thy blessed Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, so by continually mortifying our corrupt affections, we may be buried with him;

1. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death. . . . In that he died, he died unto sin once; likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin; let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Rom. vi. 3, 4. 10, 11, 12. Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God, mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth. Col. iii. 3. 5. And let us not be weary in well-doing. Gal. vi. 9. You that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy, and unblameable, and unreprovable, in his sight, if ye continue in faith grounded and settled. Col. i. 21, 22, 23. The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Titus ii. 11 to 14.

2. and that through the grave, and gate of death, we may pass to our joyful resurrection;

2. It is appointed unto men once to die. Heb. ix. 27. The wages of sin is death. Rom. vi. 23. Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Gen. iii. 19. Since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead: for as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. xv. 21, 22. If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. 1 Thess. iv. 14 Have mercy upon me, O Lord; thou that liftest me up from the gates of death. Psal. x. 13.—See also, 1 Cor. xv. 42, 43, 44.—Col. ii. 20.

3. for his merits, who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again. 1 Cor. xv. 3, 4. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. John vi. 39. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. xv. 55. 57. Who was delivered for our offences and was raised again for our justification. Rom. iv. 25. To this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. Rom. xiv. 9.

A PRAYER FOR GRACE AND ASSISTANCE IN OUR CHRISTIAN COURSE.

1. Almighty God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life;

1. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pet. i. 3. Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death; because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Acts ii. 24. I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. John xi. 25. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death: so when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Cor. xv. 26. 54. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same: that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Heb. ii. 14, 15. Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ; Christ the firstfruits, afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 1 Cor. xv. 57. 23.—See also, 2 Tim i. 10.—John v. 24.

2. We humbly beseech thee, that, as by thy special grace preventing us thou dost put into our minds good desires;

2. Let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us. Psal. lxxix. 8. I know that in me, (that is, in my flesh), dwelleth no good thing. Rom. vii. 18. Lydia, whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. Acts xvi. 14. You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. Eph. ii. 1. Incline mine heart unto thy testimonies. Psal. cxix. 36. No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him; and I will raise him up at the last day. John vi. 44. Draw me, we will run after thee. Cant. i. 4. The Lord our God be with us, that he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgements, which he commanded our fathers. 1 Kings viii. 57, 58.—See also, John x. 4.

3. so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

3. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13. I am continually with thee, thou hast holden me by my right hand; thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Psal. lxxiii. 23, 24. Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. Psal. xxxvii. 5. Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phil. i. 6. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God: Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. John vi. 45. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Heb. xiii. 20, 21.—See also, Rom. viii. 11.—Rev. xxi. 4.

A PRAYER FOR CONVERSION FROM SIN.

1. Almighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification;

1. I delivered unto you, first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures. 1 Cor. xv. 3, 4. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John iii. 16. For in that he died, he died unto sin once. Rom. vi. 10. Jesus our Lord was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Rom. iv. 24, 25.—See also, Rom. viii. 32.—2 Cor. v. 21.—1 Pet. ii. 24.

2. Grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may alway serve thee in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened: for Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. v. 7, 8. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God, for Christ's sake, hath forgiven you. Eph. iv. 31, 32. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is: and every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 John iii. 2, 3. Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. 1 Pet. ii. 1, 2. Cleanse thou me from secret faults. Psal. xix. 12. Search me, O God, and know my heart, try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Psal. cxxxix. 23, 24.—See also, James i. 21.

A PRAYER THAT WE MAY FOLLOW THE EXAMPLE OF CHRIST.

1. Almighty God, who hast given thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin,

1. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Cor. v. 7. Now, once, in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. Heb. ix. 26. He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin. 1 Cor. v. 21. The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all: for the transgression of my people was he stricken, he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed. Isa. liii. 6. 8. 10.—See also, Gal. iii. 13.—John iii. 16.

2. and also an ensample of godly life;

2. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly of heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. Matt. xi. 29. Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pet. ii. 21, 22. For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. John xvii. 19. Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; and walk in love as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour. Eph. v. 1, 2.—See also, John viii. 46.

3. Give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit,

3. Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son; in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Col. i. 12, 13, 14. Rejoice in the Lord alway, and again I say, Rejoice. Phil. iv. 4. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pet. ii. 9. Bless the Lord, O my soul; and forget not all his benefits. Psal. ciii. 2.—See also, Psal. xl. 5.—2 Cor. ix. 15.

Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, looking unto Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith. Heb. xii. 1, 2. He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 John ii. 6.

A PRAYER FOR THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.

1. Almighty God, who shewest to them that be in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness;

1. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. John xii. 46. This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil: for every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved; but he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. John iii. 19, 20, 21.

Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord; walk as children of light: all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light; for whatsoever doth make manifest is light: wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light: see then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Eph. v. 8. 13, 14, 15. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psal. cxix. 105. They that erred in spirit shall come to understanding. Isa. xxix. 24. Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. Isa. xxx. 21.—See also, 1 Pet. ii. 25.—Psal. cvii. 4. 6, 7.—John iv. 19, 20, 21. 23, 24.

2. Grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's Religion, that they may eschew those things that are contrary to their profession,

2. As many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 27. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him. Col. ii. 6. Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pet. ii. 11. Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 2 Tim. ii. 19. He that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile; let him eschew evil, and do good, let him seek peace and ensue it. 1 Pet. iii. 10, 11. That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: if we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth. 1 John i. 3. 6. If after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning; for it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. 2 Pet. ii. 20, 21.

3. and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

3. If any man serve me, let him follow me. John xii. 26. I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. Eph. iv. 1. Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ; that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel. Phil. i. 27. For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. i. 9, 10. Giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity: for if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Pet. i. 5 to 8.—See also, Phil. iii. 17 to 21.—1 Thess. ii. 11, 12.—Titus ii. 10.

A PRAYER FOR THE LOVE OF GOD AND HIS LAWS.

1. O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men;

1. O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. Jer. x. 23. Vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt. Job xi. 12. Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee; the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain. Psal. lxxvi. 10. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Eccl. viii. 11. Yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. Eccl. ix. 3. It was told Laban that Jacob was fled: and he pursued after him and overtook him: and Laban said to Jacob, It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt; but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. And Jacob answered and said, Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. Gen. xxxi. 22. 26. 29. 36. 42. Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness? in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the Majesty of the Lord. Isa. xxvi. 10. Order my steps in thy word; and let not any iniquity have dominion over me. Psal. cxix. 133. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13.—See also, Gen. l. 18. 20.—Acts iv. 27, 28.

2. Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise:

2. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgement; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phil. i. 9, 10, 11. I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phil. iii. 14. I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phil. i. 23. Seeing that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth right-cousness. 2 Pet. iii. 11, 12, 13. What thing soever I command you, observe to do it. Deut. xii. 32. My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgements at all times; I will delight myself in thy commandments which I have loved; O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Psal. cxix. 20. 47. 97.—See also, Psal. cxi. 5.—Ezek. xxxvi. 37.

3. that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. The fashion of this world passeth away. 1 Cor. vii. 31. All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass; the grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away. 1 Pet. i. 24. The world passeth away, and the lusts thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 John ii. 17. We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Cor. iv. 18. He looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God: esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. Heb. xi. 10. 26. I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content: I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound; every where, and in all things, I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need: I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phil. iv. 11, 12, 13. Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God. Heb. xii. 15. Set your affection on things above, and not on things on the earth. Col. iii. 2. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Matt. vi. 21. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us; which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail; whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus. Heb. vi. 18, 19, 20. In thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Psal. xvi. 11. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee: my flesh and my heart faileth; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. Psal. lxxiii. 25, 26.—See also the whole of this Psalm.—Eccl. i. 4 to 8.

A PRAYER FOR HEAVENLY DESIRES.

1. Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe thy only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens;

1. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. Mark xvi. 19. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. Acts i. 9. He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things. Eph. iv. 10. Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive; thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell among them. Psal. lxviii. 18. Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; God was manifest in the flesh, seen of angels, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Tim. iii. 16. Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory. John xvii. 24.

2. so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

2. If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God: set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth; for ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God: when Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. iii. 1 to 4. Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour the Lord Jesus Christ. Phil. iii. 20. Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 John i. 3. Trust ye in the Lord for ever; for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength. Isa. xxvi. 4. things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal; Grant this, O Heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

have I required of thee, deny me them not before I die: Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me: lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain. Prov. xxx. 7, 8, 9. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God. Gen. xxviii. 20, 21. By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went: by faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country; for he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. Heb. xi. 8, 9, 10. 24, 25, 26. What is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Matt. xvi. 26. We faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day; for our light affliction which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Cor. iv. 16, 17, 18. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy

A PRAYER FOR FRUITFULNESS IN GOOD WORKS.

1. O God, who declarest thy almighty power most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity;

I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them, and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. Isa. lxiii. 7. 9. Jesus spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore and teach all nations. Matt. xxviii. 18, 19. Thy mercy is great unto the heavens. Psal. lvii. 10. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and Moses said unto Pharaoh, Glory over me; when shall I entreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses; and he said, To-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word, that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the Lord our God: and the Lord did according to the word of Moses. Exod. viii. 8, 9, 10. 13. The Lord is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish. 2 Pet. iii. 9.—See also, 1 Tim. ii. 4.—Gen. xix. 18, 19.

I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart. Psal. cxix. 32. Draw me, we will run after thee. Cant. i. 4. This is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life. 1 John ii. 25. An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation. 1 Pet. i. 4, 5. Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Cor. vii. 1. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was an hungred and ye gave me meat, I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me; I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Matt. xxv. 34, 35, 36. Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. Matt. vi. 20. A PRAYER FOR THE LOVE OF GOD AND HIS LAWS.

1. Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity;

1. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. 1 Cor. xiii. 13. see the chapter. The apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. Luke xvii. 5. The God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. Rom. xv. 13. We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end. Heb. vi. 11. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgement. Phil. i. 9. Beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 2 Pet. i. 5. 7.—See also, Mark ix. 24.—1 Cor. xii. 8, 9.

2. and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Matt. xxii. 37. 39. If ye love me, keep my commandments: and I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever. He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me, and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him: if a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. John xiv. 15, 16. 21. 23. Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips, I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. Job xxiii. 12. Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently; O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! the law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver: O how love I thy law!

it is my meditation all the day: order my steps in thy word, and let not any iniquity have dominion over me: great peace have they which love thy law; and nothing shall offend them. Psal. cxix. 4, 5. 72. 97. 133. 165. Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 21. All the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen. 2 Cor. i. 20. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Rev. xxii. 14.

The mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee. Isa. liv. 10.

3. keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful,

3. Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not. Psal. xvii. 5. Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe. Psal. cxix. 117. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Matt. vi. 13. Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty, nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me. Prov. xxx. 8. They shall not hunger nor thirst, neither shall the heat nor sun smite them; for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them. Isa. xlix. 10. They verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure, but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness: now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous, nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. Heb. xii. 10, 11.—See also, Deut. viii. 11. 16.

A PRAYER FOR GRACE TO WITHSTAND TEMPTATION.

1. Lord, we beseech thee, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil,

1. Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father. Gal. i. 3, 4. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil: for we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places; wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Eph. vi. 11, 12, 13. For a small moment have forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gathe thee: in a little wrath I hid my face from thee fo a moment; but with everlasting kindness will have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer for the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee: and all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children. Isa. liv. 7, 8. 10. 13. This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and, in their minds will I write them; and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more: having, therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh; and having an High Priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. x. 16, 17. 19 to 22.—See also, Isa. xxxii. 17.—Acts ix. 31. Luke i. 74, 75.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me; O Lord, make haste to help me: for innumerable evils have compassed me about, mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of mine head; therefore my heart faileth me. Psal. xl. 13. 12. CIV. Saint Andrew's Day.

A PRAYER FOR CONVERSION FROM SIN.

1. Almighty God, who didst give such grace unto thy holy Apostle Saint Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him without delay;

1. No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him. John vi. 44. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world; and they have kept thy word. John xvii. 6. The next day after, John stood and two of his disciples; and looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! and the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus; one of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. John i. 35, 36, 37. 40. As he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea, for they were fishers: and Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men; and straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him. Mark i. 16, 17, 18.—See also, Matt. iv. 18, 19, 20.—John xvii. 13.

2. We have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name; among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ. Rom. i. 5, 6. Their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world: the word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is, the word of faith, which we preach. Rom. x 18. 8. Ye believe in God, believe also in me. John xiv. 1. This is his com-

I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies, I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 59, 60. CV. Saint Thomas the Apostle.

A PRAYER FOR A RIGHT AND FIRM FAITH.

1. Almighty and everliving God, who for the more confirmation of the Faith didst suffer thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in thy Son's resurrection;

1. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Heb. xi. 6. Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came: the other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord: but he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them; then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you: then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing: and Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed. And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. John xx. 24 to 31. I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the Gospel. Phil. i. 12. We know that all things work together for good to them that love God. Rom. viii. 28.

2. Grant us so perfectly, and without all doubt to believe in thy Son Jesus Christ, that our faith in thy sight may never be reproved,

2. Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious; and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. 1 Pet. ii. 6. We believe and are sure that thou art that Christ the Son of the living God. John vi. 69. Jesus saith unto them, Have faith in God. Mark xi. 22. When Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus; but when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me: and immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. Matt. xiv. 29 to 33. He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God. John iii. 18. Jesus Christ, whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. 1 Pet. i. 7, 8. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. 1 John iv. 15.—See also, the example of the Centurion's Faith, Matt. viii. 5 to 13. and of that of the Woman of Canaan, Matt. xv. 22 to 28.—viii. 25, 26.—Mark ix. 24.

3. Hear us, O Lord, through the same Jesus Christ, to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory now, and for evermore. Amen.

3. This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. 1 John v. 14. All things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer believing, ye shall receive. Matt. xxi. 22. Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do; if ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. John xiv. 13, 14. Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. ii. 18.—See also, John xv. 16.—Gen. xxii. 15 to 18.

CVI. The Conversion of St. Paul.

A PRAYER THAT WE MAY OBEY, AND FOLLOW, THE DOCTRINE OF THE APOSTLES.

1. O God, who through the preaching of the blessed Apostle Saint Paul, hast caused the light of the Gospel to shine throughout the world;

1. And the Lord said, Arise, enquire for one Saul of Tarsus; for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and Kings, and the children of Israel. Acts ix. 11. 15. I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Tim. i. 12. I have written the more boldly unto you, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles; through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the Gospel of Christ. Rom xv. 15, 16. 19. I am a debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise: so, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also. Rom. i. 14, 15. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. iv. 6. The entrance of thy words giveth light. Psal. cxix. 130. The word of the truth of the Gospel, which is come unto you, as it is in all the world. Col. i. 5, 6. I shewed first unto them at Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. Acts xxvi. 20.—See also, Acts xiii. 9.

2. Grant, we beseech thee, that we having his wonderful conversion in remembrance,

2. I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth; which thing I also did in Jerusalem. As I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, at mid-day, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me; and when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks: and I said, Who art thou, Lord? and he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: but rise, and stand upon thy feet; for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me; whereupon, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision. Acts xxvi. 9 to 19. I was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious; howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. 1 Tim. i. 13. 16. unto thee for the same, by following the holy doctrine which he taught; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

v. 18. I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, and was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea which were in Christ; but they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed: and they glorified God in me. Gal. i. 21 to 24. Having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; that your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again: only let your conversation be as it becometh the Gospel of Christ. Phil. i. 25, 26, 27. I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ: for I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Acts xx. 20, 21. 27. Follow holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. Heb. xii. 14. They themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God. 1 Thess. i. 9. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him. Col. ii. 6. Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more: for ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. 1 Thess. iv. 1, 2.—See also, Heb. xiii. 7, 8.

CVII. The Presentation of Christ in the Temple.

A PRAYER FOR PURITY OF HEART.

1. Almighty and everliving God, we humbly beseech thy Majesty, that,

1. O my God, of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hands: they shall perish, but thou shalt endure; thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end. Psal. cii. 24 to 27. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come: and when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, the four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever. Rev. iv. 8, 9, 10. The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty. Psal. xciii. 1. God hath spoken unto us by his Son, who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the majesty on high. Heb. i. 1, 2, 3. To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power. Jude 25. I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts: the glory of this latter house shall be greater than that of the former, saith the Lord of hosts. Hag. ii. 7. 9. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in; behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. iii. 1. When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. iv. 4. And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him [Jesus] to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord. And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ: and he came by the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word, for mine eyes have seen thy salvation. Luke ii. 22 to 30.

Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth. John xvii. 17. Both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying, Behold, I and the children which God hath given me. Heb. ii. 11, 12, 13. And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight. Col. i. 21, 22. Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Prov. xx. 9. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Psal. li. 10. Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish. Eph. v. 25. 27. Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God. Matt. v. 8. He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. Rev. iii. 5. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. CVIII. Saint Matthias's Day.

A PRAYER FOR THE FITNESS OF MINISTERS.

1. O Almighty God, who into the place of the traitor Judas didst choose thy faithful servant Matthias to be of the number of the twelve apostles;

1. He called unto him his disciples; and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor. Luke vi. 13 to 16. Jesus said unto them, The son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men. Matt. xvii. 22. Supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him. John xiii. 2. Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood: and he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. Matt. xxvii. 3, 4, 5. It is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein; and his bishoprick let another take. Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection: and they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias: and they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell: and they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles. Acts i. 20 to 26.—See also, Psal. cix.

2. Grant that thy Church, being alway preserved from false apostles,

2. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are: while I was with them in the world I kept them in thy name; those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word. John xvii. 11, 12. 20. I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock: also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things to draw away disciples after them. Acts xx. 29, 30. For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ; and no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light: therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works. 2 Cor. xi. 13, 14, 15. There were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers amongst you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them. 2 Pet. ii. 1. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 John iv. 1.—See also Jer. xii. 10.

3. may be ordered and guided by faithful and true pastors; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase: and I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord. Jer. xxiii. 3, 4. I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. Jer. iii. 15. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. iv. 11, 12. For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee. Titus i. 5. Speak thou the things which become sound doctrine; in all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works; in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned. Titus ii. 1. 7, 8. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God; moreover it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful. 1 Cor. iv. 1, 2. Seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy we faint not; but have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully. 2 Cor. iv. 1, 2. No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron: so also Christ glorified not himself to be made an High Priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee. Heb. v. 4, 5. Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; who was faithful in all his house. Heb. iii. 1, 2.—See also, John x. 1 to 16.

CIX. The Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary.

A PRAYER FOR THE BENEFIT OF CHRIST'S DEATH.

1. We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts;

1. It is a good thing that the heart be established with grace. Heb. xiii. 9. I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced. Zech. xii. 10. We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. 2 Cor. vi. 1. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name. Psal.

lxxix. 9.—See also, Eph. iii. 19.—Rom. viii. 26.—1 Cor. i. 4.

2. that, as we have known the Incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel,

2. Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh, and declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. Rom. i. 3, 4. We know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true. 1 John v. 20. When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. iv. 4. Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise; When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost: while Joseph thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost: and she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS. Matt. i. 18. 20, 21.

3. so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory. John xvii. 24. We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man: for it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. Heb. ii. 9, 10. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross: wherefore God also hath highly exalted him. Phil. ii. 8, 9. Jesus our Lord, who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Rom. iv. 24, 25. Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 1 Cor. xv. 20. If we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection.

Rom. vi. 5. I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phil. iii. 8. 10, 11. 20, 21. Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise us up also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. 2 Cor. iv. 14. Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. i. 13. For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things; to whom be glory for ever. Amen. Rom. xi. 36.

A PRAYER FOR A RIGHT AND FIRM FAITH.

1. O Almighty God, who hast instructed thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of thy Evangelist Saint Mark;

1. Take Mark, and bring him with thee; for he is profitable to me for the ministry. 2 Tim. iv. 11. He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers: for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. iv. 11, 12. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven. 1 Pet. i. 12.

spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 John iv. 1. Not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. Titus i. 14. The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. 2 Tim. iv. 3, 4. That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ. Eph. iv. 14, 15. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him; rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught. Col. ii. 6, 7. Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth. 2 Pet. i. 12. As they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem: and so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily. Acts xvi. 4, 5. The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered awhile, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pet. v. 10. Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my Gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith; to God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. 2. Grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life,

1. This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. John xvii. 3. Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace. Job xxii. 21.

2. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life, no man cometh unto the Father, but by me: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also; and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him: Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us; Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father. John xiv. 6 to 9. Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. ii. 18. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ; this is the true God, and eternal life. 1 John v. 20. They profess that they know God, but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. Titus i. 16. Hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments: he that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him: but whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected; hereby know we that we are in him. 1 John ii. 3, 4, 5. I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Tim. i. 12. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh: let us draw near with a

Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me: Now Philip was of Bethsaida. John i. 43, 44. And when it was day he called unto him his disciples; and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; . . . . Philip . . . . and James the son of Alpheus. Luke vi. 13, 14, 15. And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter: and after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me. Acts xv. 6. 13. And the day following Paul went in with us unto James, and all the elders were present. Acts xxi. 18. Other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. Gal. i. 19.—Phil. iii. 17.

4. we may stedfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life. Matt. vii. 14. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him; rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught. Col. ii. 6, 7. And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end; that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Heb. vi. 11, 12. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship. Acts ii. 42. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Cor. xv. 58. For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pet. i. 11. CXII. Saint Barnabas the Apostle.

1 O Lord God Almighty, who didst endue thy holy apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the Holy Ghost,

1. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Rev. iv. 8. The inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding. Job xxxii. 8. Behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high. Luke xxiv. 49. Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. Acts iv. 36, 37. Tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch: who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord: for he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith. Acts xi. 22, 23, 24. Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon, and Lucius, and Manaen, and Saul; as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them: and when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. Acts xiii. 1, 2, 3. God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will. Heb. ii. 4.

2. Leave us not, we beseech thee, destitute of thy manifold gifts,

2. Mine eyes are unto thee, O God, the Lord; in thee is my trust, leave not my soul destitute. Psal. cxli. 8. I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you. John xiv. 18. Take not thy Holy Spirit from me. Psal. li. 11. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Rom. viii. 32. When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men: unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Eph. iv. 8. 7. Covet earnestly the best gifts. 1 Cor. xii. 31.

3. nor yet of grace to use them alway to thy honour and glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. Forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the Church. 1 Cor. xiv. 12. The manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. 1 Cor. xii. 7. Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee. 2 Tim. i. 6. Neglect not the gift that is in thee. 1 Tim. iv. 14. Quicken me, O Lord, for thy name's sake. Psal. cxliii. 11. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation; he that giveth let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Rom. xii. 6, 7, 8. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God: if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth; that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. iv. 10, 11. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Tim. i. 17.

1. With God nothing shall be impossible. Luke i. 37. The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. Luke xviii. 27. He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Psal. cxiii. 9. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord. Mal. iv. 5. Verily, I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist; this is Elias, which was for to come. Matt. xi. 11. 14. A certain priest named Zacharias, and his wife Elisabeth, had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years: and it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord; and when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him; but the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias; for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John: The angel said unto Mary, Behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren: Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son: and it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and his mother answered, He shall be called John; and Zacharias wrote, saying, His name is John: and they marvelled all. Luke i. 5. 7, 8. 11, 12, 13. 35, 36. 57. 59, 60. 63.

2. and sent to prepare the way of thy Son our Saviour, by preaching of repentance,

2. And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest; for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins. Luke i. 76, 77. This is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Matt. iii. 3. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. John i. 6. The word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness: and he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. Luke iii. 2, 3. In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, and saying, Repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand; bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance. Matt. iii. 1, 2. 8. God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus: when John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel: and as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose. Acts xiii. 23, 24, 25. I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. John i. 23. John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, That they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. Acts xix. 4.

3. Make us so to follow his doctrine and holy life,

3. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 35. And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end; that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Heb. vi. 11, 12. John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. Mark i. 4. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe: John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John i. 7. 29. John was a burning and a shining light, and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. John v. 35. Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. Mark vi. 20.

4. that we may truly repent according to his preaching;

4. God now commandeth all men every where to repent. Acts xvii. 30. Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, Bring forth fruits worthy of repentance. Luke iii. 7, 8. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of; but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 2 Cor. vii. 10.—See also, Matt. xxi. 28 to 32.

5. and after his example constantly speak the truth,

5. And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle; but all things that John spake of this man were true. John x. 41. He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness; but a false witness deceit. Prov. xii. 17. Putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour. Eph. iv. 25. Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour, execute the judgment of truth in your gates. Zech. viii. 16.

6. boldly rebuke vice,

6. When John saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Matt. iii. 7. Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him and put him in prison, for Herodias's sake, his brother Philip's wife: for John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her. Matt. xiv. 3, 4. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. Lev. xix. 17. Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. v. 11. Them that sin, rebuke before all, that others also may fear. 1 Tim. v. 20.

7. and patiently suffer for the truth's sake; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7. Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? Matt. xi. 2, 3. When Herod's birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod: and she being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger: and he sent, and beheaded John in the prison. Matt. xiv. 6. 8. 10. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake: rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy; for, behold, your reward is great in heaven; for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets. Luke vi. 22, 23. Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. John v. 33. Be thou partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel according to the power of God. 2 Tim. i. 8. It is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. 1 Pet. iii. 17. If, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. 1 Pet. ii. 20. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. Heb. x. 36. Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing: knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. James i. 4. 3. Let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator. 1 Pet. iv. 19.

CXIV. Saint Peter's Day.

A PRAYER THAT MINISTERS MAY BE DILIGENT.

1. God Almighty give you mercy. Gen. xliii. 14. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights. James i. 17. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things. Rom. viii. 32. And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. John i. 16. A man can receive nothing except it be given him from heaven. John iii. 27. Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious

1. O Almighty God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy Apostle Saint Peter many excellent gifts, faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: according as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue. 2 Pet. i. 1. 3. He ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, and to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils; and Simon he surnamed Peter. Mark iii. 14, 15, 16. Peter said, Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee; In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. Acts iii. 6. By the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. Acts v. xii. 15. When they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said, If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole; Be it known unto you all, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, doth this man stand here before you whole: when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. Acts iv. 7 to 10. 13. Peter standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Hearken to my words: . . . and with many other words did he testify and exhort. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Acts ii. 14. 40, 41. He that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles. Gal. ii. 8. God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ:

but we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Cor. iv. 6, 7.—See also, Matt. iv. 18, 19, 20.—Luke vi. 13, 14.

2. and commandest him earnest y to feed thy flock,

2. So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs: He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? and he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. John xxi. 15, 16, 17.

3. Make, we beseech thee, all Bishops and Pastors diligently to preach thy holy Word,

3. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Tim. iv. 2. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost had made your overseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Acts xx. 28. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. 2 Tim. ii. 15. 7. Grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word. Acts iv. 29. Christ in you, the hope of glory; whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. i. 27, 28.

4. and the people obediently to follow the same,

4. Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Obey them that have the rule over you and submit yourselves; for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief; for that is unprofitable for you. Heb. xiii. 7. 17. We ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip: for if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him? Heb. ii. 1, 2, 3. Our Gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; and ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost, so that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. 1 Thess. i. 5, 6, 7. For this cause thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe: for ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus. 1 Thess. ii. 13, 14.

5. that they may receive the crown of everlasting glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

5. Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly, not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock: and when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pet. v. 2, 3, 4. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Rev. ii. 10. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim. iv. 7, 8. They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. Dan. xii. 3. Walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Thess. ii. 12. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. James i. 12. The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pet. v. 10.

CXV. Saint James the Apostle.

A PRAYER FOR CONVERSION FROM SIN.

1. Grant, O merciful God, that as thine holy Apostle Saint James, leaving his father and all that he had, without delay was obedient unto the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him;

1. God be merciful unto us and bless us. Psal. lxvii. 1. I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful. Jonah iv. 2. Now the names of the twelve apostles are these, The first, Simon, who is called Peter . . . James the son of Zebedee. . . . Matt. x. 2. And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them; and they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him. Matt. iv. 21, 22. Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the Church, and he killed James the brother of John with the sword. Acts xii. 1, 2. See also, Mark i. 19, 20.

2. so we, forsaking all worldly and carnal affections,

2. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world: if any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 John ii. 15. Then answered Peter, Behold, we have forsaken all and followed thee; Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel: and every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlasting life. Matt. xix. 27, 28, 29. To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace: because the carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Rom. viii. 6, 7. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. v. 24.—See also, Mark x. 23, 24.

3. may be evermore ready to follow thy holy commandments; through Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

3. Ever follow that which is good. 1 Thess. v. 15. Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. Mark xiv. 38. Put them in mind to be ready to every good work. Titus iii. 1. The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly, in this present world. Titus ii. 11, 12. Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Heb. xii. 1. As ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. Rom. vi. 19. Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap. Gal. vi. 9. For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us. 2 Thess. iii. 7. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me. John xiv. 21. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Rev. xxii. 14.—See also, Heb. xi. 24 to 27.—xii. 14.

CXVI. Saint Bartholomew the Apostle.*

A PRAYER THAT THE WORD OF GOD MAY BE FAITHFULLY PREACHED AND OBEDIENTLY RECEIVED.

1. O Almighty and everlasting God, who

1. The names of the twelve apostles are these;

* It is the opinion of many learned men that Bartholomew was the same as Nathaniel.

didst give to thine Apostle Bartholomew grace truly to believe and to preach thy Word;

The first, Simon, who is called Peter, ... Philip, and Bartholomew . . . . these twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; and as ye go, preach. Matt. x. 2, 3. 5. 7. And they went out, and preached that men should repent. Mark vi. 12. The preparations of the heart of man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord. Prov. xvi. 1. When they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak; for it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. Matt. x. 19, 20.

2. Grant, we beseech thee, unto thy Church, to love that Word which he believed, and both to preach and receive the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. Eph. v. 25, 26. Receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. James i. 21. They received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 2 Thess. ii. 10. For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Thess. ii. 13. By the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain, but I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me: therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed. 1 Cor. xv. 10, 11. I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. Job xxiii. 12. My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times: I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved: O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Psal. cxix. 20. 47. 97. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery; to the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the Church the manifold wisdom of God. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen. Eph. iii. 8, 9, 10. 20, 21.

CXVII. Saint Matthew the Apostle.

A PRAYER AGAINST COVETOUSNESS.

1. O Almighty God, who by thy blessed Son didst call Matthew from the receipt of custom to be an Apostle and Evangelist;

1. And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom; and he saith unto him, Follow me: and he arose, and followed him. Matt. ix. 10. Now the names of the twelve apostles are these, ... Matthew the publican, ... these twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, As ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Matt. x. 2, 3. 5. 7. Do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Tim. iv. 5.—See also, Luke v. 27, 28, 29.—Mark ii. 14.

2. Grant us grace to forsake all covetous desires, and inordinate love of riches,

2. And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Luke xii. 15. If riches increase, set not your heart upon them. Psal. lxii. 10. When Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing; sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come follow me: and when he heard this, he was very sorrowful; for he was very rich: and when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! Luke xviii. 22, 23, 24. Having food and raiment let us be therewith content: they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition: for the love of money is the root of all evil; which, while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows: but thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 1 Tim. vi. 8 to 11. Let your conversation be without covetousness, and be content with such things as ye have. Heb. xiii. 5.—See also, concerning Zaccheus the publican, in Luke xix. 1 to 19.

3. and to follow the same thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

3. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. Psal. cxix. 36. A certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest: and Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Matt. viii. 19, 20. Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. 2 Cor. viii. 9. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me: for what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Matt. xvi. 24. 26. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. John x. 27. Likewise whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Luke xiv. 33. He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 John ii. 6. Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee: and he said unto them, Verily, I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting. Luke xviii. 28, 29, 30. If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. John xii. 26.

CXVIII. Saint Michael and all Angels.

A PRAYER FOR THE GUARDIANSHIP OF ANGELS.

1. O everlasting God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order:

1. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Psal. xc. 2. Thou, even thou, art Lord alone, thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. Neh. ix. 6. For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by him, and for him. Col. i. 16. They continue this day according to thine ordinances; for all are thy servants. Psal. cxix. 91. Michael the Archangel. Jude 9. And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. Rev. xii. 7. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God. Rev. vii. 11. The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels; the Lord is among them as in Sinai, in the holy place. Psal. lxviii. 17. Who maketh his angels spirits, his ministers a flaming fire. Psal. civ. 4. When I consider the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained; what is man that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man that thou visitest him? for thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour: thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands, thou hast put all things under his feet. Psal. viii. 3 to 6. God hath set some in the Church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. 1 Cor. xii. 28. O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name, for thou hast done wonderful things. Isa. xxv. 1. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered. Psal. cxi. 4. The heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord. Psal. lxxxix. 5. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word: bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts, ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure. Psal. ciii. 20, 21. All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord, and thy saints shall bless thee. Psal. cxlv. 10. Praise ye him, all his angels; praise ye him, all ye hosts; kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth; both young men, and maidens; old men, and children; let them praise the name of the Lord; for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven. Psal. cxlviii. 2. 11, 12, 13.

2. Mercifully grant, that as thy holy Angels alway do thee service in heaven, so by thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Rev. v. 11, 12. I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple: above it stood the seraphims; each one had six wings, with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly: and one cried unto another, and said, Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. Isa. vi. 1, 2, 3. They rest not day and night, saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty. Rev. iv. 8. The angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings. Luke i. 19. Lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid; and suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men. Luke ii. 9. 13, 14. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Matt. vi. 10. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Psal. xxxiv. 7. He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways; they shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Psal. xci. 11, 12. And Jacob dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven; and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. Gen. xxviii. 12. There came two angels to Sodom at even; and when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city. Gen. xix. 1. 15. And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him: and when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's host. Gen. xxxii. 1, 2. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me. Dan. vi. 22. And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly: and his chains fell off from his hands. Acts xii. 7. There stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar; and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. Acts xxvii. 23, 24. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones, for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. Matt. xviii. 10. Whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels. Mark viii. 38. Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? Heb. i. 14.—See also, the whole book of the Revelation of St. John.

CXIX. Saint Luke the Evangelist.

A PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL HEALTH.

1. Almighty God, who calledst Luke the Physician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be an Evangelist, and Physician of the soul;

1. After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also. Luke x. 1. No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. Heb. v. 4. How shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! Rom. x. 15. Luke, the beloved Physician, and Demas, greet you. Col. iv. 14. These salute thee, Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus; Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, [Luke,] my fellow-labourers. Phil. 23, 24. Only Luke is with me. 2 Tim. iv. 11. We have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the churches. 2 Cor. viii. 18. Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word: it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus. Luke i. 1, 2, 3. The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen. Acts i. 1, 2. When the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? but when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. Matt. ix. 11, 12.

2. May it please thee, that, by the wholesome medicines of the doctrine delivered by him, all the diseases of our souls may be healed; through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. He shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb: in the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. Rev. xxii. 1, 2. O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the Lord straightened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly? Mic. ii. 7. If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, he is proud. 1 Tim. vi. 3, 4. If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine. 1 Tim. iv. 6. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. Heb. xiii. 9. Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved. Jer. xvii. 14. Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered? Jer. viii. 22. Unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings. Mal. iv. 2. Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses. Matt. viii. 17. With his stripes we are healed. Isa. liii. 5. Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house. Matt. ix. 5, 6. If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole, Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole: neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts iv. 9, 10. 12. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases. Psal. ciii. 2, 3.

CXX. Saint Simon and Saint Jude.

A PRAYER FOR THE UNITY OF THE CHURCH.

1. O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the head corner-stone;

1. He called unto him his disciples, and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles, ... Simon called Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. Luke vi. 13. 15, 16. And his brethren, ... Simon and Judas. Matt. xiii. 55. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; and as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Matt. x. 5. 7. Ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the houshold of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. ii. 19 to 22. Upon this rock I will build my church. Matt. xvi. 18. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. Rev. xxi. 14. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation. Isa. xxviii. 16. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner; this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Matt. xxi. 42.—See also, Psal. cxviii. 22, 23.—1 Pet. ii. 6.

2. Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine,

2. These things I command you, that ye love one another. John xv. 17. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us. John xvii. 20, 21. Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace: there is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Till we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Eph. iv. 3 to 6. 13. Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Cor. i. 10. Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded; whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. Phil. iii. 15, 16. Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. i. 8. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed. 2 John 10. Only let your conversation be as it becometh the Gospel of Christ; that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel. Phil. i. 27. Let us follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. Rom. xiv. 19.

3. that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee; through Jesus Christ

3. Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? if any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. 1 Cor. iii. 16, 17. What agreement

hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Cor. vi. 16. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. ii. 5. In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord. Eph. ii. 21. Now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. Acts xx. 32. To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. Eph. i. 6.

A PRAYER FOR THE IMITATION OF THE SAINTS.

1. O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord;

1. That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 John i. 3. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. John xvii. 20, 21. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. ii. 19. The fellowship of the mystery, which is from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ; of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named. Eph. iii. 9. 15. Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father. 1 Pet. i. 2. We are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones: this is a great mystery; but I speak concerning Christ and the Church. Eph. v. 30. 32. And he is the head of the body, the Church. Col. i. 18. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ; for by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free, and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Cor. xii. 12, 13. Being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God. Col. ii. 2. 19. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office; so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Rom. xii. 4, 5. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? for we being many, are one bread, and one body, for we are all partakers of that one bread. 1 Cor. x. 16. 17. God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Cor. i. 9.

2. Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living,

2. God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pet. v. 5. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth; but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 6, 7. Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Heb. vi. 23. Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Cor. xi. 1. For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us; for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you. 2 Thess. iii. 7. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you. Phil. iv. 9. For our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Phil. iii. 20. And they continued stedfastly in the Apostle's doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. Acts ii. 42. If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phil. ii. 1, 2. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Phil. iv. 8. Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. Heb. xii. 1, 2.

3. that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

3. Be sober, and hope to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. i. 13. It is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. 1 Cor. ii. 9. The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Isa. xxxv. 10. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Matt. xxv. 34. Unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and Church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the Mediator of the new Covenant. Heb. xii. 22, 23, 24. Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 21. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen. 2 Cor. xiii. 14.—See also, James i. 12. ii. 5.—Eph. vi. 24.—1 Cor. xvi. 22.

Seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. Dan. iv. 25. Lord, remember David, and all his afflictions; how he sware unto the Lord, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob; surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed; I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids, until I find out a place for the Lord, an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob. Psal. cxxxii. 1 to 5. 5. Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's, and unto God the things which are God's. Matt. xxii. 21. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers; for there is no power but of God; whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God; and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation; for rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil; wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same; for he is the minister of God to thee for good: wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. Rom. xiii. 1 to 5. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. 1 Pet. ii. 13, 14. 17. It is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. Acts xxiii. 5. My son, fear thou the Lord and the king; and meddle not with them that are given to change. Prov. xxiv. 24. Curse not the king, no not in thy thought. Eccl. x. 20. Our Lord Jesus Christ, which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen. 1 Tim. vi. 14, 15, 16. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Rev. iv. 8. Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. Rev. v. 13. —See also, Deut. xvii. 8 to 13.

1. Almighty and everlasting God, we are taught by thy holy word, that the hearts of Kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdom:

1. Thy throne is established of old, thou art from everlasting. Psal. xciii. 2. The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water, he turneth it whithersoever he will. Prov. xxi. 1. God hath put in their [the kings'] hearts to fulfil his will. Rev. xvii. 17. In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah: who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah, and build the house of the Lord God of Israel. Ezra i. 1, 2, 3. Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem. Ezra vii. 27. see also, 11 to 28. To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Rom. xvi. 27.

2. We humbly beseech thee so to dispose and govern the heart of Victoria thy Servant, our Queen and Governor, that, in all her thoughts, words, and works, she may ever seek thy honour and glory, and study to preserve thy people committed to her charge, in wealth, peace, and godli-

2. He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds; from following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance: so he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands. Psal. lxxviii. 70, 71, 72. O Lord our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy Name, cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own: I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness: as for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee: O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, ness : Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee. 1 Chron. xxix. 16, 17, 18. I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort: then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon. Dan. iii. 29, 30. Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me; when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. Neh. ii. 9, 10. Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. 1 Chron. xxii. 9. That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth, that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace; that our garners may be full, affording all manner of store, that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets; that our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no breaking in, nor going out, that there be no complaining in our streets: happy is that people, that is in such a case; yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord. Psal. cxliv. 12 to 15. Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his figtree. 1 Kings iv. 25. Happy art thou, O Israel, who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord. Deut. xxxiii. 29. Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Tim. i. 2. CXXV. The Nicene Creed.

1. I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

1. He that cometh to God must believe that he is. Heb. xi. 6. There is one God, and there is none other but he. Mark xii. 32. To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him. 1 Cor. viii. 6. I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty. Exod. vi. 3. Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Rev. xv. 3.—See also, Deut. iv. 29.—Psal. cxlvi. 5, 6.—Matt. xi. 25.

2. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, By whom all things were made:

2. To us there is but one Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. viii. 6. We beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. And he is before all things and by him all things consist. Who is the image of the invisible God. Col. i. 17. 15. The brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person. Heb. i. 3. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts iv. 12. And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. John i. 14. The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary: and the angel said unto her, Behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his name JESUS. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? and the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. Luke i. 26, 27. 30, 31. 34, 35. There is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5. Since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 1 Cor. xv. 21. 4. And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures. 1 Cor. xv. 3, 4. If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Col. iii. 1. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Matt. xxv.

5. Sanctified by the Holy Ghost. Rom. xv. 16. Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you? 1 Cor. vi. 19. Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called? James ii. 7. Woe unto you, Lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge, ye enter not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. Luke xi. 52. Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; the Lord reward him according to his works: of whom be thou ware also, for he hath greatly withstood our words. 2 Tim. iv. 14, 15. And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just. Rom. iii. 8. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10. But now ye put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Col. iii. 8. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils; ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. 1 Cor. x. 21. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. Acts iii. 19. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. 1 Cor. xi. 31. Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve, and he went his way, and communed with the Chief Priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them; and he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. And Jesus said, Behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table; and truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined; but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! Luke xxii. 3, 4. 6. 21, 22. Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the Chief Priests and elders, saying I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood: and they said, What is that to us? see thou to that: and he cast down the thirty pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. Matt. xxvii. 3, 4, 5.—See also, Acts i. 18.

16. And because it is requisite, that no man should come to the holy Communion, but with a full trust in God's mercy, and with a quiet conscience;

16. They said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. Acts xvi. 31. If our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things: beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 John iii. 20, 21. Ye are come to Jesus the Mediator of the new Covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. Heb. xii. 22. 24. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh; and having an High Priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. x. 19 to 22.—See also, 23 to 29. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. Rom. xiv. 5. I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever. Psal. lii. 8. Behold, God is my salvation, I will trust, and not be afraid; for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song, he also is become my salvation. Isa. xii. 2.

17. therefore if there be any of you, who by this means cannot quiet his own conscience herein, but requireth further comfort

17. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. James v. 16. The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary; he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned. Isa. l. 4. Now we exhort you, or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other discreet and learned Minister of God's Word, and open his grief; that by the ministry of God's holy Word he may receive the benefit of absolution, together with ghostly counsel and advice, to the quieting of his conscience, and avoiding of all scruple and doubtfulness.

brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. 1 Thess. v. 14. I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. Luke xxii. 32. The servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves. 2 Tim. ii. 24, 25. Receive ye the Holy Ghost; whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosesoever sins ye retain, they are retained. John xx. 22, 23. To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also; for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ, lest Satan should get an advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices. 2 Cor. ii. 10, 11. I rejoice that ye sorrowed to repentance, for ye were made sorry after a godly manner. 2 Cor. vii. 9. I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. 1 Tim. ii. 8. Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. v. 1.

CXXVIII. The Exhortation to the Holy Communion.

1. Dearly beloved brethren, on — I intend, by God's grace, to celebrate the Lord's Supper; unto which, in God's behalf, I bid you all that are here present; and beseech you, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, that ye will not refuse to come thereto, being so lovingly called and bidden by God himself.

1. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Cor. v. 20. Eat, O friends, drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved. Cant. v. 1. The Lord's supper. 1 Cor. xi. 20. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters; and he that hath no money, come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price; wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Isa. lv. 1, 2. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come: and let him that heareth say, Come: and let him that is athirst come: and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. xxii. 17.

2. Ye know how grievous and unkind a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kind of provision, so that there lacketh nothing but the guests to sit down; and yet they who are called (without any cause) most unthankfully refuse to come.

2. The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, and they would not come. They made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandize; and the remnant took his servants, and intreated them spitefully, and slew them: then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy; go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. Matt. xxii. 2 to 6. 8, 9.—See also, Luke xiv. 16 to 24.—Prov. ix. 1 to 12.

3. Which of you in such a case would not be moved? Who would not think a great injury and wrong done unto him? Wherefore, most dearly beloved in Christ, take ye good heed, lest ye, withdrawing yourselves from this holy Supper, provoke God's indignation against you.

3. All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the Law and the Prophets. Matt. vii. 12. Wherefore as the Holy Ghost saith, To-day if ye will hear his voice; harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. in the day of temptation in the wilderness; when your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years; wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart, and they have not known my ways: so I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. Heb. iii. 7 to 12. Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. If any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him: but we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. Heb. x. 25. 38, 39.

4. It is an easy matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise hindered with worldly business.

4. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you, or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the Lord. Num. ix. 10. O Lord, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed. Jer. xvii. 13. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold,

But such excuses are not so easily accepted and allowed before God. If any man say, I am a grievous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come: wherefore then do ye not repent and amend? When God calleth you, are ye not ashamed to say ye will not come?

my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed. Isa. lxv. 13. The times of this ignorance God winked at, but now commandeth all men every where to repent; because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained. Acts xvii. 30, 31. Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 6. What think ye? A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard: he answered and said, I will not. Matt. xxi. 28, 29. Put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well. Isa. i. 16, 17.—See also, Luke xiv. 16, &c.—xiii. 3.

5. When ye should return to God, will ye excuse yourselves, and say ye are not ready? Consider earnestly with yourselves how little such feigned excuses will avail before God.

5. Despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Rom. ii. 4. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh; for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. Heb. xii. 25. Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap: he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption, but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Gal. vi. 7, 8. Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; but ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof; I also will laugh at your calamity, I will mock when your fear cometh, when your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind, when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Prov. i. 24 to 27.—See also, Matt. xxv. 7 to 12.

6. They that refused the feast in the Gospel,

6. A certain man made a great supper, and bade many; and sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are because they had bought a farm, or would try their yokes of oxen, or because they were married, were not so excused, but counted unworthy of the heavenly feast.

now ready: and they all with one consent began to make excuse: the first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it; I pray thee have me excused: Another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused: Another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come: then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper. Luke xiv. 16 to 21. 24. Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you; but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Acts xiii. 46.

7. I, for my part, shall be ready; and, according to mine Office, I bid you in the Name of God, I call you in Christ's behalf, I exhort you, as ye love your own salvation, that ye will be partakers of this holy Communion.

7. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his houshold, to give them meat in due season? Matt. xxiv. 45. Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof. 1 Pet. v. 2. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Cor. v. 20. Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten. Jer. l. 5. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation. Heb. ii. 3. Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is. Heb. x. 25.—See also, Luke xxii. 8. 13.

8. And as the Son of God did vouchsafe to yield up his soul by death upon the Cross for your salvation; so it is your duty to receive the Communion in remembrance of the sacrifice of his death, as he himself

8. Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? and he said unto them, Ye say that I am. Luke xxii. 70. If thou be the Son of God, Come down from the cross: Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. Matt. xxvii. 40. 50. When Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit; and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. Luke xxiii. 46. Christ died for our sins. 1 Cor. xv. 3. Neither is there salvation in any other. Acts iv. 12. The Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread; and hath commanded:

when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body, which is broken for you; This do in remembrance of me: after the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 1 Cor. xi. 23, 24, 25.

9. which if ye shall neglect to do, consider with yourselves how great injury ye do unto God, and how sore punishment hangeth over your heads for the same; when ye wilfully abstain from the Lord's Table,

9. He that heareth you heareth me, and he that despiseth you despiseth me, and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Luke x. 16. The man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people; because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. Num. ix. 13. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses; of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? for we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord: it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. Heb. x. 28 to 31. Consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. Psal. l. 22. If there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. 2 Cor. viii. 12.—See also, John vi. 53.

10 and separate from your brethren, who come to feed on the banquet of that most heavenly food.

10. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. Jude 19. The just shall live by faith; but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him: but we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. Heb. x. 38, 39.—See also, Prov. xxii. 2.—Gal. v. 1.

11. These things if ye earnestly consider, ye will by God's grace return

11. Stand in awe, and sin not; commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Psal. iv. 4. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter to a better mind:

end! Deut. xxxii. 29. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways. Hag. i. 7. Consider what I say, and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. 2 Tim. ii. 7. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little; blessed are all they that put their trust in him. Psal. ii. 12. Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord. Lam. iii. 40. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies; I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 59, 60.

12. for the obtaining whereof we shall not cease to make our humble petitions unto Almighty God our heavenly Father

12. Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you the good and the right way. 1 Sam. xii. 23. Hear me, O Lord, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the Lord God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again. 1 Kings xviii. 37. Turn thou us unto thee, O Lord, and we shall be turned, renew our days as of old. Lam. v. 21. Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. Rom. x. 1.

1. Dearly beloved in the Lord, ye that mind to come to the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, must consider how Saint Paul exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup.

1. My dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. Phil. iv. 1. Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims. 1 Pet. ii. 11. Amplias my beloved in the Lord. Rom. xvi. 8. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 1 Cor. x. 16. Let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 1 Cor. xi. 28.—See also, 2 Cor. xiii 5.—Psal. iv. 4—Gal. vi. 4.

2. Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. Acts xx. 21. Then Peter

2. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we receive that holy Sacrament; (for then we spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink his blood; then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us; we are one with Christ, and Christ with us;)

said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost; for the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call: and they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers: and they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. Acts ii. 38, 39. 42. 46, 47. The Publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. Luke xviii. 13. Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life: and we believe and are sure, that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day: for my flesh is meat indeed; he that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. John vi. 68, 69. 54, 55, 56. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word, that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; and the glory which thou gavest me I have given them, that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. John xvii. 20 to 23. He that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the spirit which he hath given us. 1 John iii. 24. No man hath seen God at any time: if we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us: God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. 1 John iv. 12. 16. Abide in me, and I in you: as the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me. John xv. 4.

3. so is the danger great, if we receive the same unworthily. For then we are guilty of the Body and Blood of Christ our Saviour; we eat and drink our own damnation, not considering the Lord's Body; we kindle God's wrath against us; we provoke him to plague us with divers diseases, and sundry kinds of death. Judge therefore yourselves, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord;

3. Whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord: for he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body: for this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep: for if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged: when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 1 Cor. xi. 27. 29 to 32. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little: Blessed are all they that put their trust in him. Psal. ii. 12.—See also, Exod. xii. 15.—Lev. xvii. 4. 9.—xix. 8.—Num. ix. 13.

4. Repent you truly for your sins past, have a lively and stedfast faith in Christ our Saviour, amend your lives, and be in perfect charity with all men; so shall ye be meet partakers of those holy mysteries.

4. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Isa. lv. 7. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. Isa. xlv. 22. Repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mark i. 15. Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance. Matt. iii. 8. Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. John vi. 37. Lord, increase our faith. Luke xvii. 5. Above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. Col. iii. 14. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God: he that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love: herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the Propitiation for our sins; beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another: if we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. 1 John iv. 7, 8. 10, 11, 12. I will wash mine hands in innocency; so will I compass thine altar, O Lord. Psal. xxvi. 6.—See also, Psal. xxxiv. 13, 14.

5. And above all things ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ,

5. Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the Most High. Psal. l. 14. What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord: I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Psal. cxvi. 12, 13. 17. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. v. 20. Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift. 2 Cor. ix. 15. Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Cor. i. 30. By his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. Heb. ix. 12. And he is the Propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John ii. 2. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof, for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Rev. v. 9.

6. both God and man; who did humble himself, even to the death upon the Cross,

6. No man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. John iii. 13. Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phil. ii. 6, 7, 8.

7. for us, miserable sinners, who lay in darkness and the shadow of death; that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life.

7. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. 1 Cor. xv. 19. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. i. 15. The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which is lost. Luke xix. 10. The day-spring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. Luke i. 78, 79. I am come that they [i. e. the sheep] might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. John x. 10. Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: and you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight. Col. i. 12, 13. 21, 22. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. iii. 26. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John vi. 47.

8. And to the end that we should alway remember the exceeding great love of our Master, and only Saviour, Jesus Christ, thus dying for us, and the innumerable benefits which by his precious blood-shedding he hath obtained to us;

8. And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever: and it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service? that ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lord's passover. Exod. xii. 24. 26, 27. This do in remembrance of me. Luke xxii. 19. The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works, that they ought to be had in remembrance. Psal. cxi. 4. Ye call me Master and Lord; and ye say well, for so I am. John xiii. 13. I, even I, am the Lord, and beside me there is no Saviour. Isa. xliii. 11. I am the good Shepherd; the good Shepherd giveth his life for his sheep. John x. 11. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. John xv. 13. God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Rom. v. 8. Now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ: through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father: now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. ii. 13. 18, 19. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven give namong men, whereby we must be saved. Acts iv. 12. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him. 1 John iii. 2. Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers, but with the precious blood of Christ. 1 Pet. i. 18, 19.—See also, 1 Thess. i. 10.

9. he hath instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of his love, and for a continual remembrance of his death, to our great and endless comfort.

9. The Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you; this do in remembrance of me: after the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 1 Cor. xi. 23, 24, 25. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; and he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves; and he took bread and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you, this do in remembrance of me: also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 15. 17. 19, 20. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me; thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Psal. xxiii. 4, 5. In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul. Psal. xciv. 19. 10. To him therefore, with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, let us give (as we are most bounden) continual thanks; submitting ourselves wholly to his holy will and pleasure, and studying to serve him in true holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. Amen.

10. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. Psal. ciii. 2. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving. Psal. xcv. 2. I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord: I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people. Psal. cxvi. 13, 14. We are bound to thank God always. 2 Thess. i. 3. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. Heb. xiii. 15. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Heb. xiii. 20, 21.—See also, Psal. lxxxix. 1.—cviii. 1.

CXXX. The Immediate Invitation.

1. Ye that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins,

1. Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more; that which I see not teach thou me, if I have done iniquity, I will do no more. Job xxxiv. 31, 32. Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened; for even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. v. 7, 8. Godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of; but the sorrow of the world worketh death: for behold this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! 2 Cor. vii. 10, 11.

2. and are in love and charity with your neighbours,

2. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Matt. xxii. 39. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not, charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up: doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 1 Cor. xiii. 4 to 7. If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again; if thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him. Exod. xxiii. 4, 5. Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God; he that loveth not, knoweth not God, for God is love: herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the Propitiation for our sins: beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. 1 John iv. 7 to 11.

He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now: he that loveth his brother abideth in the light. 1 John ii. 9, 10. If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7.

3. and intend to lead new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways;

3. If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away, behold, all things are become new. 2 Cor. v. 17. Like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Rom. vi. 4. 6. That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. iv. 22, 23, 24. For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead; and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Cor. v. 14, 15. Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God; thy Spirit is good, lead me into the land of uprightness. Psal. cxliii. 10. Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. Luke ix. 57. I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart. Psal. cxix. 32.

4. Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort;

4. Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. x. 22. Be of good comfort, rise, he calleth thee. Mark x. 49. It is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works. Psal. lxxiii. 28. Jesus Christ, whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. 1 Pet. i. 7, 8. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 1 Cor. x. 16. Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pet. iv. 13.

5. and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

5. Now therefore make confession unto the Lord God. Ezra x. 11. O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our Maker. Psal. xcv. 6. Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God. Jer. iii. 13. I acknowledge my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me. Psal. li. 3. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. James iv. 8. 10. And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed. Luke xxii. 41.—See also, Acts xxi. 5.

3. We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments; neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. Dan. ix. 5, 6. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High. Psal. xcii. 1. Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Rev. v. 12. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. Heb. xiii. 15. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise shall continually be in my mouth. Psal. xxxiv. 1. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands; serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song. Psal. c. 1. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Chron. xxix. 13. And a voice came out of the throne saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great: and I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and a the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Rev. xix. 5, 6.

CXXXIV. The Trisagium. [Thrice Holy.]

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Amen.

After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb; and all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen; Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. Rev. vii. 9 to 12. They rest not day and night, saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Rev. iv. 8. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. Isa. vi. 3. Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and Church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect. Heb. xii. 22, 23. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest. Luke ii. 13, 14. I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. Psal. lxix. 30. Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. Rom. xv. 11. They lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is. Acts iv. 24. The heavens declare the glory of God. Psal. xix. 1.

The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory. Psal. xcvii. 6. The heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord; thy faithfulness also in the congregation of thy saints. Psal. lxxxix. 5. David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our Father, for ever, and ever: Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine, thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all: both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all, and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all: now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Chron. xxix. 10 to 13. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things: and blessed be his glorious name for ever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen. Psal. lxxii. 18, 19.—See also, Acts vii. 55.

CXXXV. Proper Preface for Christmas-day.

Because thou didst give Jesus Christ thine only Son to be born as at this time for us; who, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, was made very man of the substance of the Virgin Mary his mother; and that without spot of sin, to make us clean from all sin.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will toward men: for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Luke ii. 14. 11. Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh, and declared to be the Son of God with power. Rom. i. 3, 4. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. John i. 14. When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. iv. 4. Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor that ye through his poverty might be rich. 2 Cor. viii. 9. Behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost: and she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for he shall save his people from their sins. Matt. i. 20, 21. And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. Luke i. 35. There is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5. Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pet. ii. 22. For such an High Priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens. Heb. vii. 26. He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Cor. v. 21. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Tim. i. 17. —See also, Luke ii. 40, 52.—John iv. 6.—xi. 35. —Matt. viii. 24.

CXXXVI. Proper Preface for Easter-day.

But chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious Resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: for he is the very Paschal Lamb which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again hath restored to us everlasting life.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pet. i. 3. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable: but now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. 1 Cor. xv. 19, 20. In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, a lamb for an house; your lamb shall be without blemish, and ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation shall kill it in the evening, and they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts, and on the upper door post, of the houses wherein they shall eat it, it is the Lord's passover, and the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you. Exod. xii. 3. 5, 6. 11. 13.—See also, the whole chapter. Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Cor. v. 7. Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John i. 29. Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. Heb. ix. 28. Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pet. i. 18, 19. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. Heb. ii. 14. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. xv. 55. 57. Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Rom. iv. 25. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John vi. 47. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more, but ye see me; because I live, ye shall live also. John xiv. 19. Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Rev. v. 12.—See also, Heb. ix. 26.—Matt. xxviii. 2, 3. 6, 7.

CXXXVII. Proper Preface for Ascension-day.

Through thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who after his most glorious Resurrection manifestly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended up into Heaven

Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. v. 20. I thank my God through Jesus Christ. Rom. i. 8. Lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Matt. iii. 17. He led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them: and it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. Luke xxiv. 50, 51. The apostles to prepare a place for us, that where he is, thither we might also ascend, and reign with him in glory.

whom he had chosen, to whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God; and, being assembled with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father: and when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. Acts i. 2, 3, 4. 9. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you: I go to prepare a place for you: I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also. John xiv. 2, 3. If we suffer we shall also reign with him. 2 Tim. ii. 12. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. iii. 4. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. CXXXVIII. Proper Preface for Whit-sunday.

1. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down as at this time from heaven with a sudden great sound, as it had been a mighty wind, in the likeness of fiery tongues, lighting upon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth,

1. I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. John xiv. 16. 26. When the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. John xv. 26. When the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place: and suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting: and there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them: and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Acts ii. 1 to 4. When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. John xvi. 13. Ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles: but when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. Matt. x. 18, 19.

2. giving them both the gift of divers languages, and also boldness with fervent zeal constantly to preach the Gospel unto all nations,

2. They were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans? and how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Acts ii. 7, 8. And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, and Annas the High Priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the High Priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem: when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. Acts iv. 5, 6. 13. I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. Rom. x. 18. The gospel which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister. Col. i. 23. That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the Gospel of Christ. Rom. xv. 16. 19.

3. whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error into the light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ.

3. Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord; walk as children of light. Eph. v. 8. God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. iv. 6. Ye were as sheep going astray, but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. 1 Pet. ii. 25. The prophets, unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the Gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven. 1 Pet. i. 10. 12. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people. Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. Luke i. 68. 78, 79. The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Rom. xiv. 17. This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. John xvii. 3.

CXXXIX. Proper Preface for Trinity Sunday.

Who art one God, one Lord; not only one Person, but three Persons in one Substance. For that which we believe of the glory of the Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality.

There is one God, and there is none other but he. Mark xii. 32. The Lord our God is one Lord. Deut. vi. 4. One, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee. John xvii. 21. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations: baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xxviii. 19. And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Acts x. 48. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. 2 Cor. 13, 14. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts. Isa. vi. 3. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Tim. i. 17.—See also, Rev. iv. 8—and No. xvi. for other texts on the doctrine of the Trinity.

CXL. The Communicant's Address.

1. We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trust-

1. And Abraham answered and said, Behold, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes. Gen. xviii. 27. O my God, incline thine ear, and hear, for we do not ing in our own righteousness, present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. Dan. ix. 18. The Publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. Luke xviii. 13. We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags, and we all do fade as a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. Isa. lxiv. 6. If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? but there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared. Psal. cxxx. 3, 4.

2. but in thy manifold and great mercies.

2. As for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. Psal. v. 7. For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive, and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee, Psal. lxxxvi. 5. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me, and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. John vi. 37. Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession; for we have not an High Priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin: let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. Heb. iv. 14, 15, 16.

3. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table.

3. I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant. Gen. xxxii. 10. I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof; wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee. Luke vii. 6, 7. Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. 1 Tim. i. 15. It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs: and she said, Truth, Lord; yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table. Matt. xv. 26, 27.—See also, Eph. iii. 8.

4. But thou art the same

4. The same Lord over all is rich unto all that

Lord, whose property is always to have mercy:

call upon him. Rom. x. 12. The Lord is good, his mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth to all generations. Psal. c. 5. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever. Psal. cxxxvi. 1.

5. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

5. Let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. Heb. xii. 28. I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing. Rom. vii. 18. Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you: whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day: for my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed; he that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him: as the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. John vi. 53 to 58. That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith. Eph. iii. 17. Such were some of you, but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Cor. vi. 11. He said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Rev. vii. 14. If the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Heb. ix. 13, 14. Lord, evermore give us this bread. John vi. 34.

CXLI. The Prayer of Consecration.

1. Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst

1. The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. James v. 11. Great are thy tender mercies, O Lord. Psal. cxix. 156. God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John iii. 16. God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Rom. v. 8. Having made peace through the blood of his cross. Col. i. 20. Those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. Acts iii. 18. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. i. 7. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. iii. 13. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Rom. viii. 32.—See also, John iii. 17.

2. who made there (by his one oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world;

2. He became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phil. ii. 8. Thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin. Isa. liii. 10. Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. Heb. ix. 28. This he did once, when he offered up himself. Heb. vii. 27. We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. This man after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God, from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool: for by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Heb. x. 10 to 14. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other Name under heaven, given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts iv. 12. There remaineth no more sacrifice for sins. Heb. x. 26. All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. v. 18. My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not: and if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the Propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John ii. 1, 2.—See also, Heb. ix. 26.—John xix. 30.

8. and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again: Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee: and grant that we receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood, who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread, and, when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, this is my Body which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me. Likewise after supper he took the cup, and, when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins: Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

3. And he took bread and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you; this do in remembrance of me: likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 19, 20. The Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you; this do in remembrance of me: after the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me: for as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come: but let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 1 Cor. xi. 23 to 26. 28. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? the bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? for we being many are one bread, and one body; for we are all partakers of that one bread. 1 Cor. x. 16, 17.

CXLII. Form of Administering the Bread.

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me. Heb. x. 5. The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world: I am the living bread, which came down from heaven; if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever; and the bread everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving.

that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world: whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. John vi. 33. 51. 54. I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and give himself for me. Gal. ii. 20. Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. Col. i. 12.

CXLIII. Form of Administering the Wine.

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day: for my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. John vi. 54, 55, 56. What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. Psal. cxvi. 12, 13. The very God of peace sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Thess. v. 23.

CXLIV. The Prayer in the Post-Communion. No. 1.

1. O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy humble servants entirely desire thy Fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving;

1. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise, be thankful unto him and bless his name. Psal. c. 4. Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the Most High; Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me. Psal. l. 14. 23. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. ii. 5. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name. Heb. xiii. 15. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving.

Psal. cxvi. 17. Accept, I beseech thee, the free-will offerings of my mouth, O Lord. Psal. cxix. 108.

2. most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion,

2. Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit. Eph. vi. 18. Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Rom. iii. 24, 25. CLV. Prayer that Spiritual Benefits may be conferred upon the Candidate in the Sacrament of Baptism. No. 1.

1. Almighty and everlasting God, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water; and also didst safely lead the children of Israel thy people through the Red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy Baptism;

1. If God spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations. 2 Pet. ii. 4, 5. 9. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh; but with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. Gen. vi. 12, 13. 17, 18. Fifteen cubits upward did the

He rebuked the Red Sea, and it was dried up; so he led them through the depths. Psal. cvi. 9. 2. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now; for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him. Matt. iii. 13, 14, 15. 4. Now abideth faith, hope, charity. 1 Cor. xiii. 13. We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. Hear the words of the Gospel, written by Saint Mark, in the tenth Chapter, at the rteenth Verse.

They brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them; and his disciple rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. Mark x. 13 to 16.

Beloved, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, at he commanded the children to be brought unto him; how he amed those that would have kept them from him; how he exhort-h all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by his out-ard gesture and deed he declared his good will toward them; for he nbraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed em. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will kewise favourably receive this present Infant; that he will embrace m in the arms of his mercy; that he will give unto him the blessing eternal life and make him partaker of his everlasting kingdom. herefore we being thus persuaded of the good will of our heavenly ather towards this Infant, declared by his Son Jesus Christ; and no-ing doubting but that he favourably alloweth this charitable work of rs in bringing this Infant to his holy Baptism; let us faithfully and evoutly give thanks unto him.

Let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. James i. 6. I will that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. 1 Tim. ii. 8. Jesus saith unto them, Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever h saith. Therefore I say unto you, What thing soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye r ceive them, and ye shall have them. Mark xi. 2 23, 24. Jesus answered and said unto them, Veri I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, y shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tre but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, B thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it sha be done. And all things, whatsoever ye shall as in prayer believing, ye shall receive. Matt. xxi. 2 22. Take heed that ye despise not one of the little ones. It is not the will of your Father whic is in heaven, that one of these little ones shou perish. Matt. xviii. 10. 14.

CLXII. Short Prayers.

1. O merciful God, grant that the old Adam in this Child may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in him. Amen.

1. The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. xv. 45. 22. We are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. Rom. vi. 4. God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace are ye saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places. Eph. ii. 4, 5, 6. Ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind: and that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. iv. 20 to 24.

2. Grant that all carnal affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

2. To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Rom. viii. 6. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 11. If ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Rom. viii. 13. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. v. 24. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth. Col. iii. 5. Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Rom. vi. 6. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law. Gal. v. 22, 23. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity. Col. iii. 12, 13, 14. Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Cor. vii. 1. Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pet. iii. 18.

Whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. 1 John v. 4. Hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Jude 23. Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Eph. vi. 10, 11. 13. Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. xv. 57. Thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ. 2 Cor. ii. 14. In all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. Rom. viii. 37.

4. Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

4. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 26, 27. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Cor. iv. 1. Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So neither is he that planted any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 1 Cor. iii. 5, 6, 7. Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, according as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue. 2 Pet. i. 2, 3. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phil. i. 9, 10, 11. For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. i. 9, 10. 28. Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance, for ye serve the Lord Christ. Col. iii. 24. Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give to every man according as his work shall be. Rev. xxii. 12. The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 23. According to his mercy he saved us. Titus iii. 5. Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 21. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Matt. xxv. 34. The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all. Psal. ciii. 19. Who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords. 1 Tim. vi. 15. He ruleth by his power for ever. Psal. lxvi. 7.

1. Almighty, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood;

1. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: and, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Matt. iii. 16, 17. In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness. Zech. xiii. 1. One of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood and water.

2. and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them In the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost;

3. Regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation; sanctify this water to the mystical washing away of sin;

3. Hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place. 1 Kings viii. 30. Verily, verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. John xvi. 23, 24. Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. Matt. xviii. 19. This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. 1 John v. 14. Elisha sent a messenger unto Naaman, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean. But Naaman said, Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean? Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. 2 Kings v. 10 to 14. It is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. 1 Tim. iv. 5. Great is the mystery of godliness. 1 Tim. iii. 16. Now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. Acts xxii. 16.

4. And grant that this Child now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Acts ii. 38. But ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Cor. vi. 11. Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. i. 2. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25. I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Thess. v. 23. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Rev. ii. 10. He is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. Rev. xvii. 14.—See also, Acts iv. 32, 33.

CLXIV. Naming and Baptizing the Infant.

1. Name his Child.

1. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so, but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. Luke i. 59 to 63. And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb. Luke ii. 21. CLXV. The Receiving of the baptized Infant into the Congregation.

1. We receive this Child into the Congregation of Christ's flock,

2. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God nerate this Infant with thy Holy Spirit, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit: marvel not. John iii. 3. 5, 6, 7. Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Acts ii. 38, 39. I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring. Isa. xliv. 3. Ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. ii. 22. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Titus iii. 5. See also, Jer. i. 5. Luke i. 15.

3. to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church.

3. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. Rom. viii. 16. It shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. Rom. ix. 26. 8. When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. Gal. iv. 4, 5. As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. John i. 12. As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free. For the body is not one member, but many. 1 Cor. xii. 12, 13, 14. The Church which is his body. Eph. i. 22, 23.

4. And humbly we

4. Reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed beseech thee to grant, that he, being dead unto sin, and living unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucify the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of sin; and that, as he is made partaker of the death of thy Son, he may also be partaker of his resurrection;

unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. Rom. vi. 11. 13. 19. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. ii. 20. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. 1 Pet. ii. 24. Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses. Col. ii. 12, 13. Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Rom. vi. 4, 5, 6. If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth: for ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering, forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Col. iii. 1 to 5. 8 to 15.

5. so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritor of thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

5. We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. Heb. iii. 14. These all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. Heb. xi. 39, 40. After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: that the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. Acts xv. 16, 17. If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. The dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Thess. iv. 14. 16, 17. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. Acts xx. 32. That they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Acts xxvi. 18. He is the Head of the body, the Church: who is the firstborn from the dead. Col. i. 18. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Luke xii. 32. If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Rom. viii. 17. Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and Church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant. Heb. xii. 22, 23. 26. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pet. i. 3, 4, 5.

1. Forasmuch as this Child hath promised by you his sureties, to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember, that it is your parts and duties to see that this Infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession, he hath here made by you.

1. Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High. Psal. l. 14. Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; but is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. Gal. iv. 1, 2. Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land. Deut. xxxiii. 46, 47. Thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. Deut. vi. 7 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart al

the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons and thy son's sons; specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. Deut. iv. 9, 10. The father to the children shall make known thy truth. Isa. xxxviii. 19. I know him, that he will command his children and his houshold after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord. Gen. xviii. 19. Train up a child in the way he should go. Prov. xxii. 6. When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. Eccl. v. 4. Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. Psal. xxxiv. 11.

2. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear sermons;

2. Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. Rom. x. 17. And all the people gathered themselves together as one man. And Ezra the Priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding; and he read therein. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood; and he opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up. And the Levites caused the people to understand the law. So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. Neh. viii. 1 to 5. 7, 8. Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and observe to do all the words of this law: and that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the Lord your God. Deut. xxxi. 12, 13. Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast. Luke ii. 41, 42. The next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. Acts xiii. 44.

3 and chiefly ye shall provide, that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health: and that this Child may be virtuously brought up to lead a godly and a Christian life: remembering always, that Baptism doth represent unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him: that as he died, and rose again for us, so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

3. He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: that the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments. Psal. lxxviii. 5, 6, 7. These words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children. Deut. vi. 6, 7. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Matt. xxviii. 19, 20. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Heb. xi. 6. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Acts xvi. 31. Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven so in earth. Luke xi. 1, 2. And, behold, one came to him and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? He said unto him, If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. Matt. xix. 16, 17. Except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? If I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. 1 Cor. xiv. 9. 11. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live. Isa. lv. 3. Their souls shall be as a watered garden. Jer. xxxi. 12. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee. Psal. xli. 4. Ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Eph. vi. 4. Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Prov. xxii. 6. Continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of; that from a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. iii. 14, 15. Remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. Jude 17. I think it meet to stir you up by putting you in remembrance. 2 Pet. i. 13. As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 27. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering. Heb. x. 23. For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving an example, that ye should follow his steps. 1 Pet. ii. 21. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 3 to 6. 11. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Col. iii. 5. 3. According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience god-liness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 2 Pet. i. 3 to 7.

4. Ye are to take care that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, in the vulgar tongue, and be further instructed in the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose.

4. Now when the Apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: (for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Acts viii. 14 to 17. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Acts xiv. 21, 22.

THE MINISTRATION OF PRIVATE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN IN HOUSES, AND OF BAPTISM TO SUCH AS ARE OF RIPER YEARS.

NOTE.—The two offices for Baptism which follow, contain much of what is found in the preceding office for the Public Baptism of Infants. The difference that exists between them arises from the varying circumstances of the Baptized; as such, it is thought unnecessary to adduce quotations from Scripture, but merely to insert those portions of these services which are verbally different. The following are those portions.

PRIVATE BAPTISM OF INFANTS.

We yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And we humbly beseech thee to grant, that as he is now made partaker of the death of thy Son, so he may be also of his resurrection; and that finally, with the residue of thy Saints, he may inherit thine everlasting kingdom; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CLXXI. CLXXII. Certificates and Enquiries concerning the due Baptizing of the Infant.

1. I certify you, that according to the due and prescribed Order of the Church, at such a time, and at such a place, before divers witnesses I baptized this Child.
2. By whom was this Child baptized?

3. Who was present when this Child was baptized?
4. Because some things essential to this Sacrament may happen to be omitted through fear or haste, in such times of extremity; therefore I demand further of you,
5. With what matter was this Child baptized?
6. With what words was this Child baptized?
7. I certify you, that in this case all is well done, and according unto due order, concerning the baptizing of this Child; who being born in original sin, and in the wrath of God, is now, by the laver of Regeneration in Baptism, received into the number of the children of God, and heirs of everlasting life, for our Lord Jesus Christ doth not deny his grace and mercy unto such Infants, but most lovingly doth call them unto him, as the holy Gospel doth witness to our comfort on this wise.

Then follows the Gospel from St. Mark x. 13.

CLXXIII. The Exhortation upon the words of the Gospel.

Beloved, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him; how he blamed those that would have kept them from him; how he exhorted all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by his outward gesture and deed he declared his good will toward them; for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he hath likewise favourably received this present Infant; that he hath embraced him with the arms of his mercy; and (as he hath promised in his holy Word) will give unto him the blessing of eternal life, and make him partaker of his everlasting kingdom. Wherefore, we being thus persuaded of the good will of our heavenly Father, declared by his Son Jesus Christ, towards this Infant, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say the Prayer which the Lord himself taught us.

CLXXIV. Thanksgiving and Prayer.

Almighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this Infant, that he, being born again, and being made an heir of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, may continue thy servant, and attain thy promise; through the same our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

PUBLIC BAPTISM OF SUCH AS ARE OF RIPER YEARS.

CLXXV. Exhortation to the Congregation in behalf of the Candidates for Baptism.

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin, (and that which is born of the flesh is flesh,) and they that are in the flesh cannot please God, but live in sin, committing many actual transgressions; and that our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant to these persons that which by nature they cannot have; that they may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made lively members of the same.

CLXXVI. The Gospel from St. John iii. 1. and the Exhortation founded on the Gospel.

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof; but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Beloved, ye hear in this Gospel the express words of our Saviour Christ, that except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Whereby ye may perceive the great necessity of this Sacrament, where it may be had. Likewise, immediately before his ascension into heaven, (as we read in the last Chapter of Saint Mark's Gospel,) he gave command to his disciples, saying, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned. Which also sheweth unto us the great benefit we reap thereby. For which cause Saint Peter the Apostle, when upon his first preaching of the Gospel many were pricked at the heart, and said to him and the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? he replied and said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is to you and your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words exhorted he them, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. For (as the same Apostle testifieth in another place) even Baptism doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will favourably receive these present persons, truly repenting, and coming unto him by faith; that he will grant them remission of their sins, and bestow upon them the Holy Ghost; that he will give them the blessing of eternal life, and make them partakers of his everlasting kingdom.

Wherefore we being thus persuaded of the good will of our heavenly Father towards these persons, declared by his Son Jesus Christ; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks to him.

CLXXVII. The Minister's particular Address to the Persons to be Baptized.

Well-beloved, who are come hither desiring to receive holy Baptism, ye have heard how the congregation hath prayed, that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you and bless you, to release you of your sins, to give you the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life. Ye have heard also, that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his holy Word to grant all those things that we have prayed for; which promise he, for his part, will most surely keep and perform.

Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, ye must also faithfully, for your part, promise in the presence of these your witnesses, and this whole congregation that ye will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy Word, and obediently keep his commandments.

CLXXVIII. Concluding Thanksgiving and Prayer.

We yield thee humble thanks, O heavenly Father, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to these Persons; that being now born again, and made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, they may continue thy servants, and attain thy promises; through the same Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, everlastingly. Amen.

CLXXIX. CLXXX. Concluding Address to the Godfathers and Godmothers, and to the Newly-baptized.

Forasmuch as these persons have promised in your presence to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember, that it is your part and duty to put them in mind, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession they have now made before this congregation, and especially before you their chosen witnesses. And ye are also to call upon them to use all diligence to be rightly instructed in God's holy Word; that so they may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, and live godly, righteously, and soberly in this present world.

And as for you, who have now by Baptism put on Christ, it is your part and duty also, being made the children of God and of the light, by faith in Jesus Christ, to walk answerably to your Christian calling, and as becometh the children of light; remembering always that Baptism representeth unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that as he died, and rose again for us; so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

CATECHISM.

A CATECHISM, that is to say, an Instruction to be learned of every person, before he be brought to be confirmed by the Bishop.

That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed. [Greek, catechized.] Luke i. 4. This man was instructed [Greek catechized] in the way of the Lord. Acts xviii. 25. Being instructed [Greek catechized] out of the law. Rom. ii. 18. I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach [Greek catechize] others, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. 1 Cor. xiv. 19. Let him that is taught [Greek catechized] in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. Gal. vi. 6.

CLXXXI. The Baptismal Vow, or Engagement.

1. What is your Name?

2. Who gave you this Name?

1. 2. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be. Gen. xvii. 5. 15. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. Luke i. 59, 60. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona; thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone. John i. 42.

3. My Godfathers and Godmothers, in my Baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.

3. Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, Go and teach all nations, baptizing them. Matt. xxviii. 18, 19. Jesus said, Suffer little children and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Matt. xix. 14. As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many. Now ye are the body of Christ and members in particular. 1 Cor. xii. 12, 13, 14. 27. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 26, 27. As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. John i. 12, 13. And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Rom. viii. 17. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved. Mark xvi. 16. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus iii. 5, 6, 7. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven. 1 Pet. i. 3, 4. Our conversation* is in heaven. Phil. iii. 20.

4. What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you?

5. They did promise and vow three things in my name. First, that I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh. Secondly, that I should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith. And thirdly, that I should keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life.

4, 5. Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it, all ye that are round about him. Psal. lxxvi. 11. They shall vow a vow unto the Lord, and perform it. Isa. xix. 21. If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me. And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the Lord commanded him. And all the people answered together and said, All that the Lord hath spoken we will do. Exod. xix. 5. 7, 8. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. 1 John iii. 8. The great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: and they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony. Rev. xii. 9. 11. not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. James iii. 14, 15. Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. v. 11. Be not conformed to this world. Rom. xii. 2. Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. James iv. 4. The world hateth me because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. John vii. 7. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. 1 John ii. 15, 16. The whole world lieth in wickedness. 1 John v. 19. Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. Isa. v. 14. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. v. 24. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. v. 19, 20, 21. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth. Col. iii. 5. Denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Titus ii. 12. Ye believe in God, believe also in me. John xiv. 1. Without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Teaching them [the baptized] to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Matt. xxviii. 20. Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Matt. xxii. 37, 38, 39. Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. James ii. 10, 11. Hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 John ii. 3. to 6. Doing the will of God from the heart. Eph. vi. 6. 7. Yes verily; and by God's help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end.

And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient. Exod. xxiv. 7. CLXXXIV. The Christian's Duty towards his Neighbour.

1. What is thy duty towards thy Neighbour?

My duty towards my Neighbour, is to love him as myself, and to do to all men, as I would they should do unto me:

1. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the Lord. Lev. xix. 18. The second [commandment] is like unto it, [the first,] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Matt. xxii. 39. Owe no man any thing but to love one another; for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Rom. xiii. 8, 9, 10. By love serve one another: for all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Gal. v. 13, 14. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets. Matt. vii. 12.

2. To love, honour, and succour my father and mother.

2. God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. Matt. xv. 4. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. Eph. vi. 2, 3. Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel and say unto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the Lord your God am holy. Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father: I am the Lord your God. Lev. xix. 2, 3. Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. Deut. xxvii. 16. If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them: then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place; and they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear. Deut. xxi. 18 to 21. Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered. Mark vii. 10 to 13. Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old. Prov. xxiii. 22. A wise son heareth his father's instruction. Prov. xiii. 1. A foolish man despiseth his mother. Prov. xv. 20. If any widow have children or nephews, let them first learn to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. 1 Tim. v. 4. Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's houshold. Gen. xlvii. 12. Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. Col. iii. 20. And he [Jesus] went down with them, [his parents,] and was subject unto them. Luke ii. 51. See also, Gen. xlvi. 29. Exod. xxi. 15. 17. Prov. i. 8, 9.

3. To honour and obey the sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King. 1 Pet. ii. 13, 14. 17. Thou shalt not revile the gods, [marginal reading, judges,] nor curse the ruler of thy people. Exod. xxii. 28. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For for this cause, pay ye tribute also; for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Rom. xiii. 1 to 7. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. Matt. xxii. 21. By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth. Prov. viii. 15, 16. And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment: and thou shalt do according to the sentence; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee: according to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left. Deut. xvii. 9, 10, 11. And David said unto his men, The Lord forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the Lord's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the Lord. So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. 1 Sam. xxiv. 6, 7. Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates. Titus iii. 1. I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour. 1 Tim. ii. 1, 2, 3. See also, Num. xvi. 12, 13, 14. 28 to 32. Jude 8.

4. They cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar. 1 Chron. xxv. 8. Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; but is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. Gal. iv. 1, 2. Lest thou mourn at the last, and say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; and have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me. Prov. v. 10 to 13. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers. Eph. iv. 11. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Cor. iv. 1. The priest's lip should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. ii. 7. Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account. Heb. xiii. 7. 17. We beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. 1 Thess. v. 12, 13. Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. Gal. vi. 6. Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel. 1 Cor. ix. 7. 13, 14. Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Tim. v. 17. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Luke x. 16. But they [the Jews] mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy. 2 Chron. xxxvi. 16. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God. 1 Thess. iv. 8. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle but also to the froward. 1 Pet. ii. 18. Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: and whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons. Col. iii. 22 to 25. Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again; not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Titus ii. 9, 10. Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort. 1 Tim. vi. 1, 2. See also, Eph. vi. 5, 6.

5. To order myself lowly and reverently to all my betters:

5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another.

head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the Lord. Lev. xix. 32. Bathsheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her. 1 Kings ii. 19.
Honour all men. 1 Pet. ii. 17. Render therefore to all their dues: fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Rom. xiii. 7. Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father. 1 Tim. v. 1. Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he. And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion. Job xxxii. 4. 6. The people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable. Isa. iii. 5.

6. To hurt nobody by word nor deed:

6. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: but I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment:
and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. Matt. v.

enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them

If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Rom. xii. 17 to 21. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure. Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the Lord your God. Lev. xix. 13. 35, 36. Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the Lord. It is nought, it is nought, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth. Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel. Prov. xx. 10. 14. 17. The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth. Psal. xxxvii. 21. If thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another. Lev. xxv. 14. Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small.

But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have: for all that do such things, are an abomination unto the Lord thy God. Deut. xxv. 13 to 16. Exhort servants to be obedient, not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Titus ii. 9, 10. Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. Col. iv. 1. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth: for where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. James iii. 14. 16.

9. To keep my hands from picking and stealing,

9. Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely. Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him. Lev. xix. 11. 13. This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it. There shall in no wise enter into it [the holy Jerusalem] any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie. Rev. xxi. 8. 27. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile. 1 Pet. iii. 9, 10. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Matt. vii. 2. See also, Prov. xii. 19. 22. James iv. 11. Acts v. 1 to 10. Psal. lviii. 3. Rev. xxii. 15.

11. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity:

11. Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life. Luke xxi. 34. The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pet. iv. 3. Beside this, giving all diligence, add to your knowledge, temperance. 2 Pet. i. 5, 6. Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection. 1 Cor. ix. 25. 27. The end of all things is at hand; be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pet. iv. 7. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Rom. xiii. 13, 14. Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord: and the Lord for the body. 1 Cor. vi. 13. Ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication : that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour. 1 Thess. iv. 2, 3, 4. Fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints ; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Eph. v. 3, 4, 5. Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pet. ii. 11. How can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God ? Gen. xxxix. 9. Every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Cor. vii. 1.

12. Not to covet nor desire other men's goods;

12. Let your conversation be without covetousness ; and be content with such things as ye have. Heb. xiii. 5. And he said unto them, Take heed and beware of covetousness : for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Luke xii. 15. For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him. Isa. lvii. 17. Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high. 13. but to learn and labour truly to get mine own living, and to do my duty in that state of life, unto which it shall please God to call me.

13. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. Rom. xii. 17. If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. 1 Tim. v. 8. After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; and found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus. And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tent-makers. Acts xviii. 1, 2, 3. Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work and eat their own bread. 2 Thess. iii. 8, 9, 10. 12. The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat. Prov. xiii. 4. Then I saw, and considered it well; I looked upon it, and received instruction. Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: so shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man. Prov. xxiv. 30 to 34. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Eccl. ix. 10. Seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not. Jer. xlv. 5. Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. 1 Tim. vi. 6 to 10. Peter saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. John xxi. 21, 22. Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. Whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are of good report, think on these things. Phil. iv. 8. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. Eccl. xii. 13. See also, Job xxviii. 28.—Eph. iv. 28—Matt. vi. 19, 20.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phil. iv. 13. My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word. I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart. Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight. Incline mine heart unto thy testimonies. Psal. cxix. 25. 32 to 36. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights. James i. 17. 2. which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me hear therefore, if thou canst say the Lord's Prayer.

2. I will that men pray every where. 1 Tim. ii. 8. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Matt. vii. 7, 8. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. James i. 5. Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do. John xiv. 13. This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. 1 John v. 14. When ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Matt. vi. 7. One of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. Give us day by day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Luke xi. 1 to 4.

CLXXXVI. A Paraphrase on the Lord's Prayer.

1. What desirest thou of God in this Prayer?

I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodness, to send his grace unto me, and to all people;

The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. Exod. xxxiv. 5, 6. Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. 1 John iii. 1. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant but a son. Gal. iv. 6, 7. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. James i. 17. The Lord is good to all ; and his tender mercies are over all his works. Psal. cxlv. 9. Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. Lam. iii. 41. Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Psal. cxxiii. 1. I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications. Zech. xii. 10. This shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel ; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts ; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. They shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord : for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Jer. xxxi. 33, 34. What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house : then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways : that they may fear thee all the days that they live. 1 Kings viii. 38, 39, 40. Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. 1 Pet. iii. 15. God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. Psal. lxxxix. 7. Glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Cor. vi. 20. Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Psal. ii. 11. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Psal. c. 2. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Matt. vi. 10. Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 1 Sam. xv. 22. Amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God. Jer. xxvi. 13. Now, therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine. Exod. xix. 5. Whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. James ii. 10. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord. 3. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that be needful both for our souls and bodies;

3. Give us this day our daily bread. Matt. vi. 11. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread. Gen. iii. 19. He humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live. Deut. viii. 3. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you. John vi. 27. We labour, working with our own hands. 1 Cor. iv. 12. When we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. Now them that are such we com-

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. 1 Pet. v. 7. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: and yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matt. vi. 25, 26. 28 to 33. Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me. Prov. xxx. 8. Godliness with contentment is great gain. passes, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. Matt. vi. 12, 13, 14. 5. Lead us not into temptation. Matt. vi. 13. Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. Matt. xxvi. 41. For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted. Heb. ii. 18. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations. 2 Pet. ii. 9. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. 1 John iii. 8. Innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me. Psal. xl. 12. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore. Psal. cxxi. 7, 8. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. 1 Pet. v. 8. And the serpent said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree in the garden? Ye shall not surely die: for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. Gen. iii. 1. 4, 5. The Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil. Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face. Job i. 8 to 11. ii. 5. CLXXXVII. Concerning the Sacraments.

1. How many Sacraments hath Christ ordained in his Church?
2. Two only, as generally necessary to salvation, that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.
3. What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?
4. I mean an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us, ordained by Christ himself, as a

1 to 6. And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. Gen. xvii. 11. And the Lord said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof: and ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever. Exod. xii. 43. 24. Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. Rom. xv. 8, 9. Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. i. 2. And Jesus came, and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them. Matt. xxviii. 18, 19. Jesus came and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there neans where- y we receive he same, and pledge to as- ure us there- of.

he tarried with them and baptized. John iii. 22. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Mark xvi. 16. Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John iii. 5. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them saying, This is my body which was given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 19, 20. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. John vi. 53, 54. Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? Acts x. 47. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Titus iii. 5. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Rom. vi. 3. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 1 Cor. x. 16. This do in remembrance of me. Luke xxii. 19. Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. Col. ii. 12. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. John vi. 56.

5. How many parts are there in a sacrament?

6. Two: the outward visible sign, and the inward spiritual grace.

7. What is the outward visible sign or form in Baptism?

8. Water, wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

7, 8. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xxviii. 19. Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? Acts x. 47. And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And he commanded the chariot to stand still; and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. Acts viii. 36. 38.

9. What is the inward and spiritual grace?

10. A death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness: for being by nature born in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.

9, 10. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 3, 4. 7. 11. Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God: except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John iii. 3. 5. Who his own self bore our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. 1 Pet. ii. 24. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Titus iii. 5. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. For as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield yourselves servants to righteousness unto holiness. Rom. vi. 18, 19. And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. ii. 1, 2, 3. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Psal. li. 5. As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one. Rom. iii. 10. Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men. Rom. v. 12. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Mark xvi. 16. By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body. 1 Cor. xii. 13. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 26, 27. They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are accounted for the seed. Rom. ix. 8. And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. John i. 16. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. Rom. vi. 14.

11. What is required of persons to be baptized?
12. Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and Faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.

11, 12. Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Acts ii. 38. Repent ye therefore, and be converted that your sins may be blotted out. Acts iii. 19. But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. Acts xxvi. 20. Godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: for behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! 2 Cor. vii. 10, 11. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Mark xvi. 16. But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

14. Because they promise them both by their Sureties; which promise, when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.

13, 14. Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Matt. xix. 14. Ye stand this day all of you before the Lord your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water: that thou shouldest enter into covenant with the Lord thy God, and into his oath, which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day; that he may establish thee to-day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath; but with him that standeth here with us before the Lord our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day. Deut. xxix. 10 to 15. And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed. He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. Gen. xvii. 12, 13. In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God. Col. ii. 11, 12. 15 to 18. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 19, 20. I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Cor. xi. 23 to 26. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Cor. v. 7. 20. The Body and Blood of Christ, which are verily and indeed taken and received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper.

19, 20. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Matt. xxvi. 26, 27, 28. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 1 Cor. x. 16. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John vi. 53. 47.

21. What are the benefits whereof we are partakers thereby?
22. The strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are by the Bread and Wine.

21, 22. Wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart. Psal. civ. 15. Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. John vi. 35. 51. 55, 56.

23. What is required of them who come to the Lord's Supper?
24. To examine themselves, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, stedfastly purposing to lead a new life; have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful

23, 24. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 1 Cor. xi. 28. Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? 2 Cor. xiii. 5. Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart. Psal. xxvi. 2. Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Psal. cxxxix. 23, 24. For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! 2 Cor. vii. 11. Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord. Lam. iii. 40. For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Titus ii. 11, 12. He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? Mic. vi. 8. And having an High Priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. x. 21, 22. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days. Isa. liii. 4, 5. 10. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things. Rom. viii. 32. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Cor. xi. 26. Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Col. i. 12, 13, 14. If thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Matt. v. 23, 24. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. 1 John iv.

11. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: and be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. iv. 31, 32. Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. v. 7, 8. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. And now abideth faith, hope, charity; these three; but the greatest of these is charity. 1 Cor. xiii. 4 to 8. 13. Finally, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen. 2 Cor. xiii. 11. 14.

OR LAYING ON OF HANDS UPON THOSE THAT ARE BAPTIZED, AND ARE COME TO YEARS OF DISCRETION.

CLXXXVIII. A serious Address to the Congregation.

To the end that Confirmation may be ministered to the more edifying of such as shall receive it, the Church hath thought good to order, That none hereafter shall be Confirmed, but such as can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments; and can also answer to such other questions, as in the Short Catechism are contained: which order is very convenient to be observed; to the end that children, being now come to the years of discretion, and having learned what their Godfathers

d Godmothers promised for them in Baptism, they may themselves, with their n mouth and consent, openly before the Church, ratify and confirm the same: d also promise, that by the grace of God they will evermore endeavour themselves, thfully to observe such things as they, by their own confession, have assented unto.

Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: (for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Acts viii. 14 to 17.

Q. Do you here in the presence of God, and of this Congregation, renew the olemn promise and vow, that was made in your name at your Baptism; ratifying od confirming the same in your own persons, and acknowledging yourselves bound believe, and to do all those things which your Godfathers and Godmothers then ndertook for you?—A. I do.

And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the Lord. And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book, and he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 2 Chron. xxxiv. 30, 31, 32. See also, 2 Kings xvii. 13, 14, 15.

1 Let us pray, Almighty and everliving God, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these thy servants by Water and the Holy Ghost, and hast given unto them forgiveness of all their sins;

1. Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John iii. 5. But ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Cor. vi. 11. Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phil. iii. 13, 14. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 1 Pet. iv. 10.

4. The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. Isa. xi. 2. CXCII. Prayer, with the Laying on of the Hands of the Bishop.

1. Defend, O Lord, this thy child, [or this thy servant] with thy heavenly grace, that he may continue thine for ever;

1. The Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. Psal. lxxxiv. 11. 1. O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. Jer. x. 23. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13. Good and acceptable before God. 1 Tim. v. 4. See also, 1 Chron. xxix. 14.—Prov. xvi. 1.

ble unto thy divine Majesty;

2. We make our humble supplications unto thee, for these thy servants,

3. upon whom (after the example of the holy apostles) we have now laid our hands, to certify them (by this sign) of thy favour and gracious goodness towards them.

4. Let thy fatherly hand, we beseech thee, ever be over them; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them;

2. Pray one for another. James v. 16. God giveth grace unto the humble. James iv. 6. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. James v. 16.

3. The holy apostles. Eph. iii. 5. Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John; who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Acts viii. 14 to 17. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them. Acts xix. 5, 6. God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. 2 Tim. i. 7. See also, Psal. cvi. 4. 1 Tim. iv. 14. 2 Tim. i. 6. Phil. iv. 19. Acts vi. 6.

4. I am a Father to Israel. Jer. xxxi. 9. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. Psal. ciii. 13. The Lord careth for the righteous. Psal. cxlvi. 8. The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him. Ezra viii. 22. Let thine hand help me; for I have chosen thy precepts. Psal. cxix. 173. Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Cor. vi. 17, 18. And I give unto thee eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. John x. 28, 29. I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth. John xiv. 16, 17. Every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened. If ye being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him. Luke xi. 10. 13.

5. And so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that in the end they may obtain everlasting life; through our Lord Jesus Christ, who with thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

5. Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power. Eph. i. 15 to 19. For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Eph. iii. 14 to 19. From a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which are in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. iii. 15. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation. Psal. xxv. 5. Teach me to do thy will. Psal. cxliii. 10. Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. Psal. cxix. 11. For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Thess. ii. 13. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Matt. vii. 21. I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; that thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Tim. vi. 13, 14. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim. iv. 7, 8. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25. See also, John vii. 17.

SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

CXCIV. I publish the Banns of Marriage between M. of —— and N. of ——. If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two Persons should not be joined together in holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the first, [second, or third,] time of asking.

CXCV. The Address to the Congregation.

1. Dearly beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the face of this congregation, to join together this Man and

1. Now are we all here present before God. Acts x. 33. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. Prov. xv. 3. All things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Heb. iv. 13. And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day. Ruth iv. 9. There was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. John ii. 1, 2. To avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 1 Cor. vii. 2.

2. which is an honourable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that is betwixt Christ and his Church;

2. Marriage is honourable in all. Heb. xiii. 4. Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord. Prov. xviii. 22. The Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; and the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. Gen. ii. 18. 21 to 24. Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female? and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Matt. xix. 4, 5. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the Head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the body. Therefore as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the Church. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband. Eph. v. 22 to 33.

3. which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought, in Cana of Galilee; and is commended of St. Paul to be honourable among all men:

3. And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. Jesus saith unto them, [the servants,] Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was; (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee. John ii. 1, 2, 3. 7 to 11. Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Heb. xiii. 4.

4. And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the Lord said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man. And also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth. Gen. vi. 1 to 5. Esau was forty years old when he took to wife

And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me? And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. Gen. xxvii. 46. xxviii. 1. When the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, thou shalt make no covenant with them; neither shalt thou make marriages with them; for they will turn away thy son from following me. Deut. vii. 1 to 4. But king Solomon loved many strange women, and it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods. 1 Kings xi. 1. 4. Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? 2 Cor. vi. 14, 15. And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh: and I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell: but thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac. And the servant went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor. And it came to pass, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother. And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether the Lord had made his journey prosperous or not. And said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor. And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, and said, Come in, thou blessed of the Lord. And he said, I will not eat until I have told mine errand.—And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me. Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the Lord; we cannot speak unto thee bad or good. Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the Lord hath spoken. And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go. And they sent away Rebekah their sister. And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and she became his wife. Gen. xxiv. 2, 3, 4. 10. 15. 21. 23, 24. 29. 31. 33. 49, 50, 51. 58, 59. 67.

5. First, It was ordained for the procreation of children, to be brought up in the fear and nurture of the Lord, and to the praise of his holy Name.

5. God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply and replenish the earth. Gen. i. 27, 28. Ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Eph. vi. 4. Then Manoah entreated the Lord, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and how shall we do unto him? Judges xiii. 8. 12. Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children; let them praise the name of the Lord. Psal. cxlviii. 12, 13.

6. Secondly, It was ordained for a remedy against sin, and to avoid fornication; that such persons as have not the gift of continency might marry, and keep themselves undefiled members of Christ's body.

6. To avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 1 Cor. vii. 2. This is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication. 1 Thess. iv. 3. Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. 1 Cor. vi. 15. We know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him. And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 John iii. 2, 3. And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. Gen. ii. 18. Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. Eccl. iv. 9, 10. Let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it. Eph. v. 33. 28, 29. The unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband. 1 Cor. vii. 14. And Isaac took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death. Gen. xxiv. 67. And David comforted Bathsheba his wife. 2 Sam. xii. 24. The Pharisees came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

Thirdly, It was ordained for the mutual society, help, and comfort, that the one ought to have of the other, both in prosperity and adversity. Into which holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. Therefore if any man can shew any just cause, why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

Wherefore they are no more twain but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. Matt. xix. 3 to 6. 9.

1. I require and charge you both, as ye will answer at the dreadful day of judgment when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed, that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joined together in Matrimony, ye do now confess it.

1. The priest shall charge her by an oath. Num. v. 19. The high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God. Matt. xxvi. 63. I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. Matt. xii. 36. God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Eccl. xii. 14. In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ. Rom. ii. 16. There is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Luke xii. 2. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Prov. xxviii. 13.

2. For be ye well assured, that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's Word doth allow, are not joined together by God; neither is their Matrimony lawful.

2. Be sure your sins will find you out. Num. xxxii. 23. Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished. Prov. xi. 21. Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias's sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. Mark vi. 17, 18. Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us? Ezra ix. 14. And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee; be of good courage, and do it. Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware. And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel. Now therefore make confession unto the Lord God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives. Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. Ezra x. 2 to 5. 10, 11, 12.

M. Wilt thou have this Woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour, and keep her in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

I will.

And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Let them be only thine own, and not strangers with thee. Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth, and be thou ravished always with her love. And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? Prov. v. 15 to 20. Take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. The Lord, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away. Mal. ii. 15, 16. CCIII. The Church's Ratification of the Matrimonial engagement.

Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder.

For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and they twain shall be one flesh. Wherefore they are no more twain but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Matt. xix. 5, 6. Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residueof the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. For the Lord, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away. Mal. ii. 14, 15, 16. Unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband. 1 Cor. vii. 10. And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go. And Isaac took Rebekah and she became his wife. Gen. xxiv. 58. 67. And Boaz said unto the elders and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that Ruth the Moabitess, have I purchased to be my wife. Ruth iv. 9, 10. Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus. Col. iii. 17. Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Matt. xviii. 18.

Forasmuch as M. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving of a Ring, and by joining of hands; I pronounce that they be Man and Wife together, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

CCVIII. Supplications and Prayers. No. 4.

1. O God, who by thy mighty power hast made all things of nothing; who also (after other things set in order) didst appoint, that out of man (created after thine own image and similitude) woman should take her beginning;

1. In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. Gen. i. 1. Thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Rev. iv. 11. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. Heb. xi. 3. These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, and every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew. Gen. ii. 4, 5. God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. Gen. i. 27. And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; and the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man, and Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Gen. ii. 21, 22, 23. The man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. 1 Cor. xi. 8. Adam was first formed, then Eve. 1 Tim. ii. 13.

2. and knitting them together, didst teach that it should never be lawful to put asunder those whom thou by Matrimony hadst made one:

2. He answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Matt. xix. 4, 5, 6. Unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband. 1 Cor. vii. 10.

3. O God, who hast consecrated the state of Matrimony to such an excellent mystery, that in it is signified and represented the spiritual marriage and unity betwixt Christ and his Church; Look mercifully upon these thy servants, that both this man may love his wife, according to thy Word, (as Christ did love his spouse the Church, who gave himself for it, loving and cherishing it even as his own flesh,)

3. As a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee. Isa. lxii. 5. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Rev. xxi. 2. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. Rev. xix. 7, 8. The King shall greatly desire thy beauty, for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him. Psal. xlv. 11. The husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the Head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the body. Therefore as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the Church. Eph. v. 23 to 32. Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life. 1 Pet. iii. 7.

4. and also that this woman may be loving and amiable, faithful and obedient to her husband; and in all quietness, sobriety, and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons. O Lord, bless them both, and grant them to inherit thy everlasting kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. Teach the young women to be sober, to love their hushands, to love their children, to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands. Titus ii. 4, 5. A prudent wife is from the Lord. Prov. xix. 14. Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. 1 Tim. ii. 11. Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands. 1 Pet. iii. 1. Be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. 2 Cor. xiii. 11. Being heirs together of the grace of life. 1 Pet. iii. 7. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; as the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore. Psal. cxxxiii.

CCIX. Supplications and Prayers. No. 5.

1. Almighty God, who at the beginning did create our first parents, Adam and Eve, and did sanctify and join them together in marriage;

1. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; and the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Gen. ii. 7. 18. 21, 22, 23. And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living. Gen. iii. 20.

2 Pour upon you the riches of his grace, sanctify and bless you; that ye may please him both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto your lives' end. Amen.

2. The exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. Eph. ii. 7. The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. 1 Thess. v. 23, 24. Ye are bought with a price, therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Cor. vi. 20. As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love. This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. John xv. 9, 10. 12. He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great. The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children. Psal. cxv. 13, 14.

1. All ye that are married, or that intend to take the holy estate of Matrimony upon you, hear what the holy Scripture doth say as touching the duty of husbands towards their wives, and wives towards their husbands.

2. Saint Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians, the fifth Chapter, doth give this commandment to all married men, Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the Word; that he might present it to himself, a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife; and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery; but I speak concerning Christ and the Church. Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife, even as himself. Eph. v. 25 to 33.

3. Likewise, the same Saint Paul, writing to the Colossians, speaketh thus to all men that are married: Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Col. iii. 19.

4. Hear also what Saint Peter, the Apostle of Christ, who was himself a married man, saith unto them that are married; Ye husbands, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindered. 1 Pet. iii. 7.

5. Hitherto ye have heard the duty of the husband toward the wife. Now likewise, ye wives, hear and learn your duties toward your husbands, even as it is plainly set forth in holy Scripture.

6. Saint Paul, in the aforenamed Epistle to the Ephesians, teacheth you thus; Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the body. Therefore as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. And again he saith, Let the wife see that she reverence her husband. Eph. v. 22, 23, 24. And in his Epistle to the Colossians, Saint Paul giveth you this short lesson; Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. Col. iii. 18.

7. Saint Peter also doth instruct you very well, thus saying, Ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; while they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands; even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; whose daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. 1 Pet. iii. 1. 3 to 6.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me upon a rock, Psal. xxvii. 5. Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord; let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me. Psal. xl. 11. Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. John xvi. 23. He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him. Heb. vii. 25.

1. Hear us, Almighty and most merciful God and Saviour;

1. If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty; surely now he would awake for thee. Job viii. 5, 6. Behold happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty. Job v. 17. Mighty to save. Isa. lxiii. 1. The Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations. Psal. c. 5. Let them now that fear the Lord say, that his mercy endureth for ever. Psal. cxviii. 4. The Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty;

visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. Exod. xxxiv. 6, 7. As for me, my prayer is unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation. Psal. lxix. 13. Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. Isa. xlv. 15. He said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. Isa. lxiii. 8. Thou shalt know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. Isa. lx. 16.

2. extend thy accustomed goodness to this thy servant who is grieved with sickness.

2. Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name. Psal. cxix. 132. Remember me, O Lord, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation. Psal. cvi. 4. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me. Psal. cxlii. 7. The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. Psal. cxvi. 3, 4. O Lord, I am oppressed; undertake for me. Isa. xxxviii. 14. Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins. Psal. xxv. 18. Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy. Psal. cxix. 124. Hezekiah was sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live. Then he prayed unto the Lord; and Hezekiah wept sore. 2 Kings xx. 1, 2, 3.

3. Sanctify, we beseech thee, this thy fatherly correction to him;

3. Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. 1 Pet. iii. 15. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. James i. 12. Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Now no chastening for the present seemeth joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. Heb. xii. 6 to 11. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. Psal. ciii. 13.

4. that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance:

4. I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years. Isa. xxxviii. 10. Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak. Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High. Psal. lxxvii. 4. 9, 10. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity. Psal. xxxi. 9, 10. Mine eyes fail with looking upward: O Lord, I am oppressed: undertake for me. Isa. xxxviii. 14. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God. Psal. xlii. 11. He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Cor. xii. 9. Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. Mark ix. 24. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Psal xxvii. 13. Blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the high-way side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 3. I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? Job vii. 20. If I have done iniquity, I will do no more. Job xxxiv. 32. I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me. Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies. I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 75. 67. 59, 60.

5. That, if it shall be thy good pleasure to restore him to his former health, he may lead the residue of his life in thy fear, and to thy glory:

5. O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me: make haste, O Lord, to help me. Psal. xl. 16. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more. Psal. xxxix. 13. Not my will, but thine, be done. Luke xxii. 42. The word of the Lord came to Isaiah, saying, Tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold I will heal thee; and I will add unto thy days fifteen years. 2 Kings xx. 4, 5, 6. Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. John v. 14. Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long. Prov. xxiii. 17. What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. Psal. cxvi. 12. 9. 13. The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known thy truth. The Lord was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the Lord. Isa. xxxviii. 19, 20.

6. or else, give him grace so to take thy visitation, that, after this painful life ended, he may dwell with thee in life everlasting: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

6. What will ye do in the day of visitation? Isa. x. 3. God is able to make all grace abound toward you. 2 Cor. ix. 8. My grace is sufficient for thee. 2 Cor. xii. 9. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it. Psal. xxxix. 9. Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord. Lam. iii. 39, 40. Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Job i. 21. All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. Job xiv. 14. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me. Psal. xxiii. 4. Man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward. Job v. 7. His flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn. Job xiv. 22. I would not live alway. Job vii. 16. I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me. Job xix. 25, 26, 27. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am there ye may be also. John xiv. 2, 3. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law; that thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity. Psal. xciv. 12, 13. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. James i. 12. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Thess. iv. 14. 17.

1. Dearly beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and of all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakness, and sickness.

1. Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else. Deut. iv. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no God with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever. Deut. xxxii. 39, 40. Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this? in whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. Job xii. 9, 10. Unto God the Lord belong the issues from death. Psal. lxviii. 20. The Lord killeth, and the Lord maketh alive, he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up. 1 Sam. ii. 6. He giveth to all life, and breath, and all things. Acts xvii. 25. The days of his youth hast thou shortened. Psal. lxxxix. 45. The Lord satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. Psal. ciii. 5. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. 1 Chron. xxix. 12. Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God. Psal. xlii. 11. Thus saith the Lord, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. Isa. xxxviii. 5. Thou shalt be buried in a good old age. Gen. xv. 15. He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days. Psal. cii. 23. The Lord struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick. 2 Sam. xii. 15.

2. Wherefore, whatsoever your sickness is, know you certainly, that it is God's visitation.

2. Shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it? Amos iii. 6. And Eli said, It is the Lord; let him do what seemeth him good. 1 Sam. iii. 18. The Lord smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death. 2 Kings xv. 5. I will visit their transgression with the rod. Psal. lxxxix. 32. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Matt. x. 29, 30.

3. And for what cause soever this sickness is sent unto you; whether it be to try your patience or the example of others,

3. Thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried. Psal. lxvi. 10. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. James i. 2, 3, 4. Rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation. Rom. xii. 12. Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. James v. 10. Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Heb. vi. 12. I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock. Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord. Psal. xl. 1, 2, 3. See also, John xi. 4.

4. and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord, laudable, glorious, and honourable to the increase of glory and endless felicity;

4. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. i. 6, 7. Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Cor. iv. 17, 18. Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 1 Pet. i. 9. See also, 2 Thess. i. 10, 11, 12.—Jude 24, 25.—Rev. ii. 10.

5. or else it be sent unto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doth

5. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth. Psal. xxxix. 11. If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments; then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him. Psal. lxxxix. 30. 32, 33. Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,—for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Heb. xii. 6. 10. 6. know you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your sins, and bear your sickness patiently, trusting in God's mercy, for his dear Son Jesus Christ's sake,

6. In the day of adversity consider. Eccl. vii. 14. Come and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. Hosea vi. 1. I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin. Psal. xxxviii. 18. I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. Luke xv. 18, 19. Unto you first, God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Acts iii. 26. If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the Propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John ii. 1, 2.

. and ren- unto him nble nks for fatherly itation, omitting rself olly unto will,

7. I will thank the Lord for giving me warning: my reins also chasten me in the night season. Psal. xvi. 8. I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me. Psal. cxix. 75. It is the Lord; let him do what seemeth him good. 1 Sam. iii. 18.

. it shall n to your fit, and p you for- rd in the ht way t leadeth o ever- ting life.

8. They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses, and he led them forth by the right way. Psal. cvii. 6, 7. It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. Psal. cxix. 71. Knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope; and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Rom. v. 3, 4, 5. They [our fathers] verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure: but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. Heb. xii. 10, 11. Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Cor. iv. 17. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. James i. 12.

1. Take therefore in good part the chastisement of the Lord: For, (as St. Paul saith in the twelfth Chapter to the Hebrews,) whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

1. My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction. Prov. iii. 11. For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Heb. xii. 6 to 10.

2. These words, good brother, are written in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction; that we should patiently, and with thanksgiving, bear our heavenly Father's correction, whensoever by any manner of adversity it shall please his gracious goodness to visit us.

2. Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Rom. xv. 4. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 2 Tim. iii. 16. Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope. This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me. Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart. Psal. cxix. 49, 50. 111. And Samuel told Eli every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good. 1 Sam. iii. 18. Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the Lord which thou hast spoken. 2 Kings xx. 19. Patient in tribulation. Rom. xii. 12. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations. James i. 2. Not only so, but we glory in tribulations also. Rom. v. 3. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. v. 20. And the king said, Let him curse, because the Lord hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? It may be that the Lord will look on mine affliction, and that the Lord will requite me good for his cursing this day. 2 Sam. xvi. 10. 12.

3. And there should be no greater comfort to Christian persons, than to be made like unto Christ, by suffering patiently adversities, troubles, and sicknesses. For he himself went not up to joy, but first he suffered pain; he entered not into his glory before he was crucified.

3. For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake. Phil. i. 29. Even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pet. ii. 21 to 24. He was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Isa. liii. 7. Most gladly will I glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake. 2 Cor. xii. 9, 10. I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. 2 Cor. vii. 4. Our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation. 2 Thess. ii. 16. Let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator. 1 Pet. iv. 19. That I may know him, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death. Phil. iii. 10. Looking unto

Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. Heb. xii. 2. Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? Luke xxiv. 26. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. Heb. ii. 10. Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the Author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. Heb. v. 8, 9. For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. 2 Cor. xiii. 4.

4. So truly our way to eternal joy is to suffer here with Christ; and our door to enter into eternal life is gladly to die with Christ; that we may rise again from death, and dwell with him in everlasting life.

4. Jesus saith unto him, I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life. John xiv. 6. I am the Door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved. John x. 9. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: if we suffer we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us. 2 Tim. ii. 11, 12. If we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? If we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. Rom. vi. 8. 3. 5. 9. Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. iii. 3, 4. I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Rom. viii. 18. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. xv. 22. If the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Rom. viii. 11.

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple. Rev. vii. 14, 15.

5. Now, herefore, aking your ickness, hich is thus rofitable for ou, pati- ntly,

5. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him. Psal. xxxvii. 7. I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. Psal. xl. 1. It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. Psal. cxix. 71. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord. Lam. iii. 25, 26. By this shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin. Isa. xxvii. 9.

6. I exhort ou, in the ame of God, o remember he profes- ion which ou made nto God n your Bap- sm.

6. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. 1 Tim vi. 12. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering. Heb. x. 23. For we are made partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. Heb. iii. 14.—See also, Nos. CLX. CLXI.

In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliver me in thy righteousness; incline thine ear unto me, and save me. —Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to help me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.—Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.—For thou, O

Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, even from my youth.—Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb; my praise shall alway be of thee.—I am become as it were a monster unto many: but my sure trust is in thee.—O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing of thy glory and honour all the day long.—Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.—For mine enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my soul, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him; for there is none to deliver him.—Go not far from me, O God: my God, haste thee to help me.—Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour that seek to do me evil.—As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.—My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and salvation: for I know no end thereof. I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.—Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.—Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray-headed: until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.—Thy righteousness, O God, is very high, and great things are they that thou hast done: O God, who is like unto thee?—Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in, &c.

1. O Blessed Lord, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforts; We beseech thee, look down in pity and compassion upon this thy afflicted servant.

1. Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort. 2 Cor. i. 3. Great are thy tender mercies, O Lord. Psal. cxix. 156. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Psal. xxxiv. 19. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. Psal. ciii. 13. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. James v. 11. Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained? Doubtless thou art our Father;—thou,

O Lord, art our Father, our Redeemer; thy name is from everlasting. Isa. lxiii. 15, 16. Though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies. For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. Lam. iii. 32, 33. 22. See also, Isa. xlix. 15, 16.

2. Thou writest bitter things against him, and makest him to possess his former iniquities; thy wrath lieth hard upon him, and his soul is full of trouble.

2. Thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth. Job xiii. 26. And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? 1 Kings xvii. 18. My soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave. I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength: free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand. Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps. Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Psal. lxxxviii. 3 to 7. See also, Psal. xxxviii.—Isa. xxxviii. 10 to 15.

3. But, O merciful God, who hast written thy holy Word for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of thy holy Scriptures, might have hope; give him a right understanding of himself, and of thy threats and promises; that he may neither cast away his confidence in thee, nor place it any where but in thee.

3. Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Rom. xv. 4. I also cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: the eyes of your understanding being enlightened. Eph. i. 15 to 18. Examine yourselves; prove your ownselves. Know ye not your ownselves? 2 Cor. xiii. 5. If our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 John iii. 20, 21. Who will render to every man according to his deeds: to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life: but unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil; but glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good. Rom. ii. 6 to 10. If we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. 1 Cor. xi. 31. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Make me to understand the way of thy precepts. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart. Teach me good judgment and knowledge. Psal. cxix. 18. 27. 34. 66. The Son of God, Jesus Christ, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us. 2 Cor. i. 19, 20. Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. Heb. x. 35, 36. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee. Psal. lxxxiv. 12. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength. Isa. xxvi. 4. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God: which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever. Psal. cxlvi. 3 to 6. O Lord our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name, Isa. xxvi. 13. Thou art my hope, O Lord God: thou art my trust from my youth. Psal. lxxi. 5. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. Jer. xvii. 7.

4. Give him strength against all his temptations, and heal all his distempers.

4. He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Cor. xii. 9. For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted. Heb. ii. 18. Though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations. 1 Pet. i. 6. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptation. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation. James i. 2. 12. The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have have suffered awhile, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pet. v. 10. I said, Lord, be merciful unto me: heal my soul. Psal. xli. 4. I have seen his ways, and will heal him. Isa. lvii. 18. I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him. Hos. xiv. 4. Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; for thou art my praise. Jer. xvii. 14. I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord. Jer. xxx. 17. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction. Psal. ciii. 2, 3, 4.

5. Break not the bruised reed, nor quench the smoking flax. Shut not up thy tender mercies in displeasure; but make him to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

5. A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. Matt. xii. 20. Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut up his lovingkindness in displeasure? Psal. lxxvii. 9. Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Psal. li. 8. 17. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. xi. 28. The Lord will not cast off for ever: but though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies. For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. Lam. iii. 31, 32, 33. Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees. Heb. xii. 12. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness. Psal. xxx. 11. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. Psal. cxxvi. 5, 6.

6. Deliver him from fear of the enemy, and lift up the light of thy countenance upon him, and give him peace, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

6. Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy. Psal. lxiv. 1. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy. Psal. lxi. 2, 3. I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him. Psal. xii. 5. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation. Psal. xci. 14, 15, 16. There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us. Psal. iv. 6. The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Num. vi. 26. Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. v. 1. The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phil. iv. 7.

THE COMMUNION OF THE SICK.

CCXXV. A Prayer for patience under affliction.

1. Almighty, everliving God, Maker of mankind, who dost correct those whom thou dost love, and chastise every one whom thou dost receive;

1. I, even I, am he, and there is no God with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever. Deut. xxxii. 39, 40. Now, O Lord, thou art our Father; we are the clay, and thou our potter, and we all are the work of thy hand. Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Isa. lxiv. 8, 9. My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons. Heb. xii. 5, 6, 7. Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty: for he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole. Job v. 17, 18.

2. We beseech thee to have mercy upon this thy servant visited with thine hand,

2. Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth. O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid. Psal. lxxxvi. 15, 16. Let thy mercies come also unto me, O Lord, even thy salvation, according to thy word. Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight. Psal. cxix. 41. 77. Day and night thy hand was heavy upon me. My moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Psal. xxxii. 4. Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand. Psal. xxxix. 10. See also, 1 Sam. v. 9.—Job xix. 27.

3. and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health, (if it be thy gracious will;) and whensoever his soul shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. James i. 2, 3, 4. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. 1 Pet. v. 6. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the Lord, and said, Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah, saying, Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. Isa. xxxviii. 2 to 5. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more. Psal. xxxix. 13. Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. Luke xxii. 42. We that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. 2 Cor. v. 4. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Eccl. xii. 7. I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phil. i. 23. To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. Luke xxiii. 43. Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. v. 25, 26, 27. Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Cor. xii. 27. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25.

The Epistle. Hebrews xii. 5, 6.—My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him. For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth; and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

The Gospel. John v. 24.—Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

THE ORDER FOR

The introductory Sentences, Psalms, and Lesson.

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die. John xi. 25, 26. I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though after my skin worms destroy this body; yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Job xix. 25, 26, 27. We brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord. 1 Tim. vi. 7. Job i. 21.

Psalm xxxix.—I said, I will take heed to my ways: that I offend not in my tongue.—I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle: while the ungodly is in my sight.—I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good words; but it was pain and grief to me.—My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.—Lord, let me know my end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.—Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.—For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.—And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.—Deliver me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.—I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.—Take thy plague away from me: I am even consumed by means of thy heavy hand.—When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.—Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.—For I am a stranger with thee: and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.—O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and he no more seen.—

Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the, &c.

Psalm xc.—Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.—Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.—Thou turnest man to destruction: again thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.—For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.—As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly like the grass.—In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.—For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.—Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee: and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.—For when thou art angry, all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.—The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.—But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.—So teach us to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.—Turn thee again, O Lord, at the last: and be gracious unto thy servants.—O satisfy us with thy mercy, and that soon: so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.—Comfort us again, now after the time that thou hast plagued us: and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.—Shew thy servants thy work: and their children thy glory.—And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper thou our handy-work.—Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the, &c.

1 Cor. xv. 20.—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power. For he must reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death: For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead? And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die. Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die. And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain. But God giveth it a body, as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead: It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual; but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

1. Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down, like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

1. Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not. Job xiv. 1, 2. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. 1 Pet. i. 24. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled. Psal. xc. 10. 5, 6, 7. 4. Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee. Psal. xxxviii. 9. THE

THANKSGIVING OF WOMEN AFTER CHILDBIRTH,

COMMONLY CALLED

CCXXX. Address to the Woman.

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his goodness to give you safe deliverance, and hath preserved you in the great danger of childbirth; you shall therefore give hearty thanks unto God, and say,

Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. Gen. iii. 16. When the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle dove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest: who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her. Lev. xii. 6, 7. And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb. And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord. Luke ii. 21, 22. 24. The woman being deceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety. 1 Tim. ii. 14, 15. Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. Psal. l. 15. The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. Then called I upon the name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me. Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee. Psal. cxvi. 3 to 7.

Psalm cxvi.—I am well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer;—That he hath inclined his ear unto me: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.—The snares of death compassed me round about: and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.—I found trouble and heaviness, and I called upon the name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.—Gracious is the Lord, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.—The Lord preserveth the simple: I was in misery, and he helped me.—Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.—And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.—I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.—I believed, and therefore will I speak: but I was sore troubled: I said in my haste, All men are liars.—What reward shall I give unto the Lord: for all the benefits that he hath done unto me?—I will receive the cup of salvation: and call upon the Name of the Lord.—I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: in the courts of the Lord's house, even in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the beginning, &c.

Psalm cxxvii.—Except the Lord build the house: their labour is but lost that build it.—Except the Lord keep the city: the watchman waketh but in vain.—It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulness: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.—Lo, children and the fruit of the womb: are an heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord.—Like as the arrows in the hand of the giant: even so are the young children.—Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the beginning, &c.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, &c.

1, 2. Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee. Psal. lxxxvi. 2.

3, 4. Be thou to her a strong tower; from the face of her enemy.

3, 4. Thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy. Psal. lxi. 3.

5, 6. Lord, hear our prayer; and let our cry come unto thee.

5, 6. Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. Psal. lxi. 1.

1. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people, in the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord. Psal. cxvi. 17, 18, 19. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. John xvi. 21. Thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I was greatly afflicted. What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? Psal. cxvi. 8. 10. 12.

For we walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Cor. v. 7. Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God. Psal. cxliii. 10. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Col. ii. 6, 7. If ye do these things, ye shall never fall: for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pet. i. 10, 11.

A COMMINATION,

OR DENOUNCING OF GOD'S ANGER AND JUDGMENTS AGAINST SINNERS, WITH CERTAIN PRAYERS,

To be used on the first Day of Lent, and at other times, as the Ordinary shall appoint.

CCXXXIII. The Minister's Address to the Congregation.

1. Brethren, in the Primitive Church there was a godly discipline, that, at the beginning of Lent, such persons as stood convicted of notorious sin were put to open penance, and

1. In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. Now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person. 1 Cor. v. 4 to 7. 11. 13. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. 1 Tim. v. 20. If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, and thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire, and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment: and thou shalt do according to the sentence. And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest that standeth to minister there before the Lord thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously. Deut. xvii. 8, 9, 10. 12, 13. See also, Matt. xviii. 15 to 18.—John ix.

2. Instead whereof, (until the said discipline may be restored again, which is much to be wished,) it is thought good, that at this time (in the presence of you all) should be read the general sentences of God's cursing against impenitent sinners, gathered out of the seven and twentieth Chapter of Deuteronomy, and other places of Scripture and that ye should answer to every

2. Moses charged the people the same day, saying, These shall stand upon Mount Gerizim to bless the people; and these shall stand upon Mount Ebal to curse. And the Levites shall speak unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. Deut. xxvii. 11 to 15. And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the watergate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the Lord had commanded to Israel. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. And he read therein before the street that was before the watergate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. Neh. viii. 1, 2, 3. Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled

Sentence, Amen: To the intent that, being admonished of the great indignation of God against sinners, ye may the rather be moved to earnest and true repentance; and may walk more warily in these dangerous days; fleeing from such vices, for which ye affirm with your own mouths the curse of God to be due.

with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them. And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the Lord their God. Neh. ix. 1, 2, 3. Unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil. Rom. ii. 8, 9. God is angry with the wicked every day. If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready. Psal. vii. 11, 12. There remaineth a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. Heb. x. 26, 27. Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach. Joel ii. 16, 17. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. Jonah iii. 4 to 10. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. Jer. vi. 16. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. Psal. xxxiv. 14. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. 1 Cor. x. 8, 9, 10. Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate. The prudent shall keep silence in that time, for it is an evil time. Amos v. 14, 15. 13. This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their ownselves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. 2 Tim. iii. 1 to 5. O that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies; but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the Lord. Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders. And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity. Through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the Lord. Jer. ix. 2 to 6. And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries. And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity. 2 Chron. xv. 5, 6. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Eph. v. 15. Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 2 Tim. ii. 19. Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Thess. v. 22.

CCXXXV. The Application and Exhortation.

I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments: we have sinned and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments: neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name. Dan. ix. 4, 5, 6. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. Heb. x. 28. 31. For our God is a consuming fire. Heb. xii. 29. The Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God. Deut. iv. 24. 4. For, behold, the Lord cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. Isa. xxvi. 21. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's sope. Mal. iii. 2. The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him. He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people. Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth? seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee. When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers. Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit. Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son. Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. Psal. l. 1 to 4. 15 to 20. 22. The great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand. Rev. vi. 17. The wicked are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away. Job xxi. 18. The ungodly are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. man with child; and they shall not escape. 1 Thess. v. 2, 3. As the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Matt. xiv. 37, 38, 39. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. Luke xvii. 28, 29, 30. They shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. Isa. xiii. 8. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors: yea, even like as a dream when one awaketh, so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the city. Psal. lxxiii. 19. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. Heb. xii. 25. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation? Heb. ii. 3. See also, Matt. xiii. 41, 42, 43.—xxiii. 33.

7. Then shall appear the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which obstinate sinners, through the stubbornness of their heart, have heaped unto themselves; which despised the goodness, patience, and long-suffer-ance of God,

7. Then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. Matt. xxiv. 30. He will not spare in the day of vengeance. Prov. vi. 34. [They] said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? Rev. vi. 16, 17. The hypocrites in heart heap up wrath. Job xxxvi. 13. He that being often reproved har-deneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. Prov. xxix. 1. They refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts. Zech. vii. 11, 12. After thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God. Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and long suffering: not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Rom. ii. 5. 4. Harden not your heart. Psal. xcv. 8. Account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pet. iii. 15. 9.

8. Then shall they call upon me, (saith the Lord,) but I will not hear; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: and that, because they hated knowledge, and received not the fear of the Lord, but abhorred my counsel, and despised my correction. Then shall it be too late to knock when the door shall be shut; and too late to cry for mercy when it is the time of justice. O terrible voice of most just judgment, which shall be pronounced upon

8. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: for that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord: they would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. Prov. i. 28, 29, 30. While they went to buy the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily, I say unto you, I know you not. Matt. xxv. 10, 11, 12. And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. And the Lord shut him in. And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth. And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth. And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, every man, all in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died. Gen. vii. 7. 16, 17. 19. 21, 22. Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 2 Cor. vi. 2. It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment. Heb. ix. 27. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Eccl. ix. 10. The Lord thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible. Deut. vii. 21. The voice of the Lord is full of majesty, the voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness. Psal. xxix. 4. 8. Righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne. Psal. xcvii. 2. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? and then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Matt. vii. 21, 22, 23. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment. Matt. xxv. 41. 46.

9. Therefore, brethren, take we heed betime, while the day of salvation lasteth; for the night cometh when none can work. But let us, while we have the light, believe in the light, and walk as children of the light, that we be not cast into utter darkness, where is weeping and gnashing of teeth.

9. Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation. Heb. ii. 1, 2, 3. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. Heb. xii. 25. For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 2 Cor. vi. 2. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. Heb. iii. 12. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. Luke xxi. 36. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh, when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. John ix. 4, 5. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. John xii. 35, 36. Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Eph. x. 16. Take the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents. And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Matt. xxv. 28. 30. Woe unto them! to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. Jude 11. 13.

10. Let us not abuse the goodness of God, who calleth us mercifully to amendment, and of his endless pity promiseth us forgiveness of that which is past, if with a perfect and true heart we return unto him.

10. Despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Rom. ii. 4. Seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this; should we again break thy commandments, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us? Ezra ix. 13, 14. Psal. li.—Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.—Wash me throughly from my wickedness: and cleanse me from my sin.—For I acknowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before me.—Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.—Behold, I was shapen in wickedness: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.—But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.—Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.—Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.—Turn thy face away from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.—Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.—Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.—O give me the comfort of thy help again: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.—Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted unto thee.—Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.—Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth shall shew thy praise.—For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.—The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shall thou not despise.—O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.—Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

1. O Most powerful and glorious Lord God, at whose command the winds blow, and lift up the waves of the sea, and who stillest the rage thereof;

1. I am God Almighty. Gen. xxxv. 11. The Great, the Mighty God, the Lord of hosts, is his name. Jer. xxxii. 18. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness? Exod. xv. 11. Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty, give unto the Lord glory and strength. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the Lord is upon many waters. The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is full of majesty. The Lord sitteth upon the flood; yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever. Psal. xxix. 1 to 4. 10. The Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers. Nah. i. 3 4.

The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea. Psal. xciii. 4. He commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof. Psal. cvii. 25. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice: the floods lift up their waves. Psal. xciii. 3. Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. Psal. lxxxix. 9. He arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. Matt. viii. 26. Is any thing too hard for the Lord? Gen. xviii. 14.

2. We thy creatures, but miserable sinners, do in this our great distress cry unto thee for help: Save, Lord, or else we perish.

2. O Lord, thou art our Father; we are the clay, and thou our Potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Isa. lxiv. 8. We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. Psal. cvi. 6. Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Isa. lxiv. 9. Now, our God, thou art just in all that is brought upon us, for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly. Neh. ix. 32, 33. Behold, O Lord; for I am in distress. Lam. i. 20. Lord, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee. Psal. cxli. 1. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses. Psal. cvii. 26, 27, 28. Help me, O Lord my God: O save me according to thy mercy. Psal. cix. 26. In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. Psal. xviii. 6. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. Psal. lxi. 2. When Peter saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. Matt. xiv. 30. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. Matt. viii. 25.

3. We confess, when we have been safe, and seeing all things quiet about us, we have forgot thee our God, and refused to hearken to the still voice of thy word, and to obey thy commandments:

3. In my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved. Psal. xxx. 6. They soon forgat his works; they waited not for his counsel. They forgat God their Saviour, which had done great things in Egypt. Psal. cvi. 13. 21. He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock; butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee. Deut. xxxii. 13, 14, 15. 18. [They] refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks. They were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and they wrought great provocations. Neh. ix. 17. 26. Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God. Dan. ix. 10. We have forsaken thy commandments. Ezra ix. 10. When the Lord thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not, and houses full of good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not: when thou shalt have eaten, and be full; then beware lest thou forget the Lord. Deut. vi. 10, 11, 12. See also, Deut. viii. 10. to 14.—Amos i. 3 to 6.

4. But now we see, how terrible thou art in all thy works of wonder; the great God to be feared above all:

and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men. Psal. lxvi. 3. 5. They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; these see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep. Psal. cvii. 23, 24. The Lord is great; he is to be feared above all gods. Psal. xcvi. 4.

5. And therefore we adore thy Divine Majesty, acknowledging thy power, and imploring thy goodness. Help, Lord, and save us for thy mercies' sake in Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

5. The Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. The sea is his, and he made it. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our Maker. Psal. xcv. 3. 5, 6. Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. 1 Chron. xxix. 11. O how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee! Psal. xxxi. 19. According to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O Lord. Psal. xxv. 7. Help me, O Lord my God; O save me according to thy mercy. Psal. cix. 26. Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me: Lord, be thou my helper. Psal. xxx. 10. Be not far from me; for trouble is near. Psal. xxii. 11. CCXLII. A Prayer to be used during a Storm at Sea. No. 2.

1. O most glorious and gracious Lord

1. Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among God, who dwellest in heaven, but beholdest all things below; Look down, we beseech thee, and hear us, calling out of the depth of misery, and out of the jaws of this death, which is ready now to swallow us up: Save, Lord, or else we perish.

the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness; fearful in praises, doing wonders? Exod. xv. 6. 11. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy water-spouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me. Psal. xlii. 7. Out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice. For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me. Jonah ii. 2, 3. The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. Psal. cxvi. 3, 4. Save me, O God; for the waters are come in unto my soul. I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. I am weary of my crying: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God. O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me. Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered out of the deep waters. Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up. Psal. lxix. 1, 2, 3. 13, 14, 15. Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O Lord. Psal. lxx. 1. So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. Jonah i. 4, 5, 6. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. Matt. viii. 25.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven. Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders. Psal. cvii. 26 to 32. While I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being. Psal. cxlvi. 2. Psalm lxvi.—O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious.—Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works: through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.—For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee, and praise thy Name.—O come hither, and behold the works of God: how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men.—He turned the sea into dry land: so that they went through the water on foot: there did we rejoice thereof.—He ruleth with his power for ever; his eyes behold the people: and such as will not believe shall not be able to exalt themselves.—O praise our God, ye people: and make the voice of his praise to be heard;—Who holdeth our soul in life: and suffereth not our feet to slip.—For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.—Thou broughtest us into the snare: and laidest trouble upon our loins.—Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.—I will go into thine house with burnt-offerings: and will pay thee my vows, which I promised with my lips and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.—I will offer unto thee fat burnt-sacrifices, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks and goats.—O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.—I called unto him with my mouth: and gave him praises with my tongue.—If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart: the Lord will not hear me.—But God hath heard me: and considered the voice of my prayer.—Praised be God who hath not cast out my prayer nor turned his mercy from me.

dureth for ever.—Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy.—And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west: from the north, and from the south.—They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no city to dwell in;— Hungry and thirsty their soul fainted in them.—So they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: and he delivered them from their distress.—He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to the city where they dwelt.—O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!—For he satisfieth the empty soul: and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.—Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: being fast bound in misery and iron; Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counsel of the Most Highest.—He also brought down their heart through heaviness: they fell down, and there was none to help them.—So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.—For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death: and brake their bonds in sunder.—O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!—For he hath broken the gates of brass: and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.—Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickedness.—Their soul abhorred all manner of meat: and they were even hard at death's door.—So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble:—he delivered them out of their distress.—He sent his word, and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction.—O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!—That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his works with gladness!—They that go down to the sea in ships: and occupy their business in great waters: —These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deep.—For at his word the stormy wind ariseth: which lifteth up the waves thereof.—They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep: their soul melteth away because of the trouble.—They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wit's end.—So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivereth them out of their distress.—For he maketh the storm to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.—Then are they glad, because they are at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be. —O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!—That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people: and praise him in the seat of the elders!—Who turneth the floods into a wilderness: and drieth up the water-springs.—A fruitful land maketh he barren: for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.—Again, he maketh the wilderness a standing water: and water-springs of a dry ground.—And there he setteth the hungry: that they may build them a city to dwell in;—That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards: to yield them fruits of increase.—He blesseth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.—And again, when they are minished, and brought low: through oppression, through any plague, or trouble;—Though he suffer them to be evil intreated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness;—Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery: and maketh him housholds like a flock of sheep.—The righteous will consider this and rejoice: and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.—Whoso is wise will ponder these things: and they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the beginning, &c.

5. We had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us. 2 Cor. i. 9, 10. And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. CCXLVI. A Thanksgiving after a Storm. No. 2.

1. O most mighty and gracious good God, thy mercy is over all thy works, but in special manner hath been extended toward us, whom thou hast so powerfully and wonderfully defended.

1. O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee? thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand. Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. Psal. lxxxix. 8. 13. 9. Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth. Psal. lxxxvi. 15. The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. Psal. cxlv. 9. He rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen upon the wings of the wind. The Lord thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered his voice. And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the Lord, at the blast of the breadth of his nostrils. He drew me out of many waters; he brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me. 2 Sam. xxii. 11. 14. 16, 17. 20. The Lord is our defence. Psal. lxxxix. 18.

2. Thou hast showed us terrible things, and wonders in the deep, that we might see how powerful and gracious a God thou art; how able and ready to help them that trust in thee.

2. By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea. Psal. lxv. 5. Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! Psal. lxvi. 3. He saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. Psal. cvi. 8. All men that see it, shall say, This hath God done; for they shall perceive that it is his work. Psal. lxiv. 9. And Peter beginning to sink, cried, saying, Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? Matt. xiv. 20. 31. Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust. Psal. xl. 4. Our fathers trusted in thee; they trusted, and thou didst deliver them. Psal. xxii 4. Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! Psal. xxxi. 19. The Lord shall help them, and deliver them: he shall save them, because they trust in him. Psal. xxxvii. 40.

3. Thou hast shewed us how both winds and seas obey thy command;

3. The men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him! Matt. viii. 27. He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And they said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? Mark iv. 39. 41. He commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. Psal. cvii. 25. 29. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared. Exod. xiv. 21, 22, 23. 27.

4. that we may learn, even from them, hereafter to obey thy voice, and to do thy will.

4. Even the winds and the sea obey him. Mark iv. 41. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Matt. vii. 10. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord. Psal. cvii. 43. Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God; and the Lord will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. Jer. xxvi. 13. Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy Spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. Psal. cxliii. 10.

5. We therefore bless and glorify thy Name, for this thy mercy in saving us, when we were ready to perish.

5. The Lord was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the Lord. Isa. xxxviii. 20. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake. Psal. cxv. 1. The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him. Exod. xv. 2. In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Psal. xliv. 8. For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth. Psal. cviii. 4, 5.

6. And we, beseech thee, make us as truly sensible now of thy mercy, as we were then of the danger; and give us hearts always ready to express our thankfulness, not only by words, but also by our lives, in being more obedient to thy holy commandments.

6. Thy mercy is great unto the heavens. Psal. lvii. 10. They draw near unto the gates of death. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! Psal. cvii. 18, 19. 21. The Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the Lord. The Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. And Israel saw that great work which the Lord did upon the Egyptians: and the prophet feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his servant Moses. Exod. xiv. 10. 30, 31. I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord. Jonah ii. 9. Oh that there were such an heart in them that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever! Deut. v. 29.

He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God. They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law: therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble. When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God. Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues. For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant. Psal. lxxviii. 5. 7. 10. 33, 34. 36, 37. Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God. Gal. ii. 20.

And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the Lord. Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the fore front of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the Lord had made them to rejoice over their enemies. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. John xvii. 17. He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth. The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things. When He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth. John xiv. 16, 17, 26. xvi. 13. Likewise must the Deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. Let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blameless. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have used the office of a Deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. iii. 8 to 13. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Or else this, out of the Sixth Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. Acts vi. 2. to 7.—Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the Word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the Word. And the saying pleased the whole multitude: And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch; whom they set before the Apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. And the Word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the faith.

And I do declare, That no foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State, or Potentate hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction, power, superiority, pre-eminence, or authority, Ecclesiastical or Spiritual, within this Realm.

And David said, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless? 1 Sam. xxvi. 9. And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, fear not, nor be dismayed: for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord. And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God. 1 Chron. xxviii. 20, 21. Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the Lord. 1 Kings ii. 27. See also, 2 Chron. viii. 14, 15.—xx. 21.

CCLV. The solemn Questions to the Candidates for the Office of Deacon.

The Bishop. 1. Do you trust, that you are inwardly moved by the Holy Ghost, to take upon you this Office and Ministration, to serve God for the promoting of his glory, and the edifying of his people?

Ans. I trust so

The Bishop. 2. Do you think, that you are truly called according to the Will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the due Order of this Realm to the Ministry of the Church?

Ans. I think so.

1, 2. I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. Jer. xxiii. 21. Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your ownselves. 2 Cor. xiii. 5. If a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. For every man shall bear his own burden. Gal. vi. 3, 4, 5. The fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth. Eph. v. 9. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. Rom. viii. 16. I seek not mine own glory. John viii. 50. We preach not ourselves. 2 Cor. iv. 5. We do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. 2 Cor. xii. 19. For the love of Christ constraineth us. 2 Cor. v. 14. Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phil. ii. 17. And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And he saith unto them, Follow me, and they straightway left their nets, and followed him. And going on from thence, he saw two other brethren, mending their nets; and he called them. And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him. Matt. iv. 18 to 22. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Matt. vii. 22, 23. No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an High Priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. Heb. v. 4, 5. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. Rom. xiv. 5. See also, Ezek. xiii. 3.—Exod. xix. —Acts xiii. 2.

The Bishop. 3. Do you unfeignedly believe all the Canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testament? Ans. I do believe them.

3. Be mindful of the words which were spoken before of the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour. 2 Pet. iii. 2. But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them, and that from a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 2 Tim. iii. 14, 15, 16. For this cause thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth the word of God. 1 Thess. ii. 13.

The Bishop. 4. Will you diligently read the same unto the People assembled in the Church, where you shall be appointed to serve? Ans. I will.

4. And he came to Nazareth; and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up for to read. Luke iv. 16. And Moses took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people. Exod. xxiv. 7. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding. And he read therein from morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; and when he opened it all the people stood up: and Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God: and all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the Lord. And the Levites caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. Neh. viii. 2 to 8. They stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God one fourth part of the day. Neh. ix. 3. When all Israel is come to appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing. Deut. xxxi. 11. When this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the Church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. Col. iv. 16. See also, 1 Cor. xiv.—Acts xiii. 14, 15. 27.

CCLVI. The Duties of Deacons; and further Questions to the Candidates.

The Bishop.—1. It appertaineth to the Office of Deacon in the Church, where he shall be appointed to serve, to assist the Priest in Divine Service, and especially when he ministereth the holy Communion; and to help him in the distribution thereof, and to read holy Scriptures and Homilies in the Church; and to instruct the Youth in the Catechism; in the absence of the Priest to baptize Infants; and to preach, if he be admitted thereto by the Bishop. And furthermore, it is his Office, where provision is so made, to search for the sick, poor, and impotent people of the Parish, to intimate their estate, names, and places where they dwell, unto the Curate, that by his exhortation they may be relieved with the alms of the Parishioners, or others. Will you do this gladly and willingly?—Ans. I will do so, by the help of God.

1. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest that they may minister unto him. And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle. Num. iii. 5, 6, 7. In those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually unto prayer, and to the ministry of the word. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip. Acts vi. 1 to 5. Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. When they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Acts viii. 5. 12.

The Bishop. 2. Will you apply all your diligence to frame and fashion your own lives, and the lives of your families, according to the Doctrine of Christ; and to make both yourselves and them, as much as in you lieth, wholesome examples of the flock of Christ?

Ans. I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

2. Likewise must the Deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved: then let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blameless. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have used the office of a Deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. iii. 8 to 13. Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed: but in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; by pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, by honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things 2 Cor. vi. 3 to 10. Flee youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Tim. ii. 22. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 12. 16. Feed the flock of God which is among you: neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pet. v. 2, 3. Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word. Psal. cxix. 9. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind. Rom. xii. 1, 2. Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? so run, that ye may obtain. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away. 1 Cor. ix. 24. 26, 27.

The Bishop.—3. Will you reverently obey your Ordinary, and other chief Ministers of the Church, and them to whom the charge and government over you is committed; following with a glad Mind and Will their godly admonitions?—Ans. I will endeavour myself, the Lord being my helper.

3. Ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. 1 Pet. v. 5. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves. Heb. xiii. 17. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake. 1 Pet. ii. 13. Ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. Rom. xiii. 5. For God is not the Author of confusion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the saints. 1 Cor. xiv. 33.

Then the Bishop, laying his hands severally upon the head of every one of them humbly kneeling before him, shall say—Take thou, &c.

The Lord said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay thine hand upon him; and thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him. And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses. Num. xxvii. 18. 20. 23. And they brought young children to Jesus, that he should touch them: and he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. Mark x. 13. 16. See also, Acts xiii. 3.—1 Tim. iv. 14. —v. 22.

1. Take thou authority to execute the office of a Deacon in the Church of God committed unto thee: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

1. Let these first be proved, then let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blameless. 1 Tim. iii. 10. The things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also, 2 Tim. ii. 2. I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 2 Tim. i. 6. Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Col. iii. 17. See also, Matt. xxviii. 19.

2. Take thou authority to read the Gospel in the Church of God, and to preach the same, if thou be thereto licensed by the Bishop himself.

2. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 2 Tim. ii. 15. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation. Rom. xii. 6, 7, 8. And they chose Stephen, and Philip, whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. Acts vi. 5, 6. Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. Acts viii. 5. See also, Mark xvi. 15.—Luke ix. 6.—1 Cor. ix. 17.—Isa. xxxiv. 16.

The Gospel. Luke xii. 35 to 38.—Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their Lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord, when he cometh, shall find watching. Verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

CCLVIII. A Prayer for God's special grace upon the Newly-ordained.

1. Almighty God, giver

1. I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and of all good things, who of thy great goodness hast vouchsafed to accept and take these thy servants unto the office of Deacons in thy church; Make them, we beseech thee, O Lord, to be modest, humble, and constant in their Ministration, to have a ready will to observe all spiritual Discipline;

be thou perfect. Gen. xvii. 1. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights. James i. 17. Thou openest thine hand and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. Psal. cxlv. 16. He hath filled the hungry with good things. Luke i. 53. Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way. Psal. xxv. 8. If ye being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? Matt. vii. 11. All of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility. 1 Pet. v. 5. I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think: but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. Rom. xii. 3. He that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Luke xviii. 14. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them: that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them; for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 14, 15, 16. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Tim. iv. 2. Unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; to the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. And this I do for the Gospel's sake. 1 Cor. ix. 20. 22, 23. Let all things be done decently and in order. The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. 1 Cor. xiv. 40. 32. Uphold me with thy free Spirit. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee. Psal. li. 12, 13.

a conscience void of offence toward God and toward men. Acts xxiv. 16. Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Cor. i. 12. Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 1 Tim. iii. 9. If our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 John iii. 20, 21. Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned. Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith, have made shipwreck. 1 Tim. i. 5. 19. Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly. Heb. xiii. 18. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong. Isa. xxxv. 4. Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Eph. vi. 10. It is a good thing that the heart be established with grace. Heb. xiii. 9. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phil. iv. 13. Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. Endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 2 Tim. ii. 1. 3. Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught. Col. ii. 7. The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered awhile, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pet. v. 10. Brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Phil. iv. 8. He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. Luke xvi. 10. These things write I unto thee, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God: for they that have used the office of a Deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. iii. 14, 15. 13. Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, stablish you in every good word and work. 2 Thess. ii. 16, 17. And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints. 1 Thess. iii. 12, 13.

THE ORDERING OF PRIESTS.

CCLIX. The Presentation of the Candidates for the Office of Priest to the Bishop, his answer, and address to the congregation. Nearly the same as CCLI.

1. Reverend Father in God, I present unto you these persons present, to be admitted to the Order of Priesthood.

2. Take heed that the persons, whom ye present unto us, be apt and meet, for their learning and godly conversation, to exercise their Ministry duly, to the honour of God, and the edifying of his Church,

3. I have enquired of them, and also examined them, and think them so to be.

4. Good people, these are they, whom we purpose, God willing, to receive this Day into the holy Office of Priesthood: for after due examination, we find not to the contrary, but that they be lawfully called to their Function and Ministry, and that they be persons meet for the same. But yet if there be any of you, who knoweth any Impediment, or notable Crime in any of them, for the which he ought not to be received into this holy Ministry, let him come forth in the Name of God, and shew what the Crime or Impediment is.

1, 2, 3, 4. Ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord. Isa. lxi. 6. Let thy Priests be clothed with righteousness. I will clothe her Priests with salvation. Psal. cxxxii. 8. 16. The Priest's lips should keep knowledge. Mal. ii. 7. See also the quotations under CCLI. and 1 Kings xii. 31.—xiii. 33, 34.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who, by thy Holy Spirit, hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in the Church; Mercifully behold these thy servants, now called to the Office of Priesthood; and replenish them so with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that both by word and good example they may faithfully serve thee in this Office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edification of thy Church, through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. Ephes. iv. 7 to15.—Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that he ascended, what is it, but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave some, Apostles; and some, Prophets; and some, Evangelists; and some, Pastors and Teachers; for the perfecting of the Saints, for the work of the Ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

After this shall be read, for the Gospel, part of the ninth Chapter of Saint Matthew as followeth.—Matt. ix. 36, 37, 38,—When Jesus saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few: Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

Or else this that followeth out of the tenth Chapter of Saint John.—John x. 1 to 16. —Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All, that ever came before me, are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come, that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good Shepherd: the good Shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep: The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good Shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring; and they shall hear my voice: and there shall be one fold, and one Shepherd.

1. You have heard, brethren, as well in your private examination, as in the exhortation which was now made to you, and in the holy Lessons taken out of the Gospel, and the writings of the Apostles, of what Dignity, and of how great Important this Office is, whereunto ye are called. And now again we exhort you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you have in remembrance, into how high a Dignity, and to how weighty an Office and Charge ye are called;

> 1. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. John xiii. 17. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Cor. iv. 1. All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Cor. v. 18, 19, 20. We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. 2 Cor. vi. 1. We are unto God a sweet Saviour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: to the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? 2 Cor. ii. 15, 16. Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Cor. iii. 5. We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Cor. iv. 7.

2. that is to say, To be Messengers, Watchmen and Stewards of the Lord;

2. Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. 2 Cor. viii. 23. Then spake Haggai the Lord's messenger in the Lord's message unto the people. Hag. i. 13. The priest's lips should keep knowledge: he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. ii. 7. Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, that confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers. Isa. xliv. 24. 26. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. Ezek. iii. 17. Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Tim. iv. 5. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Cor. iv. 1, 2. And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his Lord shall make ruler over his houshold, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Luke xii. 42. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth. 1 Pet. iv. 10, 11. See also, Heb. xiii. 17. —Ezek. xxxiv. 2.

3. to teach, and to premonish, to feed and provide for the Lord's Family:

3. And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ. Acts v. 42. These things teach and exhort. 1 Tim. vi. 2. The things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 2 Tim. ii. 2. And the Lord spake unto Aaron, saying, Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses. Lev. x. 8, 9. 11. Remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. Acts xx. 31. Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly. 1 Thess. v. 14. Hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin; his blood will I require at thine hand. Ezek. iii. 17 to 20. We beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you. 1 Thess. v. 12. These things speak, and exhort. Titus ii. 15. Take heed to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God. Acts xx. 28. I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. Jer. iii. 15. And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his houshold, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing Luke xii. 42, 43. Now ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the houshold of God. Eph. ii. 19. The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named. Eph. iii. 14. 15. See also, John x. 11 to 16 —xvii.—Gal. vi. 10.

4. to seek or Christ's heep, that re dispersed broad, and or his children who are n the midst of this naughty world, that hey may be saved through Christ for ever.

4. Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them. Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord; as I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock; therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: I will feed them with judgment. Ezek. xxxiv. 2. 4. 6 to 11. 15, 16. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Matt. x. 6. I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Matt. xv. 24. The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke xix. 10. Then said Jesus to them again, As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. John xx. 21. Ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. 1 Pet. ii. 25. He prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. John xi. 51. 55. Ye were all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. iii. 26. The whole world lieth in wickedness. 1 John v. 19. I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. John xvii. 15. Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. Rom. x. 1. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 1 Tim. i. 15. Being made perfect, he became the Author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. Heb. v. 9. Perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever. Philemon 15. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 16. For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Thess. v. 9. See also, Luke xv. 3 to 7. Psal. xxiii.

5. Have always therefore printed in your remembrance, how great a treasure is committed to your charge.

5. I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 2 Tim. i. 6. Remember how thou hast received and heard. Rev. iii. 3. Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel; if ye will obey my voice indeed, then ye or they are

shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people. Exod. xix. 3. 5. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels. Mal. iii. 17. Feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Acts xx. 28. Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation; but with the precious blood of Christ. 1 Pet. i. 18, 19. We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. Heb. x. 10. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins. Eph. i. 7. I am the good Shepherd: the good Shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good Shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. John x. 11. 10. 14, 15. See also, Eph. v. 2.—Isa. liii. 10, 11.—2 Pet. i. 12.—Acts xxvi. 16, 17, 18.

6. The Church and Congregation whom you must serve,
is his Spouse,
and his Body.

6. Ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord; men shall call you the Ministers of our God. Isa. lxi. 6. We preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. 2 Cor. iv. 5. Even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister. Matt. xx. 28. I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 2 Cor. xi. 2. The husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the body. Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the Church. Eph. v. 23. 25. 27. 30, 31, 32. He is the head of the body, the church. Col. i. 18. We being many are one body. 1 Cor. x. 17.

7. And if it shall happen, the same Church, or any member thereof, do take any hurt or hindrance, by reason of your negligence, ye know the greatness of the fault, and also the horrible punishment that will ensue.

7. But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. Luke xii. 45 to 48. And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it. And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the Lord of hosts. My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the Lord of hosts. Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law. Mal. ii. 1 to 9. My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the Lord: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered. Jer. x. 20, 21. O Son of Man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me. When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Ezek. xxxiii. 7, 8. Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds, Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. Ezek. xxxiv. 2. 10. Woe to the idol-shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened. Zech. xi. 17. Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord. Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Lord. Both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the Lord. Wherefore their ways shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the Lord. Jer. xxiii. 1, 2. 11, 12.

8. Where-fore consider

with yourselves the end of the ministry towards the children of God, towards the Spouse and Body of Christ; and see that you never cease your labour, your care and diligence, until you have done all that lieth in you, according to your bounden duty, to bring all such as are or shall be committed to your charge, unto that agreement in the faith and knowledge of God, and to that ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ, that there be no place left among you, either for error in Religion, or for viciousness in Life.

this, that they would consider their latter end! Deut. xxxii. 29. We are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God; who hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Cor. v. 20. 18. We are labourers together with God. 1 Cor. iii. 9. He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Eph. iv. 11, 12, 13. They watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. Heb. xiii. 17. The children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. iii. 26. I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 2 Cor. xi. 2. The Church which is his body. Eph. i. 22, 23. This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, that thou mightest war a good warfare; holding faith, and a good conscience. 1 Tim. i. 18, 19. Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 13 to 16. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves. 2 Tim. ii. 15. 25. Be instant in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. 2 Tim. iv. 2. Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. i. 29. Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. Col. iv. 12. We labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. 2 Cor. v. 9. 13. None of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God. Acts xx. 25. Be followers together of me. Phil. iii. 17. Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Tim. iv. 5. I know thy works, and thy labour, and how thou hast borne, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. Rev. ii. 2, 3. I am jealous over you with godly jealousy. 2 Cor. xi. 2. Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all. Eph. iv. 3 to 6. Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection. Heb. vi. 1. For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Eph. iii. 14. 16 to 19. Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine; but may grow up into him in all things, which is the head even Christ. Eph. iv. 13, 14, 15. Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. i. 28.

9. Forasmuch then as your Office is both of so great excellency, and of so great difficulty, ye see with how great care and study ye ought to apply yourselves, as well that ye may shew yourselves dutiful and thankful unto that Lord, who hath placed you in so high a Dignity; as also to beware, that neither you yourselves offend, nor be occasion that others offend.

9. I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine Office. Rom. xi. 13. We are ambassadors for Christ. 2 Cor. v. 20. We are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble, every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. 1 Cor. iii. 9 to 15. Therefore seeing we have this ministry, we faint not. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 2 Cor. iv. 1. 7 to 11. Thanks be unto God which alway causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: to the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? 2 Cor. i. 14, 15, 16. Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. iv. 17. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed. 2 Tim. ii. 15. I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Tim. i. 12. By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Cor. xv. 10. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. 1 Cor. ix. 26, 27. As we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. 1 Thess. ii. 4. Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord? Have we not power to eat and to drink? 1 Cor. ix. 1. 4. Take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died. Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. 1 Cor. viii. 9. 11. 13. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is made weak. Rom. xiv. 21. Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Thess. v. 22. See also, 2 Cor. xi. 22 to 31.

10. Howbeit, ye cannot have a mind and will thereto of yourselves; for that will and ability is given of God alone: therefore ye ought, and have need, to pray earnestly for his Holy Spirit.

10. Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament. 2 Cor. iii. 5, 6. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13. Without me ye can do nothing. John xv. 5. That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 1 Cor. i. 31. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. iv. 6. So neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 1 Cor. iii. 7. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: and He that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit. Rom. viii. 26, 27. Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified. 2 Thess. iii. 1. Pray without ceasing. 1 Thess. v. 17. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. John xvi. 23, 24. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him. Luke xi. 13. See also, 1 Pet. i. 12.

11. And seeing that you cannot by any other means compass the doing of so weighty a work, pertaining to the salvation of man, but with doctrine and exhortation taken out of the holy Scriptures, and with a life agreeable to the same; consider how studious ye ought to be in reading and learning the Scriptures, and in framing the manners both of yourselves, and of them that specially pertain unto you, according to the rule of the same Scrip-

11. Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? Luke vi. 39. Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? Matt. v. 13. Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 13. 16. Continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. iii. 14 to 17. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Isa. viii. 20. Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love,

which is in Christ Jesus. That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us. 2 Tim. i. 6. 13, 14. Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an housholder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old. Matt. xiii. 52. Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. Titus i. 9. Take heed unto thyself. 1 Tim. iv. 16. Keep thyself pure. 1 Tim. v. 22. Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace. The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves. 2 Tim. ii. 22. 24, 25. In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works. Titus ii. 7. Why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. Luke vi. 41, 42. Our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile. 1 Thess. ii. 3. A Bishop must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection, with all gravity. For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the Church of God? 1 Tim. iii. 2 to 5. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psal. cxix. 105. These words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. Deut. vi. 6, 7. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them. 1 Tim. iv. 15. Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world. 2 Tim. iv. 10. That which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. Luke viii. 14. They that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith. I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; that thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Tim. vi. 9 to 14. Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. Mark x. 28. Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him. After these things he went forth, and saw a Publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. And he left all, rose up, and followed him. Luke v. 10, 11. 27, 28. What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phil. iii. 7, 8. No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon. Matt. vi. 24. Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Tim. ii. 3, 4. 10.

12. We have good hope, that you have well weighed and pondered these things with yourselves long before this time; and that you have clearly determined, by God's grace, to give yourselves wholly to this Office, whereunto it hath pleased God to call you; so that, as much as lieth in you, you will apply yourselves wholly to this one thing, and draw all your cares and studies this way;

12. Which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he hath sufficient to finish it? Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath he cannot be my disciple. Luke xiv. 28. 31. 33. He found Elisha the son of Shaphat, and cast his mantle upon him. And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and ministered unto him. 1 Kings xix. 19, 20, 21. Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Acts xxi. 13. I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. 2 Cor. xii. 15. Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, but he shall receive an hundred fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. Mark x. 29, 30. Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? Luke ii. 49. Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. John iv. 34. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. John vi. 38. Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; who was faithful to him that appointed him. Heb. iii. 1, 2. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. 1 Tim. iv. 15.

pray to God the Father, by the mediation of our only Saviour Jesus Christ, for the heavenly assistance of the Holy Ghost; that by daily reading and weighing of the Scriptures, ye may wax riper and stronger in your Ministry; and that ye may so endeavour yourselves, from time to time, to sanctify the lives of you and yours, and to fashion them after the Rule and Doctrine of Christ, that ye may be wholesome and godly examples, and patterns for the people to follow.

And now that this present Congregation of Christ here assembled, may also understand your minds and wills in these things, and that this your promise may the more move you to do your duties, ye shall answer plainly to these things, which we, in the Name of God and of his Church, shall demand Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance Eph. vi. 18. Seek the Lord and his strength, seek his face continually. 1 Chron. xvi. 11. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. When the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. If ye abide in me and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. John xv. 16. 26. 7. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. John xvi. 23, 24. What is written in the law? how readest thou? Luke x. 26. Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. John v. 39. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so. Acts xvii. 11. A certain Jew named Apollos, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ. Acts xviii. 24. 28. Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. Acts ix. 22. Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. Luke xxiv. 25, 26, 27. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 1 Cor. ii. 13. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing

even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Heb. iv. 12. Blessed art thou, O Lord; teach me thy statutes. I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways. Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes. O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psal. cxix. 12. 15. 11. 48. 97. 105. Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy Spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. Psal. cxliii. 10. Every one that useth milk in unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. Heb. v. 13, 14. In nothing am I behind the very chiefest Apostles. 2 Cor. xii. 11. Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phil. iii. 13, 14. Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Cor. xi. 1. Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. Phil. iii. 17. Follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 1 Tim. vi. 11. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. Col. ii. 6, 7, 8. Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: but as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation. 1 Pet. i. 13, 14, 15. Feed the flock of God which is among you; being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pet. v. 2, 3. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Tim. iv. 12.

Let these also first be proved. 1 Tim. iii. 10. See also, Matt. iv. 1 to 11.—1 Pet. i. 13, 14, 15. —Psal. i. 1, 2.

CCLXII. The Solemn Questions to the Candidates for the Priesthood.

The Bishop.—1. Do you think in your heart, that you be truly called, according to the Will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Order of this Church of England, to the Order and Ministry of Priesthood?

Ans. I think it.

1. See Sections 3, 4, in CCLV.

The Bishop. 2. Are you persuaded that the holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all Doctrine required of necessity for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined, out of the said Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge, and to teach nothing, as required of necessity to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved

2. From a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. iii. 15, 16, 17. Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. John v. 39. Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Rom. xv. 4. These are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. John xx. 31. Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you. Deut. iv. 2. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. Prov. xxx. 6.

by the Scripture?
Ans. I am so persuaded, and have so determined, by God's grace.

I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: and if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. Rev. xxii. 18, 19. What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it. Deut. xii. 32. And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 1 Cor. ii. 1, 2. See also, Matt. v. 21, 22. 27, 28. 33, 34. 43, 44.

The Bishop.—3. Will you then give your faithful diligence, always so to minister the Doctrine and Sacraments, and the Discipline of Christ, as the Lord hath commanded, and as this Church and Realm hath received the same, according to the commandments of God; so that you may teach the people committed to your Cure and Charge, with all diligence to keep and observe the same?—Ans. I will do so, by the help of the Lord.

3. And Jehoshaphat charged them, [the Levites and the priests,] saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. 2 Chron. xix. 9. Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. iv. 17. In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works; in doctrine shewing uncorruptness. Titus ii. 7. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. Rom. xiii. 1. I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine. 1 Tim. i. 3. We have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent. 2 Cor. viii. 22. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation; he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Rom. xii. 6, 7, 8. Feed the flock of God, which is among you. 1 Pet. v. 2. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Matt. xxviii. 20. See also, Luke viii. 15.

The Bishop. 4. Will you be ready, with all faithful diligence to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's Word; and to use both public and private monitions and exhortations, as well to the sick as to the whole, within your Cures, as need shall require, and occasion shall be given?

Ans. I will, the Lord being my helper.

4. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits ye shall know them. Matt. vii. 15. 20. He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. John x. 1. I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your ownselves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Acts xx. 29, 30. And their word will eat as doth a canker. But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; and that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. 2 Tim. ii. 17. 23. 25, 26. There are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith. But speak thou the things that become sound doctrine. Titus i. 10, 11. 16. 13. ii. 1. A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject; knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself. Titus iii. 10, 11. For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. 1 Cor. xi. 19. The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter time some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving. But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. 1 Tim. iv. 1, 2, 3. 7. If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is proud, knowing nothing, but doating about questions and strifes of words; from such withdraw thyself. O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: which some professing have erred concerning the faith. 1 Tim. vi. 3, 4, 5. 20, 21. Evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived: of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 2 Tim. iii. 13. 6, 7. They that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Rom. xvi. 18. And of some have compassion, making a difference: and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Jude 22, 23. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Luke x. 16. Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the Church; and let them pray over him. James v. 14. Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. 1 Thess. v. 14.

5. Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit. Eph. vi. 18. We will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word. Acts vi. 4. God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the Gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers. Rom. i. 9. Epaphras, who is one of the same, laying aside the study of the world and the flesh!

Ans. I will endeavour myself so to do, the Lord being my helper.

you, a servant of Christ, labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. Col. iv. 12. Though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the Gospel! 1 Cor. ix. 16. Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 13 to 16. And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ and him crucified. 1 Cor. ii. 1, 2. What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phil. iii. 7, 8.

The Bishop.—6. Will you be diligent to frame and fashion your ownselves, and your families, according to the Doctrine of Christ: and to make both yourselves and them, as much as in you lieth, wholesome examples and patterns to the flock of Christ?

Ans. I will apply myself thereto, the Lord being my helper.

6. See Section 2, in CCLVI.

The Bishop. 7. Will you maintain and set forwards, as much as lieth in you, quietness, peace, and love, among all christian people, and especially among them that are, or shall be,

7. Follow peace with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Tim. ii. 22. Follow peace with all men. Heb. xii. 14. Do good; seek peace, and pursue it. Psal. xxxiv. 14. How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace. Rom. x. 15. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Matt. v. 9. Stand, having your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. Eph. vi. 14, 15. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Luke ii. 14. The ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 1 Pet. iii. 4. And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints. 1 Thess. iii. 12.

The Bishop.—8. Will you reverently obey your Ordinary, and other chief Ministers, unto whom is committed the charge and government over you; following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions, and submitting yourselves to their godly judgments?

Ans. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

8. See Section 3. in CCLVI.

The Bishop. 9. Almighty God, who hath given you this will to do all these things; Grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that he may accomplish his work, which he hath begun in you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

9. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13. Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Cor. iii. 5. Whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance. Matt. xiii. 12. Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phil. i. 6. 9, 10, 11. Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Matt. xxviii. 20. Brethren, pray for us. 1 Thess. v. 25.

2. Their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood. Exod. xl. 15. These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God. Rev. iii. 1. Grace be unto you, and peace, from Him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne. Rev. i. 4. And I beheld, and, lo, a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God. Rev. v. 6. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord; and shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord. Isa. xi. 2, 3.

3. Ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. The anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. 1 John ii. 20. 27. CCLXIV. An Hymn, called, Veni Creator. No. 2

1. Come, Holy Ghost, eternal God, Proceeding from above,
   Both from the Father and the Son,
   The God of peace and love.

2. Visit our minds, into our hearts
   Thy heavenly grace inspire;
   That truth and godliness we may Pursue with full desire.

3. Thou art the very Comforter
   In grief and all distress:
   The heavenly gift of God Most High:
   No tongue can it express.

4. The fountain and the living spring
   Of joy celestial;
   The fire so bright, the love so sweet,
   The Unction spiritual.

5. Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
   By them Christ's Church doth stand:
   In faithful hearts thou writ'st thy law
   The finger of God's hand.

6. According to thy promise, Lord,
   Thou givest speech with grace;
   That through thy help, God's praises m
   Resound in every place.

7. O Holy Ghost, into our minds
   Send down thy heavenly light;
   Kindle our hearts with fervent zeal,
   To serve God day and night.

8. Our weakness strengthen and confirm,
(For, Lord, thou know'st us frail)
That neither devil, world, nor flesh,
Against us may prevail.

9. Put back our enemies far from us,
And help us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
(The best, the truest gain;)

10. And grant that thou being, O Lord,
Our leader and our guide,
We may escape the snares of sin,
And never from thee slide.

That thou may'st be our Comforter
At the last dreadful day.

12. Of strife and of dissension,
Dissolve, O Lord, the bands,
And knit the knots of peace and love
Throughout all Christian lands.

Ever acknowledge Thee,
The Spirit of Father, and of Son,
One God in Persons Three.

And to his blessed Son,
And to the Holy Spirit of grace,

2. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim. iv. 1, 2, 3. 5. 7, 8. Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. Heb. xiii. 7. 17. Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. Ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the Word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost. 1 Cor. xi. 1. 1 Thess. i. 6. The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints. 1 Thess. iii. 12, 13. Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of his calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Thess. i. 11, 12. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Rev. ii. 10.

The Epistle.—1 Tim. iii. 1 to 6.—This is a true saying, If a man desire the Office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work. A Bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient; not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without: lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

Or this.—For the Epistle.—Acts xx. 17 to 35.—From Miletus Paul sent to Ephesus and called the elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations, which befel me by the lying in wait of the Jews: And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. And now behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befal me there; save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, That bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with Joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God. And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your ownselves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel: yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have showed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

The Gospel. John xxi. 15 to 17.—Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he saith unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he saith unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

Or else this. John xx. 19 to 23.—The same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. Then saith Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost. Whosesoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them: and whosesoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

Or this. Matt. xxviii. 18, 19, 20.—Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world.

Most Reverend Father in God, we present unto you this godly and well-learned man, to be Ordained and Consecrated Bishop.

CCLXX. The Oath of due obedience to the Archbishop.

In the name of God, Amen. I. N. chosen Bishop of the Church and See of N. do profess and promise all due reverence and obedience to the Archbishop, and to the metropolitical Church of N. and to their Successors: So help me God, through Jesus Christ.

Obey them that have the rule over you and submit yourselves. Heb. xiii. 17.

CCLXXI. An Invitation to the Congregation to unite in prayer for the Bishop-elect.

Brethren, it is written in the Gospel of Saint Luke, That our Saviour Christ continued the whole night in Prayer, before he did choose and send forth his twelve Apostles. It is written also in the Acts of the Apostles, That the Disciples who were at Antioch, did fast and pray, before they laid hands on Paul and Barnabas, and sent them forth. Let us therefore, following the example of our Saviour Christ and his Apostles, first fall to prayer before we admit, and send forth this person presented unto us, to the work whereunto we trust the Holy Ghost hath called him.

And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles. Luke vi. 12, 13. Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed. Acts xiii. 1 to 4. Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus. Heb. iii. 1. Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Cor. xi. 1.

CCLXXII. A Petition that the Bishop-elect may have grace duly to execute the Episcopal Office.

That it may please thee to bless this our Brother elected, and to send thy grace upon him, that he may duly execute the office whereunto he is called to the edifying of thy Church, and to the honour, praise, and glory of thy Name.

Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit. John xv. 16. He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists: and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. iv. 11, 12. The Church which is his body. Eph. i. 22, 23. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Pet. iv. 10, 11.

CCLXXIII. nearly the same as CCLIII.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who, by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold this thy servant now called to the Work and Ministry of a Bishop; and replenish him so with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn him with innocency of life, that both by word and deed he may faithfully serve thee in this Office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edifying and well governing of thy Church, through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

CCLXXIV. An Address, and Solemn Questions to the Bishop-elect.

The Archbishop.—1. Brother, forasmuch as the Holy Scripture and the ancient Canons command, that we should not be hasty in laying on Hands, and admitting any Person to Government in the Church of Christ, which he hath purchased with no less price than the effusion of his own blood; before I admit you to this Administration, I will examine you in certain Articles, to the end that the Congregation present may have a trial, and bear witness, how you be minded to behave yourself in the Church of God.

1. Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 1 Tim. v. 22. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Acts xx. 28. A Bishop must be blameless. Moreover he must have a good report among them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. 1 Tim. iii. 2. 7.

2. Are you persuaded that you be truly called to this Ministration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Order of this Realm?
Ans. I am so persuaded.

See Sections 1, 2. in CCLV.

The Archbishop.—3. Are you persuaded, that the holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all doctrine required of necessity to eternal salvation, through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge, and to teach or maintain nothing, as required of necessity to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?
Ans. I am so persuaded, and determined by God's grace.

3. The Holy Scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. iii. 15. A Bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God. Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. Titus i. 7. 9. Speak thou the things which become sound doctrine. Titus ii. 1.

See also, Sections 3, 4. in CCLV.

The Archbishop.—4. Will you then faithfully exercise yourself in the same holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer, for the true understanding of the same; so as ye may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome Doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gain-sayers?
Ans. I will so do, by the help of God.

4. Search the Scriptures. John v. 39. Open thou mine eyes, that I may see the wondrous things of thy law. Psal. cxix. 18. Son of Man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. Ezek. iii. 17. Refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. 1 Tim. iv. 7. In doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed. Titus ii. 7, 8. Reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Tim. iv. 2.

The Archbishop.—5. Are you ready, with all faithful diligence to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrine, contrary to God's Word, and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to the same?

Ans. I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

5. See Section 5. in CCLXII.

The Archbishop.—6. Will you carry all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; that you may shew yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?

Ans. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

6. The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Titus ii. 11, 12. If a man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work. A Bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (for if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the Church of God?) not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. 1 Tim. iii. 1 to 7. Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Tim. iv. 12. In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned ; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. Titus ii. 7, 8. Give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 1 Tim. v. 14. Having a good conscience ; that they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. 1 Pet. iii. 16, See also, Titus i. 6. 8.

The Archbishop.—7. Will you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace, among all men ; and such as be unquiet, disobedient, and criminous, within your Diocese, correct and punish, according to such authority as you have by God's Word, and as to you shall be committed by the Ordinance of this Realm ?

Ans. I will so do, by the help of the Lord.

7. Follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. And the servant of the Lord must not strive ; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves. Shun profane and vain babblings : for they will increase unto more ungodliness. 2 Tim. ii. 22 to 25. 16. Be instant in season, out of season ; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Tim. iv. 2. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others may fear. 1 Tim. v. 20. Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, for whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine ; according to the glorious Gospel of the blessed God. 1 Tim. i. 9, 10, 11. Rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith. Titus i. 13. I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. 2 Cor. xiii. 10. Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. 1 Tim. v. 19. The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, he that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God. And he shall be as the light of the morning when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds ; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain. 2 Sam. xxiii. 2, 3, 4. See also, Section 7. in CCLXII.

The Archbishop.—8. Will you be faithful in ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon others?

Ans. I will so be, by the help of God.

8. For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee. Titus i. 5. The things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 2 Tim. ii. 2. Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 1 Tim. v. 22. And when they [Paul and Barnabas] had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. Acts xiv. 23.

The Archbishop.—9. Will you shew yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake, to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

Ans. I will so shew myself, by God's help.

9. The servant of the Lord must be gentle unto all men. 2 Tim. ii. 24. Yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children. 1 Thess. ii. 1. 7. Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. i. 13. Follow charity. 2 Tim. ii. 22. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Luke vi. 36. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Matt. v. 7. Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. Matt. x. 42. Whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward. Mark ix. 41. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers. Heb. xiii. 2. Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 John iii. 17. He shall deliver the needy when he crieth, the poor also, and him that hath no helper. He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy. Psal. lxxii. 12, 13. The Lord your God is a God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, and a mighty, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward: he doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment. Love ye therefore the stranger. Deut. x. 17, 18, 19.

The Archbishop.—10. Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things: Grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and irreprehensible at the latter day, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

10. See Section 9, in CCLXII.

CCLXXV. A Prayer that the Bishop-elect may have grace to make known the glad tidings of Salvation; and duly to administer the discipline of the Church.

The Archbishop.—Lord, hear our prayers.—Ans. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.—1, 2. Almighty God, and most merciful Father, who of thine infinite goodness, hast given thine only and dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer, and the Author of everlasting life; who, after that he had made perfect our Redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven; poured down his gifts abundantly upon men, making some, Apostles, some, Prophets, some, Evangelists, some, Pastors and Doctors, to the edifying and making perfect his Church;

1, 2. See Sections 1, 2, in CCLXV.

3. Grant, we beseech thee, to this thy servant such grace, that he may be evermore ready to spread abroad thy Gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with thee; and use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help;

3. Every good gift and every perfect gift cometh down from the Father of lights. James i. 17. He giveth more grace. James iv. 6. A bishop must be apt to teach. 1 Tim. iii. 2. As much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. Rom. i. 15. 11. 13. We are come as far as unto you also in preaching the Gospel of Christ. 2 Cor. x. 14. How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! Rom. x. 15. All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and given to us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Cor. v. 18, 19, 20. Our authority which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction. 2 Cor. x. 8. Not that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy. 2 Cor. i. 24. In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; and that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. 2 Tim. ii. 25, 26.

4. so that as a wise and faithful servant, giving to thy Family their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

4. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord will make ruler over his houshold, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. Matt. xxiv. 45. Luke xii. 42, 43, 44. And his lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Matt. xxv. 21. I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Tim. i. 12. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim. iv. 8.

Receive the Holy Ghost, for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our Hands; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God which is given thee by this Imposition of our Hands: for God hath not given us the Spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost. John xx. 21, 22. Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Matt. xxviii. 20. When Paul laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them. Acts xix. 6. And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God. Acts xx. 17, 18. 28. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 1 Pet. iv. 10. I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. 2 Tim. i. 6, 7.

1. Give heed unto Reading, Exhortation, and Doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be made manifest unto all men. Take heed unto thyself, and to Doctrine, and be diligent in doing them: for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

1. Give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee. Meditate on these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Tim. iv. 13 to 16.

2. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts,

2. He that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. The wolf catcheth and scattereth the sheep. John x. 2. 12. Feed the church of God. I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Acts xx. 28, 29. The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for seek the lost. Be so merciful, that ye be not too remiss: so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy: that when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye may receive the never-fading crown of glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pet. v. 1, 2, 3. Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed; but ye feed not the flock. The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ruled them. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick. Ezek. xxxiv. 2, 3, 4. 11. 15. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. Luke iv. 18. The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke xix. 10. Comfort the feebleminded, support the weak. 1 Thess. v. 14. Heal the sick. Matt. x. 8. The Lord gathereth together the outcasts of Israel. Psal. cxlvii. 2. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Luke vi. 36. Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. Though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: that I may not seem to terrify you by letters. 2 Cor. x. 1, 2. 8, 9. I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. 1 Cor. v. 3, 4, 5. I wrote unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; but if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part. Sufficient to such a man is this punishment. To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also. 2 Cor. ii. 3. 5, 6. 10. When the Chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pet. v. 4.

CCLXXVIII. A Prayer for God's blessing upon the Newly-consecrated Bishop in the discharge of his high office.

Most merciful Father, we beseech thee to send down upon this thy servant thy heavenly blessing; and so endue him with thy Holy Spirit, that he, preaching thy Word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke, with all patience and doctrine; but also may be to such as believe a wholesome example, in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that, faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive

God be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us. Psal. lxvii. 1. God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies. 2 Cor. i. 3. Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. 2 Tim. i. 2. Grace be with thee. Amen. 1 Tim. vi. 21. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. 2 Tim. iv. 2. Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Tim. iv. 12. Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Tim. ii. 22. Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of [marginal reading, fulfil] thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim.

ceive the crown of righteousness laid up by the Lord the righteous Judge, who liveth and reigneth one God with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

iv. 5 to 8. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Rev. ii. 10. I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; that thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords: who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen. 1 Tim. vi. 13 to 16.

CCLXXX. A Thanksgiving.

1. Almighty God, who hast in all ages shewed thy Power and Mercy in the miraculous and gracious deliverances of thy Church, and in the protection of righteous and religious Kings and States professing thy holy and eternal truth, from the wicked conspiracies, and malicious practices of all the enemies thereof:

1. We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob. Thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us. Psal. xliv. 1. 4. 7. Thou art the Lord the God, who shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day. And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters. Neh. ix. 7. 10, 11. There arose up a new king over Egypt, and he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we: come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply.

Therefore they did set over them task-masters to afflict them. And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord. The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace. And the Lord looked unto the host of the Egyptians, and troubled the host of the Egyptians; and took off their chariot wheels. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh. Exod. i. 8 to 11.—xiv. 8. 13, 14. 24, 25. 28. When the Lord raised them up judges, then the Lord delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge. Judges ii. 18. It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people unto me. He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man. Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name. Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore. Psal. xviii. 47 to 50. David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness. 2 Sam. xv. 31. And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the Lord had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom. 2 Sam. xvii. 14. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. Job v. 13. O Lord our God, save thou us out of his [Sennacherib's] hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the Lord God, even thou only. Thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the Lord. For I will defend this city, to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the Lord went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand. 2 Kings xix. 19. 32 to 35. See also, The Book of ESTHER.—2 Sam. xv. xvi. xvii. xviii.

2. We yield thee our unfeigned thanks and praise, for the wonderful and mighty Deliverance of our gracious Sovereign King James the First, the Queen, the Prince, and all the Royal Branches, with the Nobility, Clergy, and Commons of England, then assembled in Parliament, by Popish treachery appointed as sheep to the slaughter, in a most barbarous and savage manner, beyond the examples of former ages.

2. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Chron. xxix. 13. Praise ye the Lord. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation. Psal. cxi. 1. Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people. Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Psal. lxxvii. 14, 15. Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Psal. xxxii. 7. Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore. Psal. xviii. 50. When it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him. Acts xxiii. 12 to 15. We are counted as sheep for the slaughter. Psal. xliv. 22. See also, Jer. xli. 1 to 7—Judges ix. 2. to 5.

3. From this unnatural Conspiracy, not our merit, but thy mercy; not our foresight, but thy providence

3. The conspiracy was strong. 2 Sam. xv. 12. If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us: then they had swallowed us up quick. Psal. cxxiv. 2, 3. Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people. Psal. lxxvii. 15. For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, delivered us: and therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name be ascribed all honour and glory, in all Churches of the saints, from generation to generation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another. Isa. xlviii. 11. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you, O house of Israel. Ezek. xxxvi. 32. I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen. Ezek. xx. 14. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake. Psal. cxv. 1. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power. Rev. iv. 11. In all churches of the saints. 1 Cor. xiv. 33. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. Psal. cxlv. 4. So we that are thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever: and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation. Psal. lxxix. 14.

CCLXXXI. A Prayer that a sense of God's goodness may lead us to use diligence and zeal in our duties.

1. Accept also, most gracious God, of our unfeigned thanks for filling our hearts again with joy and gladness, after the time that thou hadst afflicted us, and putting a new song into our mouths, by bringing his Majesty, King William, upon this day, for the Deliverance of our Church and Nation from Popish Tyranny and arbitrary power.

1. Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare. Psal. lxxv. 1. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. Isa. xxv. 9. The Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. Esth. viii. 17. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil. Psal. xc. 15. He hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God. Psal. xl. 3. All these men of war came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel. And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. Moreover they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly. 1 Chron. xii. 38, 39, 40. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion. For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee. Psal. cxlvii. 12, 13. I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you. Judges vi. 9. Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore. Psal. xviii. 50.

2. We adore the wisdom and justice of thy Providence, which so timely interposed in our extreme danger, and disappointed all the designs of our enemies.

2. Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty: just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Rev. xv. 3. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the Lord. Prov. xxi. 30. Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face. Psal. lxxxix. 14. Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped. Psal. cxxiv. 7. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. Job v. 12, 13. Truly there is but a step between me and death. And David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them. But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land. Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David. 1 Sam. xx. 3. — xxiii. 26, 27, 28. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters. Exod. xv. 9, 10.

3. We beseech thee, give us such a lively and lasting sense of what thou didst then, and hast since that time done for us, that we

3. Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. Psal. ciii. 1, 2. I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old. We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, may not grow secure and careless in our obedience, by presuming upon thy great and undeserved goodness; and his wonderful works that he hath done. That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments. Psal. lxxviii. 2. 4. 7. When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes which I command thee this day. Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein; and when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied; then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God. Deut. viii. 10 to 14. And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few. So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai. And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted. Joshua vii. 3, 4, 5. Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself. So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name. Psal. lxxx. 17, 18.

4. but that it may lead us to repentance, and move us to be the more diligent and zealous in all the duties of our Religion, which thou hast in a marvellous manner preserved to us.

4. Despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Rom. ii. 4. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies. I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight. Psal. cxix. 59, 60. 35. Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you. 1 Sam. xii. 24. Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned. 1 Tim. i. 5. Thine enemies said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession. Psal. lxxxiii. 2. 12. If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us: then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us: then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul. Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers. Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth. Psal. cxxiv. 2, 3, 4. 7, 8. See also, 2 Cor. vii. 11.

5. Let truth and justice, brotherly kindness and charity, devotion and piety, concord and unity, with all other virtues, so flourish among us, that they may be the stability of our times, and make this Church a praise in the earth. All which we humbly beg for the sake of our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

5. Buy the truth, and sell it not. Prov. xxiii. 23. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart. Prov. iii. 3. He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? Micah vi. 8. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. Deut. vi. 5. Be of the same mind one toward another. Rom. xii. 16. Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Eph. iv. 3. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Phil. iv. 8. The Lord commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day. Deut. vi. 24. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree. Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall

At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth. Zeph. iii. 20. CCLXXXII. A prayer for grace that we may adorn our Christian Profession.

1. Almighty God and heavenly Father, who of thy gracious Providence, and tender mercy towards us, didst prevent the malice and imaginations of our enemies, by discovering and confounding their horrible and wicked Enterprize, plotted and intended this day to have been executed against the King, and the whole State of England, for the subversion of the Government and Religion established among us; and didst likewise upon this day wonderfully conduct thy Servant King William, and bring him safely into England, to preserve us from the attempts of our enemies to bereave us of our Religion and Laws:

1. The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all. Psal. ciii. 19. The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men. Psal. xi. 4. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. Matt. x. 29, 30, 31. The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. James v. 11. As for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. Gen. l. 20. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Psal. ix. 15, 16. He made a pit, and digged

it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate. Psal. vii. 15, 16. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the Lord is my defence, and my God is the rock of my refuge. And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off. Psal. xciv. 20 to 23. Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. Ezra viii. 31. See also, Neh. vi. —Exod. iii, iv, v, vi, vii, viii, ix.—Psal. lix. 1 to 16.—cxviii.

2. We most humbly praise and magnify thy most glorious Name, for thy unspeakable goodness towards us, expressed in both these acts of thy mercy.

2. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Chron. xxix. 13. Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. Neh. ix. 5. Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth. Psal. cxxiv. 8. Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they should be more than I am able to express. Psal. xl. 5. 7. And Mordecai sent letters unto all the Jews, to stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, as the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. And the Jews undertook to do as Mordecai had written unto them; because Haman, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them: but when Esther came before the king, he commanded that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head. Esth. ix. 20 to 25.

3. We confess it has been of thy mercy alone, that we are not consumed. for our sins have cried to heaven against us; and our iniquities justly called for vengeance upon us.

3. It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. Lam. iii. 22. I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Mal. iii. 6. O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens. Ezra ix. 6. See also, Psal. lxxviii. 38, 39.—Neh. ix. 31.

4. But thou hast not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities; nor given us over, as we deserved, to be a prey to our enemies; but hast in mercy delivered us from their malice, and preserved us from death and destruction. Let the consideration of this thy repeated goodness, O Lord, work in us true repentance, that iniquity may not be our ruin.

4. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. Psal. ciii. 10. Thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this. Ezra ix. 13. Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth. Job xi. 6. Blessed be the Lord, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth. Psal. cxxiv. 6. Thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities; and hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my foot in a large room. Psal. xxxi. 7, 8. I called upon the Lord in distress: the Lord answered me, and set me in a large place. Psal. cxviii. 5. Thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. Psal. cxvi. 8, 9. Despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Rom. ii. 4. Repent and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. Ezek. xviii. 30.

5. And in-rease in us nore and nore a lively aith and ove, fruit-ul in all oly obedi-ence; that hou mayest still continue hy favour, with the light of thy Gospel, to us and our posterity for evermore; and that for thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

5. And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. Luke xvii. 5. We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth. 2 Thess. i. 3. The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men. 1 Thess. iii. 12. Keep yourselves in the love of God, Jude 21. This is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. 1 John v. 3. Being fruitful in every good work. Col. i. 10. We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, for the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the Gospel; which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth. Col. i. 3 to 6. Behold, I set before you a blessing; —a blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God. Deut. xi. 26, 27. Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for ever. Deut. iv. 40. O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. Psal. xxxvi. 10. The promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Acts ii. 39. No man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. John xiv. 6. 14. There is one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5.

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 John ii. 1.

1. O Lord, who didst this day discover the snares of death that were laid for us, and didst wonderfully deliver us from the same; Be thou still our mighty Protector, and scatter our enemies that delight in blood: Infatuate and defeat their counsels, abate their pride, assuage their malice, and confound their devices.

1. And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down. And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice. 2 Kings vi. 9, 10. Thou hast delivered my soul from death. Psal. cxvi. 8. Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy. Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity: who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows, that they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not. They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them? The inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep. But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. Psal. lxiv. 1 to 7. 9. Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust. Psal. xvi. 1. Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war. Psal. lxviii. 30. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness. 2 Sam. xv. 31. And the afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down. 2 Sam. xxii. 28. He shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands. Isa. xxv. 11. Break thou the power of the ungodly and malicious. Psal. x. 17. Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion. Psal. cxxix. 5. The Lord bringeth

the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect. Psal. xxxiii. 10. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprize. Job v. 12.

2. Strengthen the hands of our gracious Sovereign, Queen Victoria, and all that are put in authority under her, with judgment and justice to cut off all such workers of iniquity, as turn Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction;

2. The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee. Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion. Psal. xx. 1, 2. Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. Psal. lxxii. 1. 4. Charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him. Deut. iii. 28. Thus saith the Lord, Keep ye judgment, and do justice. Isa. lvi. 1. Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the Lord thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice. 2 Chron. ix. 8. He is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Rom. xiii. 4. Evil doers shall be cut off. Psal. xxxvii. 9. He shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off. Psal. xciv. 23. For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. Psal. xcii. 9. I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the Lord. Psal. ci. 8. I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not. Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. 3 John 9, 10. There be some that trouble you, and would pervert the Gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. i. 7, 8. And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the Lord, in Hebron. For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lord shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord. But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron. 2 Sam. xv. 7, 8. 10. Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men: and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown; and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the Lord? And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face: and he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to-morrow the Lord will shew who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him. This do; Take you censers, Korah, and all his company; and put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lord to-morrow: and it shall be that the man whom the Lord doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi. And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi: seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also? For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the Lord: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him? And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up: is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us? Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up. And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the Lord, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them. And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the Lord, thou, and they, and Aaron, to-morrow: and take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the Lord every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer. And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron. And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the congregation. And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him. And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of their's, lest ye be consumed in all their sins. So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children. And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind. If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the Lord hath not sent me. But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord. And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them. And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also. And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. Num. xvi. 1 to 35.

3. that they may never prevail against us, or triumph in the ruin of thy Church among us:

3. Arise, O Lord; let not man prevail. Psal. ix. 19. They have said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession. O my God, fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O Lord. Psal. lxxxiii. 4. 12, 13. 16. Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up. Psal. xxxv. 25.

4. but that our gracious Sovereign,

4. Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong and her Realms, being preserved in thy true Religion, and by thy merciful goodness protected in the same, we may all duly serve thee, and give thee thanks in thy holy congregation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

for thyself. So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name. Psal. lxxx. 17, 18. Know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind. 1 Chron. xxviii. 9. O continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. Psal. xxxvi. 10. So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise to all generations. Psal. lxxix. 13. We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners. Psal. xx. 5. The king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice! Psal. xxi. 1. I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people. Psal. xxxv. 18. So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God. And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord. And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the Lord, and to record, and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel. 1 Chron. xvi. 1, 2. 4. And the Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim; but sought to the Lord God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. Therefore the Lord stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance. And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord. 2 Chron. xvii. 3 to 6.—See also, particularly, 2 Chron. xxix. xxx.

CCLXXXIV. A Prayer for the Queen, and the Royal family.

1. Eternal God, and our most mighty

1. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Deut. xxxiii. 27.

Protector, we thy unworthy servants do humbly present ourselves before thy Majesty, acknowledging thy power, wisdom, and goodness, in preserving the King, and the Three Estates of the Realm of England assembled in Parliament, from the Destruction this day intended against them.

The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; the God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my Saviour; thou savest me from violence. I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies. 2 Sam. xxii. 2, 3, 4. Thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy. Psal. lxi. 3. O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? Psal. lxxxix. 8. Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes. Gen. xviii. 27. I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant. Gen. xxxii. 10. Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Chron. xxix. 11. 13. O how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee! Psal. xxxi. 19. The king trusteth in the Lord, and through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved. For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head. Psal. xxi. 7. 3. The Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians. Exod. xiv. 30. Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee. For they intended evil against thee: and imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform. Psal. xxi. 8. 11. Our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. Neh. iv. 11.

2. Make us, we beseech thee, truly thankful for this, and for all other thy great mercies towards us; particularly for making this day again memorable, by a fresh instance of thy loving-kindness towards us. We bless thee for giving his late Majesty King William, a safe arrival here, and for making all opposition fall before him, till he became our King and Governor.

2. Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works. Glory ye in his holy name:

let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord. 1 Chron. xvi. 8, 9, 10. O that men would praise the Lord for his goodness; and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men! Psal. cvii. 8. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart. Psal. cxi. 1. In the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. Many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies. Neh. ix. 27, 28. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. Psal. cxi. 4. Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed. Psal. xviii. 50. See also, Esth. ix. 20, 21, 22.—1 Chron. xi. 1, 2, 3.

3. We beseech thee to protect and defend our Sovereign Queen Victoria, and all the Royal Family, from all Treasons and Conspiracies;

3. God save the king. 1 Sam. x. 24. Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time. And David said unto Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless? 1 Sam. xxvi. 8, 9. And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle. And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son. 2 Sam. xviii. 11, 12. Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me. Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people. Psal. xviii. 39, 40. 43. Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them. Psal. xvii. 7. The king trusteth in the Lord, and through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved. Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee. Psal. xxi. 7, 8. See also, 2 Kings xi. 2.—Psal. xci. 3, 4.—Jer. xxxix. 18.

4. Preserve her in thy Faith, Fear and Love; Prosper her Reign with long happiness here on earth; and crown her with everlasting glory hereafter; through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

4. Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son. Psal. lxxii. 1. He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God. 2 Sam. xxiii. 3. Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name. Psal. lxxxvi. 11. Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not. Psal. xvii. 5. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind. 1 Chron. xxviii. 9. O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes. 1 Chron. xxix. 18, 19. As the Lord hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David. 1 Kings i. 37. Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice. Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel. Psal. xx. 3, 4. Jehoshaphat sought to the Lord God of his father, and walked in his commandments. And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord. 2 Chron. xvii. 1. 4. 6. Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that David his father did. He trusted in the Lord God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him. For he clave to the Lord, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the Lord commanded Moses. 2 Kings xviii. 1. 3. 5, 6. Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire. 2 Sam. xxiii. 5. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim. iv. 8. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Rev. i. 5, 6.

The Epistle. Rom. xiii. 1 to 8.—Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God; the powers that be, are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the Ordinance of God, and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath but also for Conscience sake. For, for this cause pay you tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

The Gospel. St. Luke ix. 51 to 57.—And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face: and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

1. O God, whose name is excellent in all the earth, and thy glory above the heavens; who on this day didst miraculously preserve our Church and State from the secret contrivance and hellish malice of Popish Conspirators; and on this day also didst begin to give us a mighty deliverance from the open tyranny and oppression of the same cruel

1. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy Name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. Psal. viii. 1. The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high? Psal. cxiii. 4, 5. But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, and conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. And our adversaries said, They shall not know, nor see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. Neh. iv. 7, 8, 9. 11. The wall was finished in the twenty fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. Neh. vi. 15, 16. Certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy. And he [the chief captain] wrote a letter after this manner: Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting. This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him. Acts xxiii. 12, 13. 25, 26, 27. I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments: and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. Exod. vi. 5, 6, 7.

2. We bless and adore thy glorious Majesty, as for the former, so for this thy late marvellous lovingkindness to our Church and Nation, in the preservation of our Religion and Liberties.

2. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious Name. 1 Chron. xxix. 13. We will bless the Lord from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the Lord. Psal. cxv. 18. Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits. Psal. ciii. 1, 2. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory: Amen, and Amen. Psal. lxxii. 18, 19. Blessed be the Lord: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city. Psal. xxxi. 21. We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple. God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. Psal xlviii. 9. 3, 4, 5. The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob. Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Psal. lxxxvii. 2, 3. He is the tower of salvation for his king: and sheweth mercy to his anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore. 2 Sam. xxii. 51. He had peace on all sides round about him. And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree. 1 Kings vi. 24, 25. Blessed be the Lord, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth. Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped. Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth. Psal. cxxiv. 6, 7, 8. And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, to stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, as the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed. Esth. ix. 20, 21, 22. 27, 28.

3. And we humbly pray, that the devout sense of

3. O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name. Neh. i. 11. Many a time have this thy repeated mercy may renew and increase in us a spirit of love and thankfulness to thee its only Author; a spirit of peaceable submission and obedience to our gracious Sovereign Lady, Queen Victoria; and a spirit of fervent zeal for our holy religion, which thou hast so wonderfully rescued, and established, a blessing to us and our posterity. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me. Psal. cxxix. 2. He saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. CCLXXXVI. A deprecation of God's righteous Judgments.

1. O most mighty God, terrible in thy judgments, and wonderful in thy doings toward the children of men;

1. The Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward. Deut. x. 17. Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee. Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men. Psal. lxvi. 3. 5. By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea. Psal. lxv. 5. Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Rom. xi. 33.

2. Who in thy heavy displeasure didst suffer the life of our gracious Sovereign King Charles the First, to be (as this day) taken away by the hands of cruel and bloody men:

2. O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again. Psal. lx. 1. Put me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger: neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure. Psal. xxxviii. 1. The breath of our nostrils, the Anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits. Lam. iv. 20. When they saw him afar off, they conspired against him to slay him. Gen. xxxvii. 18. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths. The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace. Isa. lix. 7, 8. The Lord will abhor the bloody and deceitful man. Psal. v. 6. Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. Psal. lxxi. 4. See also, Psal. lxi. 2, 3, 4. 6, 7.

3 We thy sinful creatures here assembled before thee, do, in the behalf of all the people of this land, humbly confess, that they were the crying sins of this Nation, which brought down this heavy judgment upon us.

3. Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the Lord, and fasted that day until even. Judges xx. 26. O Lord, we have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments; neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us; for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth. Dan. ix. 4, 5. 10, 11. 14. Righteous art thou, O Lord, and upright are thy judgments. Psal. cxix. 137. Thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly: neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. For they have not served thee in their kingdom; neither turned they from their wicked works. Neh. ix. 33, 34, 35. Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. Ezra ix. 7.

4. But, O gracious God, when thou makest inquisition for blood, lay not the guilt of this innocent

CCLXXXVII. A Prayer for Grace to follow good examples.

1. Blessed Lord, in whose sight the death of thy saints is precious; We magnify thy Name for thine abundant grace bestowed upon our martyred Sovereign; by which he was enabled so cheerfully to follow the steps of his blessed Master and Saviour, in a constant meek suffering of all barbarous indignities, and at last resisting unto blood; and even then, according to the same pattern, praying for his murderers.

The Epistle. 1 Pet. ii. 13 to 23.—Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the King, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing, ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps; who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth.

The Gospel. Matt. xxi. 33 to 42.—There was a certain householder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

CCLXXXVIII. A Prayer that the Queen may reign long and happily.

1. O Lord, our heavenly Father, who didst not punish us as our sins have deserved, but hast in the midst of judgment remembered mercy; We acknowledge it thine especial favour, that, though for our many and great provocations, thou didst suffer thine anointed blessed King Charles the First (as on this day) to fall into the hands of violent and bloodthirsty men, and barbarously to be murdered by them,

O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy. Hab. iii. 2. They got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them. Psal. xliv. 3. But Jehosheba the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bed-chamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord six years. 2 Kings xi. 2, 3. 3. And didst bring him back in thy good appointed time, to sit upon the throne of his Father; and together with the Royal Family didst restore to us our ancient Government in Church and State.

3. And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the Lord, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the Lord, and shewed them the king's son. And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king. And Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people, that they should be the Lord's people; between the king also and the people. And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the Lord. And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the Lord, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the

5. and to grant to our gracious Sovereign Queen Victoria, a long and a happy Reign over us: So

5. Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy. I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust we that are thy people will give thee thanks for ever, and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation; through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

in the covert of thy wings. For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name. Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations. He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him: So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows. Psal. lxi. The king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice! For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head. He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever. Psal. xxi. 1. 3, 4. King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the Lord for ever. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon. 1 Kings ii. 45, 46. Thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, Lord, art become their God. And now, O Lord God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said. And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee. 2 Sam. vii. 24, 25, 26. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. Psal. cxlv. 4 to 7. So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise to all generations. Psal. lxxix. 13.

And grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, &c. as LXXXIII.

CCLXXXIX. A Prayer that the guilt of innocent blood may be averted from the Land.

1. O Almighty Lord God, who by thy wisdom not only guidest and orderest all things most suitably to thine own justice; but also performest thy pleasure in such a manner, that we cannot but acknowledge thee to be righteous in all thy ways, and holy in all thy works:

1. Lord God Almighty. Rev. iv. 8. Behold, God is mighty; he is mighty in strength and wisdom. Job xxxvi. 5. He is wise in heart. Job ix. 4. For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth. They continue this day according to thine ordinances; for all things serve thee. Psal. cxix. 89, 90, 91. Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne. Psal. lxxxix. 14. Righteous art thou, O Lord, and upright are thy judgments. Psal. cxix. 137. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? Gen. xviii. 25. Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places. Psal. cxxxv. 6. The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not. Zeph. iii. 5. The Lord's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name. Mic. vi. 9. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. Psal. cxlv. 17.

2. We thy sinful people do here fall down before thee, confessing that thy judgments were right, in permitting cruel men, sons of Belial, (as on this day) to imbrue their hands in the blood of thine Anointed; we having drawn down the same upon ourselves, by the great and long provocations of our sins against thee.

2. We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. Psal. cvi. 6. I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness has afflicted me. Psal. cxix. 75. Thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly. Neh. ix. 33. He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he. Deut. xxxii. 4. The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned! for this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim. Lam. v. 16, 17. Because they have shed innocent blood in their land. Joel iii. 19. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all

Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. Dan. ix. 7, 8.

3. For which we do therefore here humble ourselves before thee; beseeching thee to deliver this Nation from blood-guiltiness, (that of this day especially,) and to turn from us and our posterity, all those judgments, which we by our sins have worthily deserved: Grant this, for the all-sufficient merits of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

3. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. 1 Pet. v. 6. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. James iv. 10. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation. Psal. li. 14. When David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the Lord for ever from the blood of Abner, the son of Ner: let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house. 2 Sam. iii. 28, 29. I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. Exod. xx. 5. I pray before thee now and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned. We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst. Neh. i. 6, 7. Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good. Psal. cxix. 39. We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee. Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us. Jer. xiv. 20, 21. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake. Psal. lxxix. 9. Hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive thy people that have sinned against thee. 1 Kings viii. 49, 50. Thus saith the Lord; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. Jer. xxxii. 42. The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Rev. i. 5, 6.

1. Blessed God, just and powerful, who didst permit thy dear Servant, our dread Sovereign King Charles the First, to be (as upon this day) given up to the violent outrages of wicked men, to be despitefully used, and at the last murdered by them:

1. There is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me. Isa. xlv. 21. God hath spoken once, yea, twice have I heard this, that power belongeth unto God. Psal. lxii. 11. Shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it? Amos iii. 6. Behold, O Lord, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Lam. ii. 20. O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them. Psal. lxxxvi. 14. The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits. Lam. vi. 20. Fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life. Psal. xxxi. 13.

2. Though we cannot reflect upon so foul an act, but with horror and astonishment; yet do we most gratefully commemorate the glories of thy grace, which then shined forth in thine Anointed; whom thou wast pleased, even at the hour of death, to endue with an eminent measure of exemplary patience, meekness,

2. Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law. My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments. I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved. Psal. cxix. 53. 120. 158. Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment. Psal. lx. 3. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Psal. xlvi. 1. I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy; for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities. Psal. xxxi. 7. He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness, 2 Cor. xii. 9. The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me. Psal. cxvi. 6. Strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience. Col. i. 11. The fruit of the Spirit is meekness. Gal. v. 22, 23. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. Acts vii. 59, 60. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Matt. v. 11. 44. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Psal. xxiii. 4, 5.

3. And albeit thou didst suffer them to proceed to such an height of violence, as to kill him, and to take possession of his Throne; yet didst thou in great mercy preserve his Son, whose right it was, and at length by a wonderful providence bring him back, and set him thereon, to restore thy true Religion, and to settle peace amongst us: For these thy great mercies we glorify thy Name, through Jesus Christ our blessed Saviour. Amen.

3. Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? 1 Kings xxi. 19. He that sitteth in the heaven shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Psal. ii. 4. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect. Psal. xxxiii. 10. When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah. But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bed-chamber. And he was with them hid in the house of God six years. 2 Chron. xxii. 10, 11, 12. And I will bring the blind by a way that they know not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. Isa. xlii. 16. Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king. And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the Lord's people. Then all the people went to the house of Baal and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. Also Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the Lord by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the Lord to offer the burnt offerings of the Lord, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained by David. And they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet. 2 Chron. xxiii. 11. 16, 17, 18. 20, 21. And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon. 1 Kings iv. 25. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee. Psal. cxxii. 7, 8. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name. Psal. xxix. 2. His mercies are great. 2 Sam. xxiv. 14. I will glorify thy name for evermore. Psal. lxxxvi. 12. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. v. 20.

1. Almighty and everlasting God, whose righteousness is like the strong mountains, and thy judgments like the great deep; and who, by that barbarous murder as on this day) committed upon the sacred Person of thine

1. The Lord reigneth: clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne. Psal. xcvii. 1, 2. Thy righteousness standeth like the strong mountains: thy judgments are like the great deep. Psal. xxxvi. 6. Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed; and I will smite the king only. 2 Sam. xvii. 1, 2. They said one to another, Behold this dreamer cometh. Come now, therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him. Gen. xxxvii. 19, 20. And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. 2 Chron. xxxv. 23. Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. They assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Dan. vi. 5. 11, 12. 16. Others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented: (of whom the world was not worthy;) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. Heb. xi. 36, 37, 38.

2. Teach us also hereby so to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. And grant, that neither the splendour of any thing that is great, nor the conceit of any thing that is good in us, may withdraw our eyes from looking upon ourselves as sinful dust and ashes;

2. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. Psal. xc. 12. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might. Eccl. ix. 10. O that men were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! Deut. xxxii. 29. Mind not high things. Rom. xii. 16. In my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved. Lord, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled. Psal. xxx. 6, 7. The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty? While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. Dan. iv. 30, 31, 32. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, or even as this publican.—The ruler said, All these have I kept from my youth up. Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Luke xviii. 11. 21, 22. Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 1 Cor. x. 12. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil. Prov. iii. 7. I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing. Rom. vii. 18. Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Gen. iii. 19. And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes. Gen. xviii. 27.

3. but that, according to the example of this thy blessed Martyr, we may press forward to the prize of the high calling that is before us, in faith and patience, humility and meekness, mortification and self-denial, charity and constant perseverance unto the end: And all this for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ his sake, to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

3. Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Heb. vi. 12. I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phil. iii. 14. The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy. Acts xx. 23, 24. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. Col. iii. 12, 13. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. Matt. xvi. 24. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. v. 24. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth. Col. iii. 5. Beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 2 Pet. i. 5, 6, 7. Be not weary in well doing. 2 Thess. iii. 13. Watching thereunto with all perseverance. Eph. vi. 18. He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Matt. xxiv. 13. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. Heb. iii. 14. I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me. The grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Tim. i. 12. 14. 17.

1. O Almighty God, who art a strong tower of defence unto thy servants against the face of their enemies; We yield thee praise and thanksgiving for the wonderful deliverance of these kingdoms from THE GREAT REBELLION, and all the miseries and oppressions consequent thereupon, under which they had so long groaned.

1. And David spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: and he said, The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; the God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge. Thou hast girded me with strength to battle: them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me. The Lord liveth; and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation. Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name. 2 Sam. xxii. 1, 2, 3. 40. 47. 50. It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people unto me. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people. Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to

David, and to his seed for evermore. Psal. xviii. 47. 43. 48. 50. For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried. And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries. And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity. 2 Chron. xv. 5, 6. God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant. Exod. ii. 24. They that are delivered from the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the Lord, even the righteous acts towards the inhabitants of his villages in Israel. Judges v. 11.

2. We acknowledge it thy goodness, that we were not utterly delivered over as a prey unto them; beseeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. Blessed be the Lord, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth. Psal. cxxiv. 6. The Lord was my stay. He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me. He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of many waters; he delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me. 2 Sam. xxii. 19, 20. 17, 18. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake. Psal. cxv. 1. Continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. Psal. xxxvi. 10. Help me, O Lord my God: O save me according to thy mercy; that they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, Lord, hast done it. Psal. cix. 26, 27. That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth. Psal. lxxxiii. 18. That all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. 1 Sam. xvii. 46. O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory. The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Psal. xcviii. 1, 2, 3. Thou art my help and my deliverer. Psal. lxx. 5. O the hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble! Jer. xiv. 8. CCXCIV. A Promise of obedience to God and the Queen.

1. O Lord God of our salvation, who hast been exceedingly gracious unto this land, and by thy miraculous providence didst deliver us out of our miserable confusions; by restoring to us, and to his own just and undoubted Rights, our then most gracious Soreign Lord, King Charles the Second, notwithstanding all the power and malice of his enemies;

1. O God of our salvation, who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea. Psal. lxv. 5. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land, thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thyself from thy wrathful indignation. Psal. lxxxv. 1. 3. Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in. 2 Chron. xv. 3. 5. And Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and shewed them the king's son. And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king. 2 Kings xi. 4. 12. It is God that avengeth me, and that bringeth down the people under me, and that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me. 2 Sam. xxii. 48, 49. They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. Psal. xx. 8.

doms, didst restore also unto us the public and free profession of thy true Religion and Worship, together with our former Peace and Prosperity, to the great comfort and joy of our hearts:

12. The Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. Daniel iv. 25. And Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people, that they should be the Lord's people; between the king also and the people. And he took the rulers over hundreds; and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the Lord; and he sat on the throne of the kings. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet. 2 Kings xi. 17. 19, 20. And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; that whosoever would not seek the Lord God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: and the Lord gave them rest round about. 2 Chron. xv. 12, 13. 15.

3. We are here now before thee, with all due thankfulness, to acknowledge thine unspeakable goodness herein, as upon this day shewed unto us, and to offer unto thee our sacrifice of praise for the same;

3. Now therefore are we all here present before God. Acts x. 33. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Chron. xxxix. 13. And Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. Neh. viii. 6. David blessed the Lord before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our Father, for ever and ever. And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the Lord your God. And all the congregation blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the Lord. 1 Chron. xxix. 10. 20. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. Psal. cvii. 21, 22. I will offer unto thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Psal. cxvi. 17. At that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, before the Lord our God. On the eighth day the people went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people. 1 Kings viii. 65, 66.

4. humbly beseeching thee to accept this our unfeigned, though unworthy oblation of ourselves; vowing all holy obedience in thought, word, and work, unto thy Divine Majesty; and promising all loyal and dutiful Allegiance to thine Anointed Servant now set over us, and to her Heirs after her;

4. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Rom. xii. 1. Bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Cor. x. 5. Accept, I beseech thee, the free-will offerings of my mouth, O Lord. Psal. cxix. 108. All the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said, will we do. And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient. Exod. xxiv. 3. 7. In mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel serve me: there will I accept them. I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered. Ezek. xx. 40, 41. Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the Lord's people. 2 Chron. xxiii. 16. And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the people, great and small: and the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant. And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 2 Chron. xxxiv. 30, 31, 32. So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anointed David king over Israel. 2 Sam. v. 3. See also, 1 Kings i. 32 to 39.

CCXCV. A Thanksgiving and Ascription of Praise to God.

1. Almighty God, who hast in all ages shewed forth thy power and mercy in the miraculous and gracious deliverances of thy Church, and in the protection of righteous and religious Kings and States, professing thy holy and eternal truth, from the malicious Conspiracies and wicked Practices of all their enemies ;

1. Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Psal. xc. 1. He ruleth by his power for ever. Psal. lxvi. 7. His mercy is everlasting. Psal. c. 5. He will ever be mindful of his covenant. Psal. cxi. 5. This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness. Acts vii. 38. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them ; there remained not so much as one of them. Thus the Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians ; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. Exod. xiv. 28. 30. The Lord our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed. Joshua xxiv. 17 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth may Israel now say : many a time have they afflicted me from my youth : yet they have not prevailed against me. Psal. cxxix. 1, 2. The Lord preserved David whithersoever he went. 2 Sam

viii. 6. Thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it. For I will defend this city, to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. 2 Kings xix. 32. 34. Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us. Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. Ezra viii. 21, 22, 23. 31. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance. Psal. xxxiii. 12. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David. That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us. Luke i. 68, 69. 71.

2. We yield unto thee our unfeigned thanks and praise, as for thy many other great and public mercies, so especially for that signal and wonderful Deliverance, by thy wise and good Providence as upon this Day completed, and vouchsafed

2. O give thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him; talk ye of all his wondrous works. Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord. Psal. cv. 1, 2, 3. And Israel saw that great work which the Lord did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his servant Moses. Exod. xiv. 31. The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance. Psal. cxi. 4. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good. O give thanks unto the God of gods; to him who

to our then most gracious Sovereign King Charles the Second, and all the Royal Family, and in them, to this whole Church and State, and all orders and degrees of men in both, from the unnatural Rebellion, Usurpation, and Tyranny of ungodly and cruel men, and from the sad confusions and ruin thereupon ensuing.

alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever. Psal. cxxxvi. 1, 2. 4. And David perceived that the Lord had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake. 2 Sam. v. 12. And David spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised. He delivered me from my strong enemy and from them that hated me, for they were too strong for me. Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies. Thou also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people. Thou hast delivered me from the violent man. 2 Sam. xxii. 1. 4. 18. 41. 44. 49. Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to David and to his seed for evermore. Psal. xviii. 50.

3. From all these, O gracious and merciful Lord God, not our merit, but thy mercy: not our foresight, but thy Providence; not our own arm, but thy right hand, and thine arm, did rescue and deliver us.

3. They got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them. Thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us. In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Psal. xliv. 3. 7, 8. It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. Lam. iii. 22. Asa cried unto the Lord his God and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. 2 Chron. xiv. 11. See also, Esth. viii. 7, 8. 10, 11. 16.—ix. 21, 22.

4. And therefore, not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name be ascribed all Honour, and Glory, and Praise, with most humble and hearty thanks, in all

4. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake. Psal. cxv. 1. Thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, for ever. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen. Eph. iii. 20, 21. In his temple doth every one speak of his glory. Psal. xxix. 9. Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Israel; which only doeth wondrous things; and blessed be the name of his Majesty for ever: and all the earth shall be filled with his Majesty. Amen, Amen. Psal. lxxii. 18, 19.

The Epistle. 1 Pet. ii. 11.—Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may, by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the King, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King.

The Gospel. Matt. xxii. 16.—And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he saith unto them, whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar, the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God, the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

And they [Korah, Dathan, and Abiram] gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy. And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind. If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the Lord hath not sent me. But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord. —And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. And Aaron stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil. Psal. xcii. 9, 10. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee. 2 Chron. xiv. 11. And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the Lord, in Hebron. For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lord shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord. But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron. 2 Sam. xv. 7, 8. 10. And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king Adonijah. But me, even me thy servant and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. Is this thing done by my lord the king? Then king David answered and said, Call me Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence and stood before the king. And the king sware, and said, As the Lord liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress, even as I sware unto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day. Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king. And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon: and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon. So king Solomon sent, and they brought Adonijah down from the altar. And Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house. 1 Kings i. 24 to 34. 39. 53. See also, 1 Kings ii. 26 to 46.

Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul; let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt. Psal. lxx. 2. His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish. Psal. cxxxii. 18. And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom. I will be his Father, and he shall be my son. Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever. 1 Chron. xvii. 11. 13. 27.

6. So we thy people, and the sheep of thy pasture, will give thee thanks for ever, and will always be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation; through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer, to whom with thee O Father, and the Holy Ghost, be glory in the Church throughout all ages, world without end Amen.

6. So we, that are thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever: and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation. Psal. lxxix. 14. O Lord my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever. Psal. xxx. 12. I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. He was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them. Isa. lxiii. 7, 8, 9. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we can ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. Psal. xxxi. 20. He weakeneth the hands of the men of war. Jer. xxxviii. 4. Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle. Psal. cix. 29. Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth, break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord. Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces. Psal. lviii. 6, 7. He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty. He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death. Job xii. 21, 22. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. Psal. lxiv. 9. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise. Psal. cvi. 47. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish. Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. Isa. xli. 10. to 13. 5. And that these blessings may be continued to after ages, let there never be one wanting in her house to succeed her in the government of this United Kingdom, that our posterity may see her children's children, and peace upon Israel. The Gospel.—Matt. xii. 16 to 22, as in the same Office.

CCCI. A Prayer for Unity.

1. O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace;

1. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. Eph. i. 3. I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no Saviour. Isa. xliii. 11. Unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. Isa. ix. 6.

2. Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions.

2. If a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand. Mark iii. 24, 25. For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart. Judges v. 16. Whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? 1 Cor. iii. 3. Where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. James iii. 16. Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge standeth before the door. James v. 9. Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned: and avoid them. Rom. xvi. 17.

3. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly Union and Concord:

3. I beseech thee, O Lord, take away the iniquity of thy servant. 2 Sam. xxiv. 10. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice. Eph. iv. 31. Doing nothing by partiality. 1 Tim. v. 21. Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins. Prov. x. 12. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body. Col. iii. 12 to 15. Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Cor. i. 10. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phil. ii. 3. The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace. James iii. 17, 18. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Let not your good be evil spoken of: for the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. Rom. xiv. 13. 16, 17. 19.

4. As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Cor. xii. 12, 13. I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph. iv. 1 to 6. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you. John xiv. 27. These things I command you, that ye love one another. John xv. 17. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, but he that hateth his brother is in darkness. 1 John ii. 10, 11. Now I an no more in the world, but these are in the world and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep throug thine own name those whom thou hast given me that they may be one, as we are. Neither pray for these alone, but for them also which shall be lieve on me through their word; that they all ma be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee that they also may be one in us. John xvii. 11. 2 21. If there be therefore any consolation in Chris if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spi rit, if any bowels and mercies, fulfil ye my joy, tha ye be likeminded, having the same love, being one accord, of one mind. Phil. ii. 1, 2. Only l your conversation be as it becometh the Gospel Christ: that whether I come and see you, or els be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stan fast in one spirit, with one mind striving togeth for the faith of the Gospel. Phil. i. 27. And at peace among yourselves. 1 Thess. v. 13. An I will give them one heart, and one way, that the may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and their children after them. Jer. xxxii. 39. In Juda the hand of God was to give them one heart to the commandment of the king and of the prince by the word of the Lord. 2 Chron. xxx. 12. An the multitude of them that believed were of o heart and of one soul. Acts iv. 32. Behold, ho good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dw together in unity! It is like the precious ointme upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, ev Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of h garments; as the dew of Hermon, and as the de that descended upon the mountains of Zion: f

there the Lord commanded the blessing, even l for evermore. Psal. cxxxiii. Be renewed in t spirit of your mind. Eph. iv. 23. Peace be to t brethren, and love with faith, from God the F ther and the Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. vi. 2 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of go comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and t
God of love and peace shall be with you. 2 C

xiii. 11. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. xv. 5, 6.

Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, as LXXXIII.
Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, as CL.
Almighty God, the fountain of all, as CLII.

The peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God. 1 John iv. 3. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us. 1 John iii. 16. There is one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5.

6. who truly suffered, was crucified, dead and buried,

6. Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. 1 Pet. iii. 18. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. He poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many. Isa. liii. 3. 12. Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind. 1 Pet. iv. 1. And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him. And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. Luke xxiii. 33. 46. When they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs. John xix. 33. Our Lord Jesus Christ died for us. 1 Thess. v. 9, 10. I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. John x. 17, 18. When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: he went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb. Matt. xxvii. 57 to 60. He made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death. Isa. liii. 9.

7. to reconcile his Father to us,

7. We were reconciled to God by the death of his Son. Rom. v. 10. You, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death. Col. i. 21, 22. That he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: and came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. ii. 16, 17, 18. Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. Heb. ii. 17. And hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation, to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. He made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Cor. v. 18, 19. 21. See also, Matt. xx. 28.—1 Tim. ii. 5, 6.

8. and to be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for actual sins of men.

8. Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Cor. v. 7. Christ hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour. Eph. v. 2. Now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. Heb. ix. 26. Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John i. 29. As by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. Rom. v. 18. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. xv. 22. If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the Propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John ii. 1, 2. The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. iii. 13. Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. Col. ii. 14. Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. Heb. ix 28. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Isa. liii. 4, 5, 6.

CCCIV. Article III. Of the going down of Christ into Hell.

As Christ died for us, and was buried, so also is it to be believed that he went down into Hell.

I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that he was buried. 1 Cor. xv. 3, 4. David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. David being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; he seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. Acts ii. 25, 26, 27. 29, 30, 31. Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things. Eph. iv. 9, 10. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. Luke xxiii. 43.

CCCV. Article IV. Of the Resurrection of Christ.

1. Christ did truly rise again from death,

1. Christ rose again the third day according to the Scriptures. 1 Cor. xv. 3, 4. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. Matt. xxviii. 6. Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene. Mark xvi. 9. Remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. Luke xxiv. 6, 7. This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead. John xxi. 14. Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. Acts x. 40, 41. To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. Acts i. 3. To this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. Rom. xiv. 9. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pet. i. 3. Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Rom. iv. 25. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands: and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. John xx. 27.

2. and took again his body, with flesh, bones, and all things appertaining to the perfection of man's nature, wherewith he ascended into Heaven, and there sitteth until he return to judge all men at the last day.

2. Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet. And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them. And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. Luke xxiv. 36 to 40. 42, 43. 46. 51. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Acts i. 10, 11. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. Mark xvi. 19. God hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name. Phil. ii. 9. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. Psal. cx. 1. Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. Heb. i. 3. We have such an High Priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; a Minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle. Heb. viii. 1, 2. If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Col. iii. 1. Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things. Acts iii. 21. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. 1 Thess. iv. 16. The Father hath committed all judgment unto the Son: and hath given him authority to execute judgment also. John v. 22. 27. He hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that Man whom he hath ordained. Acts xvii. 31. The Lord Jesus who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom. 2 Tim. iv. 1. He commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. Acts x. 42. We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Cor. v. 10. The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God. 2 Pet. iii. 10, 11, 12. See also, 1 Pet. iv. 3. 5.—Rom. ii. 12. 16.

CCCVI. Article V. Of the Holy Ghost.

The Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, is of one substance, majesty, and glory, with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God.

The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things. John xiv. 26. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. John xv. 26. It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. John xvi. 7. Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. Acts ii. 33. Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Rom. viii. 9. Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them [the prophets] did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. 1 Pet. i. 11. God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. 1 Cor. ii. 10, 11. Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy. Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God? 1 Cor. iii. 16, 17. vi. 19. Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty. But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Cor. iii. 17, 18. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. 1 Pet. iv. 14. Peter said, Ananias, Why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? Thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Acts v. 3, 4. 9. Prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pet. i. 21. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God. 2 Tim. iii. 16. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. John vi. 45. The Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things. John xiv. 26. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Heb. ix. 14. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xxviii. 19.

CCCVII. Article VI. Of the Sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures for Salvation.

1. Holy Scripture containeth all things necessary to salvation:

1. From a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. iii. 15, 16, 17. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. Psal. xix. 7, 8, 9. These [signs] are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. John xx. 31.

2. so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an article of the Faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to salvation. In the name of the holy Scripture we do understand those Canonical Books of the Old and New Testament, of whose authority was never any doubt in the Church.

2. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. 2 Tim. iv. 2, 3, 4. There be some that trouble you, and would pervert the Gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other Gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. Gal. i. 7, 8, 9. In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. Matt. xv. 9. 6. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Isa. viii. 20. Every word of God is pure. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. Prov. xxx. 5, 6. What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it. it. Deut. xii. 32. Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you. Deut. iv. 2. Prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pet. i. 21. I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. Rev. xxii. 18, 19.

1. The Old Testament is not contrary to the New,

1. God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. Heb. i. 1, 2. Think not that I am come to destroy the Law, or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all are fulfilled. Matt. v. 17, 18. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me. Luke xxiv. 44. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ. Gal. iii. 24. He mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ. Acts xviii. 28.

2. for both in the Old and New Testament everlasting life is offered to mankind by Christ.

2. Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. Had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. John v. 39. 46. Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifest, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets. Rom. iii. 21. The mystery which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and, by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith, Rom. xvi. 25, 26. Many came into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning until evening. Acts xxviii. 23. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. John vi. 45. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Acts x. 43. I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Gen. iii. 15. In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed. Gen. xxii. 18. The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ. If ye be Christ's then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. iii. 8, 9. 14. 29. For unto us was the Gospel preached, as well as unto them. Heb. iv. 2. And many of them, that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. Dan. xii. 2, 3. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Isa. lv. 1. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mark xvi. 15, 16. See also, Rev. xxii. 17.—Acts iii. 20.—1 Pet. i. 10.

3. who is the only Mediator between God and Man, being both God and Man. Wherefore they are not to be heard, which feign that the old Fathers did look only for transitory promises.

3. There is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5. The man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts. Zech. xiii. 7. He is the Mediator of the new testament. Heb. ix. 15. If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 John ii. 1. He ever liveth to make intercession for them. Heb. vii. 25. Verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Matt. xiii. 17. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. John viii. 56. By faith Noah became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. Abraham looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. By faith Moses refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. They desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. Heb. xi. 7. 10. 24, 25, 26. 35. 13, 14. 16. See also, 1 Cor. x. 1 to 4.

4. Although the Law given from God by Moses, as touching Ceremonies and Rites, do not bind Christian men, nor the Civil Precepts thereof ought of necessity to be received in any commonwealth: yet notwithstanding, no Christian man whatsoever is free from the obedience of the Commandments which are called Moral.

4. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake. Jer. xxxi. 31, 32. The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ: but after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. Gal. iii. 24, 25. Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace. Eph. ii. 15. The priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. The law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. Heb. vii. 12. 18, 19. 28. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Gen. xlix. 10. Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. Acts xxv. 10. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake. 1 Pet. ii. 13. Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Rom. xiii. 7. Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free; and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Gal. v. 1. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. Rom. iii. 31. The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. Rom. vii. 12. Think not that I am come to destroy the Law, or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Matt. v. 17 to 20. If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well. Whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. James ii. 8. 10, 11. Sin is the transgression of the law. 1 John iii. 4. Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. Eccl. xii. 13. See particularly, Acts xv.

CCCIX. Article VIII. Of the Three Creeds.

The three Creeds, Nicene Creed, Athanasius's Creed, and that which is commonly called the Apostles' Creed, ought thoroughly to be received and believed: for they may be proved by most certain Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. i. 13. Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 1 Tim. iii. 9. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. Ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 3. 17. 20, 21. See the Creeds, Nos. VI.—XVI.—CXXV.

CCCX. Article IX. Of Original or Birth-sin.

1. Original Sin standeth not in the following of Adam, (as the Pelagians do vainly talk:) but it is the fault and corruption of the nature of every man, that naturally is engendered of the offspring of Adam:

1. Adam begat a son in his own likeness. Gen. v. 3. That which is born of the flesh is flesh. John iii. 6. Death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression. By one man's offence death reigned by one. By the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation. By one man's disobedience many were made sinners. Rom. v. 14. 17, 18, 19. How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman? Job xxv. 4. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. Job xiv. 4. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Psal. li. 5. The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies. Psal. lviii. 3. I know that in me, (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing. Rom. vii. 18. The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Cor. ii. 14. Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John iii. 3.

2. whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and is of his own nature inclined to evil,

2. In my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. Rom. vii. 18. God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. Gen. vi. 5. And the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth. Gen. viii. 21. There is no man that sinneth not. 1 Kings viii. 46. The whole world lieth in wickedness.

1 John v. 19. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer. xvii. 9. Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. Eccl. vii. 29. They are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. Jer. iv. 22. Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart. Eph. iv. 18. Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Matt. xv. 19. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Psal. xiv. 1, 2, 3. Every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. James i. 14, 15. Put off the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. Eph. iv. 22.

8. so that the flesh lusteth alway contrary to the Spirit; and therefore in every person born into this world, it deserveth God's wrath and damnation.

3. The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Gal. v. 17. I delight in the law of God after the inward man: but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Rom. vii. 22, 23. Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. ii. 3. If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die. To be carnally minded is death. Rom. viii. 13. 6. The wages of sin is death. Rom. vi. 23. By the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation. Rom. v. 18. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Rom. iii. 19. Abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pet. ii. 11. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption. Gal. vi. 7, 8.

4. and this infection of nature doth remain, yea, in them that are regenerated; whereby the lust of the flesh, called in the Greek phronema sarkos, which some do expound the wisdom, some sensuality, some the affection, some the desire, of the flesh, is not subject to the law of God.

4. We know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. I know that in me, (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Rom. vii. 14. 18, 19. 21, 22, 23. The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. Gal. v. 17. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. 1 John i. 8. 10. There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Eccl. vii. 20. Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Prov. xx. 9. We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. Isa. lxiv. 6. In many things we offend all. James iii. 2. Διότι τὸ φρόνημα τῆς σαρκὸς, ἔχθρα εἰς Θεόν. Τῷ γὰρ νόμῳ τοῦ Θεοῦ οὐχ ὑποτάσσεται οὐδὲ γὰρ δύναται. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Rom. viii. 7.

5. And although there is no condemnation for them that believe and are baptized, yet the Apostle doth confess, that concupiscence and lust hath of itself the nature of sin.

5. There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Rom. viii. 1

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Mark xvi. 16. God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world. He that believeth on him is not condemned. John iii. 17, 18. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. John v. 24. Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. But sin taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. Rom. vii. 7, 8. Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Matt. v. 28. When lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. James i. 15. There is a sin not unto death. 1 John v. 17.

CCCXI. Article X. Of Free-Will.

1. The condition of man after the fall of Adam is such, that he cannot turn and prepare himself, by his own natural strength and good works, to faith and calling upon God:

1. They that are in the flesh cannot please God. Rom. viii. 8. The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Cor. ii. 14. No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him. John vi. 44. No man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. 1 Cor. xii. 3. Turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God. Surely after that I was turned, I repented. Jer. xxxi. 18, 19. The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord. Prov. xvi. 1. We know not what we should pray for as we ought. Rom. viii. 26. See also, Col. ii. 13.

2. Wherefore we have no power to do good works pleasant and acceptable to

2. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much God, without the grace of God by Christ preventing us that we may have a good will, and working with us, when we have that good will.

fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. John xv. 4, 5. Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Cor. iii. 5. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil. Jer. xiii. 23. They that are in the flesh cannot please God. Rom. viii. 8. A new heart will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. Ezek. xxxvi. 26, 27. We were by nature children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love where-with he loved us, even when we were dead in sins hath quickened us together with Christ; for by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works And you hath he quickened, who were dead in tres passes and sins. For we are his workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works, whic God hath before ordained that we should walk i them. Eph. ii. 3, 4, 5. 8, 9. 1. 10. O Lord, know that the way of man is not in himself: it not in man that walketh to direct his steps. Jer. 23. A certain woman named Lydia, a seller purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipp God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, th she attended unto the things which were spoken Paul. Acts xvi. 14. God, who commanded the lig to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our heart to give the light of the knowledge of the glory God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. iv. 6. By t grace of God I am what I am: and his grace whi was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I l boured more abundantly than they all: yet not but the grace of God which was with me. 1 C xv. 10. I can do all things through Christ wh strengtheneth me. Phil. iv. 13. He said, My gr is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made p fect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 2 Cor. xii. 9. Lord, thou hast wrought all our works in us. Isa. xxvi. 12. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ. Heb. xiii. 20, 21. For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen. Rom. xi. 36.

CCCXII. Article XI. Of the Justification of Man.

We are accounted righteous before God, only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by Faith, and not for our own works or deservings: Wherefore, that we are justified by Faith only, is a most wholesome Doctrine, and very full of comfort, as more largely is expressed in the Homily of Justification.

Enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psal. cxliii. 2. By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a Propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Rom. iii. 20 to 25. By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. ii. 8, 9. He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Cor. ii. 21. With the heart man believeth unto righteousness. Rom. x. 10. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch; and a King shall reign and prosper. And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD

OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Jer. xxiii. 5, 6. Be it know unto you, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Acts xiii. 38, 39. That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident; for, The just shall live by Faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. iii. 11, 12. 10. Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Gal. ii. 16. They being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Rom. x. 3, 4. What saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Rom. iv. 3, 4, 5. Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. Gal. iii. 6 to 9. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs ac cording to the hope of eternal life. Titus iii. 5. 7. Where is boasting then? it is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Rom. iii. 27, 28. Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 1 Cor. i. 30, 31. Surely, shall one say, In the Lord have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come. In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. Isa. xlv. 24, 25. Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Rom. v. 1, 2. Doubtless, I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phil. iii. 8, 9. We are more than conquerors through him that loved us. Rom. viii. 37. Let thy merciful kindness be for my comfort. Psal. cxix. 76. Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins. Isa. xl. 1, 2. Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work. 2 Thess. ii. 16. 17.

CCCXIII. Article XII. Of Good Works.

Albeit that Good Works, which are the fruits of Faith, and

We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. ii. 10. Faith, follow after Justification, cannot put away our sins, and endure the severity of God's Judgment; yet are they pleasing and acceptable to God in Christ, and do spring out necessarily of a true and lively Faith; insomuch that by them a lively Faith may be as evidently known as a tree discerned by the fruit.

if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. By works was faith made perfect. For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. James ii. 17, 18. 22. 26. The Gospel which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth. Col. i. 5, 6. Filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phil. i. 11. Being made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. Ye have your fruit unto holiness. Rom. vi. 18. 22. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain. John xv. 5. 8. 16. In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. v. 6. When ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do. Luke xvii. 10. If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7. Enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psal. cxliii. 2. How should man be just with God? If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand. Job ix. 2, 3. If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? Psal. cxxx. 3. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. Rom. iii. 31. What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. Rom. vi. 1, 2, 15. 22. The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Titus ii. 11 to 14. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. Rom. xii. 1, 2. This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. Titus iii. 8. To do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that Great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ. Heb. xiii. 16. 20, 21. Without faith it is impossible to please him. Heb. xi. 6. A man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works; shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. James ii. 18. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God. He that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. 1 John iii. 2, 3. 10. 7. Hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. 1 John ii. 3, 4. 9, 10. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles? even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. By their fruits ye shall know them. Matt. vii. 16, 17. 20. Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. Matt. xii. 33. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your father which is in heaven. Matt. v. 16. Giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Pet. i. 5 to 8. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, bu this delight is in the law of the Lord; he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. Psal. i. 1 to 4.

What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin: as it is written, tion of his Spirit, are not pleasant to God, forasmuch as they spring not of faith in Jesus Christ, neither do they make men meet to receive grace, or (as the school-authors say) deserve grace of congruity: yea rather, for that they are not done as God hath willed and commanded them to be done, we doubt not but they have the nature of sin.

There is none righteous, no, not one. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Rom. iii. 9, 10. 19, 20. We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. Isa. lxiv. 6. Every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Matt. vii. 17, 18. The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Rom. viii. 7, 8, 9. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord. Prov. vi. 8. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. John xv. 4, 5. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Heb. xi. 6. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mark xvi. 16. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. John iii. 36. If Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works. Rom. iv. 2 to 6. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us. Titus iii. 5. It is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. Rom. ix. 16. Who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? Rom. xi. 35. Who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? 1 Cor. iv. 7. God, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ; by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; that at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. ii. 4, 5. 8 to 13. Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Col. iii. 17. I know that in me, (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. Rom. vii. 18. Whatsoever is not of faith is sin. Rom. xiv. 23.

1. Voluntary Works besides, over and above God's Commandments, which they call Works of Supererogation.

1. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and w th all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. Luke x. 27. Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Matt. v. 48. What thing soever I command you, observe tion, cannot be taught without arrogancy and impiety.

to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it. Deut. xii. 32. As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. iii. 10. Who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? 1 Cor. iv. 7. In vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Matt. xv. 9. There is none righteous, no, not one. Rom. iii. 10. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. Let no man judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days. Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, and not holding the Head. If ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (touch not; taste not; handle not;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh. Col. ii. 8. 16. 18 to 23.

2. For by them men do declare, that they do not only render unto God as much as they are bound to do, but that they do more for his sake, than of bounden duty is required: whereas Christ saith plainly,

2. Enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psal. cxliii. 2. Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself? Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect? Job xxii. 2, 3. If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand? Job xxxv. 7. All things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Chron. xxix. 14. Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee and the other a Publican.

When ye have done all that are commanded to you, say, We are unprofitable servants.

The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this Publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the Publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Luke xviii. 10 to 14. Which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat? and will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not. So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do. Luke xvii. 7 to 10.

CCCXVI. Article XV. Of Christ alone without Sin.

1. Christ in the truth of our nature, was made like unto us in all things, (sin only except,) from which he was clearly void, both in his flesh, and in his spirit.

1. God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. iv. 4. Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh. Rom. i. 3. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. John i. 14. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same: for verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham. Heb. ii. 14. 16. He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin. 2 Cor. v. 21. We have not an High Priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Heb. iv. 15. Such an High Priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners. Heb. vii. 26. Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pet. ii. 22. The prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. John xiv. 30. Which of you convinceth me of sin? John viii. 46.

2. He came to be the Lamb without spot, who, by sacrifice of himself once made, should take away the sins of the world, and sin, (as St. John saith,) was not in him.

2. The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him and saith, Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. John i. 29. The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Rev. xiii. 8. Now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. Heb. ix. 26. Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pet. i. 18, 19. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Heb. ix. 14. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Cor. v. 7. Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. Heb. ix. 28. Who his ownself bare our sins in his own body on the tree. 1 Pet. ii. 24. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. i. 7. The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7. Jesus Christ the righteous is the Propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John ii. 1, 2. And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 John iii. 5.

3. But all the rest, although baptized, and born again in Christ, yet offend in many things; and if we say we have no sin, we deceive our-

3. The Scripture hath concluded all under sin. Gal. iii. 22. There is none righteous, no, not one. Rom. iii. 10. There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Eccl. vii. 20. That which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. Rom. vii. 15. 21. For the flesh

lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Gal. v. 17. Cleanse thou me from secret faults. Psal. xix. 12. In many things we offend all. James iii. 2. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. 1 John i. 8. 10.

CCCXVII. Article XVI. Of Sin after Baptism.

Not every deadly sin willingly committed after Baptism is sin against the Holy Ghost, and unpardonable. Wherefore the grant of repentance is not to be denied to such as fall into sin after Baptism. After we have received the Holy Ghost, we may depart from grace given, and fall into sin, and by the grace of God we may arise again, and amend our lives. And therefore they are to be condemned, which say, they can no more sin as long as they live here, or deny the place of forgiveness to such as truly repent.

The soul that sinneth, it shall die. Ezek. xviii. 4. The wages of sin is death. Rom. vi. 23. I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Matt. xii. 31, 32. If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death. 1 John v. 16, 17. And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. Luke xxii. 31 to 34. Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.—Then began Peter to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew. And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of Jesus which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly. Matt. xxvi. 35. 74, 75. Luke xxii. 61. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. Acts viii. 22. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. Heb. iii. 12, 13. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Matt. vi. 13. And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said unto David, The Lord also hath put away thy sin. 2 Sam. xii. 7. 13. Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me. Psal. li. 2, 3. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies. I made haste and delayed not to keep thy commandments. Psal. cxix. 59, 60. Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Prov. xx. 9. There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Eccl. vii. 20. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 1 John i. 8. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us. Dan. ix. 9, 10. Thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive. Psal. lxxxvi. 5. Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. vi. 1. Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such an one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. 2 Cor. ii. 6, 7, 8.

1. Predestination to Life is the everlasting purpose of God, whereby (before the foundations of the world were laid) he hath constantly decreed by his counsel secret to us, to deliver from curse and damnation those whom he hath chosen in Christ out of mankind, and to bring them by Christ to everlasting salvation, as vessels made to honour.

1. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will; in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Eph. i. 3, 4, 5. 11. Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. i. 2. According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord. Eph. iii. 11. The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Rev. xiii. 8. Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Tim. i. 9. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Matt. xxv. 34. And they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world. Rev. xvii. 8. Who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? Rom. xi. 34. Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters. Job xxxiii. 13. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, and the thoughts of his heart to all generations. Psal. xxxiii. 11. The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever. Deut. xxix. 29. Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Rom. xi. 33. Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, even us, whom he hath called. Rom. ix. 21. 24, 25. The Father, who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Col. i. 12, 13, 14. As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. iii. 10. 13. But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our Gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Thess. ii. 13, 14. Ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. John xv. 19. As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. xv. 22. Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Cor. i. 30. By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Rom. v. 2. Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Rom. viii. 29, 30. In a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use. 2 Tim. ii. 20, 21.

2. Wherefore, they which be endued with so excellent a benefit of God be called according to God's purpose by his Spirit working in due season: they through Grace obey the calling:

2. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 1 Pet. ii. 9, 10. No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him. Every man that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. John vi. 44, 45. God, who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Tim. i. 8, 9. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Eph. i. 11. God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Cor. i. 9. This is the word of the Lord, not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts. Zech. iv. 6. Having made known unto us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him. Eph. i. 9, 10. As the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud; so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. Isa. lv. 10, 11. It is the Spirit that quickeneth. John vi. 63. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power. Psal. cx. 3. God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Rom. vi. 17. They that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. Rev. xvii. 14. It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. ii. 13.

3. They be justified freely: they be made sons of God by adoption:

3. Whom he called, them he also justified. Rom. viii. 30. Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Rom. iii. 24. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus iii. 5. 7. In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. Isa. xlv. 25. Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand. Rom. v. 1, 2. As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. John i. 12, 13. Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace. Eph. i. 5, 6. God sent forth his Son, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. Gal. iv. 4 to 7. As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Rom. viii. 14, 15. Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. when he shall appear, we shall be like him. 1 John iii. 1, 2.

4. they be made like the image of his only-begotten Son Jesus Christ:

4. Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Rom. viii. 29. If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. Col. v. 17. As we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. 1 Cor. xv. 49. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 5, 6, 7. 11. As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 27. And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. iii. 10. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. The glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one. John xvii. 6. 11. 16. 22, 23. As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness. Psal. xvii. 15.

5. they walk religiously in good works, and at length, by God's mercy, they attain to everlasting felicity.

5. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. ii. 10. The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Titus ii. 11, 12. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit. John xv. 16. 4. 8. We do not cease to pray for you, that ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work. Col. i. 9, 10. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. Psal. cxxvi. 6. Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 21. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after counsel of his own will. Eph. i. 11. Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Titus ii. 13. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John vi. 39, 40. 47. He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phil. i. 6. Whom he justified, them he also glorified. Rom. viii. 30. Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy, at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Psal. xvi. 11. Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Psal. lxxiii. 24. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pet. i. 3, 4, 5. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25.

6. As the godly consideration of Predestination, and our Election in Christ, is full of sweet, pleasant, and unspeakable comfort to godly persons, and such as feel in themselves the working of the Spirit of Christ, mortifying the works of the flesh, and their earthly members, and drawing up their mind to high and heavenly things,

6. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. John x. 27, 28, 29. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. I know that my Redeemer liveth, and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Job xix. 25, 26, 27. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Rom. v. 11. 2. Whom having not seen, ye love: in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 1 Pet. i. 8, 9. I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phil. i. 23. Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Titus ii. 13. For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Therefore we are always confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Cor. v. 1. 6. 8. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. ii. 20. Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 John iii. 3. According to the power that worketh in us. Eph. iii. 20. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. v. 24. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him. 2 Tim. ii. 11, 12. And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Rom. v. 5. I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. 1 Cor. ix. 27. We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Cor. iv. 18. We walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Cor. v. 7. Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Phil. iii. 20. Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 John i. 3. Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work. 2 Thess. ii. 16, 17.

7. as well cause it th greatly tablish and nfirm their ith of eter- l salvation be enjoyed rough rist, as cause it th fervent- kindle eir love wards God :

7. Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nc things present, nor things to come, nor height, nc depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to se parate us from the love of God, which is in Chri Jesus our Lord. Rom. viii. 33, 34, 35. 37, 38, 39. Y have not chosen me, but I have chosen you. Joh xv. 16. We love him because he first loved u 1 John iv. 19. Whom have I in heaven but thee and there is none upon earth that I desire besid thee. Psal. lxxiii. 25.

8. So, for curious and carnal persons, lacking the Spirit of Christ, to have continually before their eyes the sentence of God's Predestination, is a most dangerous downfal, whereby the Devil doth thrust them either into desperation, or into wretchlessness of most unclean living, no less perilous than desperation.

8. Beware lest any man spoil you through ph losophy or vain deceit, after the tradition of me after the rudiments of the world, and not aft Christ: intruding into those things which he ha not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, ar not holding the Head, from which all the body b joints and bands having nourishment ministered, ar knit together, increaseth with the increase of Go Col. ii. 8. 18, 19. These be they who separa themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. Jude 1 The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it not subject to the law of God, neither indeed ca be. Rom. viii. 7. The natural man receiveth n the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foo ishness unto him: neither can he know them, b cause they are spiritually discerned. 1 Cor. ii. 1 Account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salv tion; even as our beloved brother Paul also a cording to the wisdom given unto him hath writt unto you; as also in all his epistles, speaking them of these things; in which are some things ha to be understood, which they that are unlearned a unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scripture unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, belove seeing ye know these things before, beware lest also, being led away with the error of the wicke fall from your own stedfastness. 2 Pet. iii. 15, 1 17. And they said, There is no hope: but we w walk after our own devices, and we will every o do the imaginations of his evil heart. Jer. xviii. 1 And he said, Behold, this evil is of the Lord; wh should I wait for the Lord any longer? 2 Kin

vi. 33. O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked: but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Ezek. xxxiii. 10, 11. Despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Rom. ii. 4. The Lord is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pet. iii. 9. If after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. 2 Pet. ii. 20, 21, 22. See also, Heb. vi. 7, 8.—xii. 15.

9. Furthermore, we must receive God's promises in such wise, as they be generally set forth to us in holy scripture:

9. The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law. Deut. xxix. 29. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Isa. lv. 7. Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Mark xvi. 15, 16. He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. John xiii. 20. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. xi. 28. Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. John vi. 37. Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. xxii. 17. For God so love the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, tha whosoever believeth in him should not perish, bu have everlasting life. John iii. 16. God our Saviou who will have all men to be saved and come unt the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the ma Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all to be testified in due time. 1 Tim. ii. 3 to 6.

10. and, in our doings, that Will of God is to be followed, which we have expressly declared unto us in the Word of God.

10. Then said they unto him, What shall we do that we might work the works of God? Jesus an swered and said unto them, This is the work of God that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. An this is the will of him that sent me, that every on which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, ma have everlasting life. John vi. 28, 29. 40. Behold a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? H saith unto him, What is written in the law? how read est thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love th Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all th soul, and with all thy strength, and with all th mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he sai unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, an thou shalt live. Luke x. 25 to 28. He hath shewe thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lor require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God? Mic. vi. 8 Whatsoever things were written aforetime were writ ten for our learning. Rom. xv. 4. The Holy Scrip tures, which are able to make thee wise unto salva tion, through faith which is in Christ Jesus. Al Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is pro fitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, fo instruction in righteousness: that the man of Go may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all goo works. 2 Tim. iii. 15, 16, 17. I am the light o the world; he that followeth me shall not walk i darkness, but shall have the light of life. If ye con tinue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed and ye shall know the truth. John viii. 12. 31, 32 If any man will do his will, he shall know of th doctrine, whether it be of God. John vii. 17. Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. Phil. iii. 15, 16. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Eccl. xii. 13, 14. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Rev. xxii. 14.

They also are to be had accursed that presume to say, That every man shall be saved by the Law or Sect which he professeth, so that he be diligent to frame his life according to that Law, and the light of Nature. For holy Scripture doth set out unto us only the Name of Jesus Christ, whereby men must be saved.

There be some that trouble you, and would pervert the Gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. i. 7, 8. If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maran-atha. 1 Cor. xvi. 22. We have proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Rom. iii. 9. 12. 23. By the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Gal. ii. 16. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Mark xvi. 16. Jesus saith unto him, I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John xiv. 6. Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. iii. 11. To him give all the prophets witness that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Acts x. 43. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts iv. 12. This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. 1 John v. 11, 12, 13. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life: but the wrath of God abideth on him. John iii. 36. Many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. 2 John 7. 9, 10, 11.

CCCXX. Article XIX. Of the Church.

The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men, in the which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments be duly ministered according to Christ's ordinance in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same. As the Church of Jerusalem, Alexandria, and Antioch, have erred; so also the Church of Rome hath erred, not Unto the Church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord both their's and our's. 1 Cor. i. 2. To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse. Col. i. 2. That thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 1 Tim. iii. 15. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God. 1 Pet. iv. 11. Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. Acts xv. 21. When they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Acts viii. 12. Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and

teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Matt. xxviii. 18, 19, 20. I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the New Testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Cor. xi. 23 to 26. And they continued stedfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. And the Lord added to the Church daily such as should be saved. Acts ii. 42. 47. And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach. Mark iii. 14. After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Luke x. 1. Of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. Acts i. 21, 22. No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. Heb. v. 4. And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed: neither shall it be for thine honour from the Lord God. 2 Chron. xxvi. 18. Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats. 1 Tim. iv. 1, 2, 3. Be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled. Let no man deceive you by any means. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 2 Thess. ii. 2, 3. 7. 9, 10. Many false prophets shall rise and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. Matt. xxiv. 11, 12. I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom, preach the word: be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Tim. iv. 1 to 5.

1. The Church hath power to decree Rites or Ceremonies, and Authority in Controversies of Faith:

1. Let all things be done unto edifying. Let all things be done decently and in order. 1 Cor. xiv. 26. 40. For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting. Titus i. 5. The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed. Esth. ix. 27, 28. And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication*, and it was winter. And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. John x. 22, 23. There rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter. Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: and they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia. Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, saying Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: it seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul. We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Acts xv. 5, 6. 22 to 25. 27, 28, 29. As they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem. And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily. Acts xvi. 4, 5. As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus,

when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine. 1 Tim. i. 3. There are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: whose mouths must be stopped. Titus i. 10, 11. A man that is an heretic after the first and second admonition reject. Titus iii. 10. Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly. Rom. xvi. 17, 18. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Matt. xxviii. 20. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account. Heb. xiii. 17.

2. And yet it is not lawful for the Church to ordain any thing that is contrary to God's Word written, neither may it so expound one place of Scripture, that it be repugnant to another. Wherefore, although the Church be a witness and a keeper of holy Writ, yet, as it ought not to decree any thing against the same, so besides the same ought it not to enforce any thing to be believed for necessity of Salvation.

2. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Isa. viii. 20. What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it. Deut. xii. 32. He said unto them, Why do ye transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? for God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: but ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; and honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. But in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Matt. xv. 3 to 6. 9. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Christ Jesus. 1 Pet. iv. 11. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching: or he that exhorteth, on exhortation. Rom. xii. 6, 7, 8. Which things also we speak, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 1 Cor. ii. 13. Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. i. 13. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. 1 Thess. v. 21. Let God be true, but every man a liar. What advantage then hath the Jew? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God. Rom. iii. 4. 1, 2. These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 1 Tim. iii. 14, 15. Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Acts iv. 19, 20. I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or added thereto. Gal. iii. 15. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other Gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. Gal. i. 8, 9.

CCCXXII. Article XXI. Of the Authority of General Councils.

1. General Councils may not be gathered together without the commandment and will of Princes.

1. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Rom. xiii. 1.

2. And when they be gathered together, (forasmuch as they be an assembly of men, whereof all be not governed with the Spirit and Word of God,) they may err, and sometimes have erred, even in things pertaining unto God. Wherefore things ordained by them as necessary to salvation have neither strength nor authority, unless it may be declared that they be taken out of Holy Scripture.

2. Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you. Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it. Dan. iv. 1, 2. Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments: I am the Lord your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments and do them. Ezek. xx. 18, 19. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Isa. viii. 20.

CCCXXIII. Article XXII. Of Purgatory.

1. The Romish Doctrine concerning Purgatory, Pardons, Worshipping and Adoration, as well of Images as of Reliques, and also Invocation of Saints, is a fond thing, vainly invented, and grounded upon no warranty of Scripture,

1. The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7. I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Rev. xiv. 13. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. Luke xxiii. 43. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Eccl. ix. 10. None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him. Psal. xlix. 7. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake and will not remember thy sins. Isa. xliii. 25. Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. John i. 29. Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Cor. vi. 11. By one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Heb. x. 14. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple. Rev. vii. 14, 15. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him. Dan. ix. 9. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John i. 9. Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? Mark ii. 7. Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God. Exod. xx. 3, 4, 5. Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. Deut. xxvii. 15. I am the Lord: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images. Isa. xlii. 8. He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. 2 Kings xviii. 4. And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him: but, Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. Acts x. 25, 26. Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. Which when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein. Acts xiv. 13, 14, 15. And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant. Rev. xix. 10. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Matt. iv. 10. He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand? Isa. xliv. 20.

2. but rather repugnant to the Word of God.

2. I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phil. i. 23. We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Cor. v. 8. There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus. Rom. viii. 1. Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind. Col. ii. 11. Thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret. Matt. vi. 6. There is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5. He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Heb. vii. 25. O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come. Psal. lxv. 2. Little children, keep yourselves from idols. 1 John v. 21.

CCCXXIV. Article XXIII. Of Ministering in the Congregation.

It is not lawful for any man to take upon him the Office of public preaching, or ministering the Sacraments in the Congregation, before he be lawfully called, and sent to exe-

I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. Jer. xxiii. 21. And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an High Priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, To day have I begotten thee. Heb. v. 4, 5.—See Lev. viii. They gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all cute the same. And those we ought to judge lawfully called and sent, which be chosen and called to this work by men who have public authority given unto them in the Congregation, to call and send Ministers into the Lord's vineyard.

the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them. And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they are hallowed; and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel. Num. xvi. 3. 35. 38. But when Uzziah was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the altar of incense. And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the Lord, that were valiant men: and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the Lord God. Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, from beside the incense altar. And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the Lord had smitten him. 2 Chron. xxvi. 16 to 23. And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach. Mark iii. 14. After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Luke x. 1. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. John xx. 21. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Matt. xxviii. 19, 20. Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. Acts i. 21, 22. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. Acts xiii. 2, 3. Paul, an Apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead. Gal. i. 1. God hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Cor. v. 18. 20. And when they had preached the Gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith. And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. Acts xiv. 21, 22, 23. For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee. Titus i. 5. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 1 Tim. iv. 14. I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 2 Tim. i. 6. The things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 2 Tim. ii. 2. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Acts xx. 28. The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. Matt. ix. 37, 38.

CCCXXV. Article XXIV. Of Speaking in the Congregation, in such a tongue as the people understandeth.

It is a thing plainly repugnant to the Word of God, and the Custom of the Primitive Church, to have Public Prayer in the Church, or to minister the Sacraments, in a tongue not understanded of the people.

I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied; for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the Church may receive edifying. Likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air. If I know not the meaning of the voice I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. If I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? In the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? but if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: and thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God. Let all things be done unto edifying. If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret. But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church.

1 Cor. xiv. 5. 9. 11. 14, 15, 16. 19. 23 to 28. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in Spirit and in truth. John iv. 24.

CCCXXVI. Article XXV. Of the Sacraments.

1. Sacraments ordained of Christ be not only badges or tokens of Christian men's profession: but rather they be certain sure witnesses, and effectual signs of grace, and God's good will towards us, by the which he doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken but also strengthen and confirm our Faith in him.

1. Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. Acts ii. 38. 41, 42. As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 27. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Rom. vi. 3, 4, 5. Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God. Col. ii. 12. The longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. iii. 20, 21. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 1 Cor. x. 16.

2, 3, 4. There are two Sacraments ordained of Christ our Lord in the Gospel, that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.—Those five commonly called Sacraments, that is to say, Confirmation, Penance, Orders, Matrimony, and extreme Unction, are not to be counted for Sacraments of the Gospel, being such as have grown partly of the corrupt following of the Apostles, partly are states of life allowed in the Scripures; but yet have not like nature of Sacraments with Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, for that they have not any visible sign or ceremony ordained of God.—The Sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about, but that we should duly use them. And in such only as worthily receive the same they have a wholesome effect or operation: but they that receive them unworthily purchase to themselves damnation, as St. Paul saith.

2, 3, 4. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xxviii. 19. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mark xvi. 16. I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: This is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death til he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 1 Cor. xi. 23 to 32.

CCCXXVII. Article XXVI. Of the Unworthiness of the Ministers, which hinders not the Effect of the Sacrament.

1. Although in the visible Church the evil be ever

1. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: but while men mingled with the good, and sometimes the evil have chief authority in the Ministration of the Word and Sacraments, slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind. They gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. Matt. xiii. 24, 25, 26. 47, 48. In the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof. Of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 2 Tim. iii. 1 to 7. Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil. John vi. 70. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Matt. vii. 22, 23. See particularly the state of the Seven Churches of Asia as given in Rev. ii. iii. See also, 2 Cor. xi. 13, 14, 15.

2. yet forasmuch as they do not the same in their own name, but in Christ's, and do minister by his commission and authority, we may use their Ministry both in hearing the Word of God, and in receiving of the Sacraments.

2. We are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Cor. v. 20. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Cor. iv. 1. Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? 1 Cor. iii. 5. The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: all therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do. Matt. xxiii. 2, 3. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord. 2 Cor. iv. 5.

3. Neither is the effect of Christ's ordinance taken away by their wickedness, nor the grace of God's gifts diminished from such as by faith and rightly do receive the Sacraments ministered unto them: which be effectual, because of Christ's institution and promise, although they be ministered by evil men. Nevertheless, it appertaineth to the discipline of the Church, that enquiry be made of evil Ministers, and that they be accused by those that have knowledge of their offences; and finally being found guilty, by just judgment be deposed.

3. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Cor. iv. 7. We are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 1 Cor. iii. 9. 6, 7. Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will. What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. Phil. i. 15. 18. See also the account of the Institution of the Sacrament of Baptism. Matt. xxviii. 19, 20: and that of the Lord's Supper, 1 Cor. xi. 23 to 26. Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. 1 Tim. v. 19. Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. 3 John 9, 10. He that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. I would they were even cut off which trouble you. Gal. v. 10. 12.

CCCXXVIII. Article XXVII. Of Baptism.

1. Baptism is not only a sign of profession, and mark of difference, whereby Christian men are dis-

1. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Acts ii. 41. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded cerned from others that be not christened: but it is also a sign of Regeneration, or new Birth, whereby, as by an instrument, they that receive Baptism rightly are grafted unto the Church;

them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Acts x. 46, 47, 48. If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. 2 Cor. v. 17. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John iii. 3. 5. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Titus iii. 5. Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. Col. ii. 12. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Rom. vi. 3. 4, 5. By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body. 1 Cor. xii. 13. The Church which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. i. 22, 23.

2. the promises of forgiveness of sin, and of our adoption to be the sons of God by the Holy Ghost, are visibly signed and sealed: Faith is confirmed, and Grace increased by virtue of prayer unto God.

2. Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Acts ii. 38, 39. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. Acts xxii. 16. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 26, 27. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Gal. iv. 6. Who hath also sealed us, and given us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Cor. i. 22. Ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance.

Eph. i. 13, 14. Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. x. 22. And they continued stedfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and in prayers. Acts ii. 42. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him. Luke xi. 13. See also, Col. i. 9, 10.

3. The Baptism of young children is any wise to be retained in the Church, as most agreeable with the institution of Christ.

3. And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised. And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations. Gen. xvii. 9, 10. 12. And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. Mark x. 13, 14. 16. They brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them. Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Luke xviii. 15, 16. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xviii. 18, 19. The promise is unto you, and to your children. Acts ii. 39. She was baptized and her houshold. And he was baptized, he and all his, straightway. Acts xvi. 15. 33. I baptized the houshold of Stephanas. 1 Cor. i. 16. The unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. 1 Cor. vii. 14.

CCCXXIX. Article XXVIII. Of the Lord's Supper.

1. The Supper of the Lord is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another; but rather is a Sacrament of our Redemption by Christ's death: insomuch that to such as rightly, worthily, and with faith, receive the same, the Bread which we break is a partaking of the Body of Christ: and likewise the Cup of Blessing is a partaking of the Blood of Christ.

1. Herein is love, not that we loved God, bu that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the Pro pitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us we ought also to love one another. 1 John iv. 10 11. And this is his commandment, That we shoul believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, an love one another, as he gave us commandment. John iii. 23. By this shall all men know that y are my disciples, if ye have love one to another John xiii. 35. We being many, are one body i Christ, and every one members one of another. Rom xii. 5. We being many are one bread, and on body: for we are all partakers of that one bread 1 Cor. x. 17. And as they were eating, Jesus too bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is m body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, an gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for thi is my blood of the new testament, which is shed fo many for the remission of sins. Matt. xxvi. 26, 27 28. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brak it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my bod which is given for you: this do in remembrance o me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying This cup is the new testament in my blood, whic is shed for you. Luke xxii. 19, 20. In whom w have redemption through his blood, the forgivenes of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph i. 7. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it no the communion of the blood of Christ? the brea which we break, is it not the communion of the bod of Christ? 1 Cor. x. 16. Let a man examine him self, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink that cup. 1 Cor. xi. 28. Verily, verily, I say un you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting lif I am that bread of life. This is the bread whic cometh down from heaven, that a man may e thereof, and not die. John vi. 47, 48. 50. We a made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. Heb. iii. 14.

, 3. Transubstantiation (or the change of the substance of Bread and Wine,) in the pper of the Lord, cannot be proved by holy Writ, but is repugnant to the plain words Scripture, overthroweth the nature of a Sacrament, and hath given occasion to ny superstitions.—The Body of Christ is given, taken, and eaten, in the Supper, y after an heavenly and spiritual manner. And the mean whereby the Body of rist is received and eaten in the Supper is Faith.—The Sacrament of the Lord's pper was not by Christ's ordinance reserved, carried about, lifted up, or worpped.

2. As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Cor. xi. 26. Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things. Acts iii. 21. This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. Matt. xxvi. 28, 29. Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. John vi. 53. God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in Spirit and in truth. John iv. 24. I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it? When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you? It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are life. John vi. 35. 51. 54. 60, 61. 63. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal ii. 20. I bow my knees unto the Father of ou Lord Jesus Christ, that he would grant, that Chris may dwell in your hearts by faith, ye being rooted and grounded in love. Eph. iii. 14. 16, 17. Jesu said, Take, eat; Drink ye all of it. Matt. xxvi 26, 27. Whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty o the body and blood of the Lord. 1 Cor. xi. 27. Se above in Sect. 1.

CCCXXX. Article XXIX. Of the Wicked which do not eat the Body of Christ in the Use of th Lord's Supper.

The wicked, and such as be void of a lively faith, although they do carnally and visibly press with their teeth (as St. Augustin saith) the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, yet in no wise are they partakers of Christ; but rather, to their condemnation, do eat and drink the Sign or Sacrament of so great a thing.

If we say that we have fellowship with him, an walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: bu if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we hav fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesu Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i 6, 7. Then shall ye begin to say, We have eate and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taugh in our streets. But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all y workers of iniquity. Luke xiii. 26, 27. Withou faith it is impossible to please him. Heb. xi. 6 The natural man receiveth not the things of th Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him neither can he know them, because they are spiritu ally discerned. 1 Cor. ii. 14. Ye cannot drink th cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye canno be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the tabl of devils. 1 Cor. x. 21. What concord hath Chris with Belial? 2 Cor. vi. 15. He that eateth an drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damna tion to himself, not discerning the Lord's body 1 Cor. xi. 29. Purge out therefore the old leaven that ye may be a new lump. Let us keep the feast not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of ma lice and wickedness; but with the unleavened brea of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. v. 7, 8. Examin yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove you own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? 2 Cor. xiii. 5. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. 1 Cor. xi. 31.

CCCXXXI. Article XXX. Of both Kinds.

The Cup of the Lord is not to be denied to the lay people: for both the parts of the Lord's Sacrament, by Christ's ordinance and commandment, ought to be ministered to all Christian men alike.

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it. Matt. xxvi. 27. And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. Mark xiv. 23. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 19, 20. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? 1 Cor. x. 16. As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Cor. xi. 26.—See also the connecting verses from 23 to 32, in sections 2, 3, 4. in Num. CCCXXVI.

The offering of Christ once made is that perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction, for all the sins of the whole world, both original and actual; and there is none other satisfaction for sin, but that alone. Wherefore the sacrifices of Masses, in the which it was commonly said, that the

If any man sin we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the Propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John ii. 1, 2. 7. The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7. By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. This man after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God. By one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. If we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins. Heb. x. 10. 12. 14. 18. 26. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?—Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; for then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. Heb. ix. 14. 25, 26. 28. Christ hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour. Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. v. 2. 25, 26, 27. God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. 2 Cor. v. 19. In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Col. i. 14. Without shedding of blood is no remission. Heb. ix. 22. Ye as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. ii. 5.

Priest did offer Christ for the quick and the dead, to have remission of pain or guilt, were blasphemous fables, and dangerous deceits.

CCCXXXIII. Article XXXII. Of the Marriage of Priests.

Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, are not commanded by God's Law, either to vow the estate of single life, or to abstain from marriage: therefore it is lawful for them, as for all other Christian men, to

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; for bidding to marry. 1 Tim. iv. 1. 3. Have we no power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? 1 Cor. ix. 5. A Bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity. Likewise must the Deacons be grave, not double-tongued. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 1 Tim. iii. 2. 4. 8. 11, 12. The Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, They shall not take a wife that is profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God. Lev. xxi. 1. 7. Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled. Heb. xiii. 4.

CCCXXXIV. Article XXXIII. Of excommunicate Persons, how they are to be avoided.

That person which by open denunciation of the Church is rightly cut off from the unity of the Church, and excommunicated, ought to be taken of the whole multitude of the faithful, as an Heathen and Publican, until he be openly reconciled by penance, and received into the Church by a Judge that hath authority thereunto.

I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person. 1 Cor. v. 3, 4, 5. 11. 13. If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the Church: but if he neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a Publican. Verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Matt. xviii. 15 to 18. Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye received of us. If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. 2 Thess. iii. 6. 14. If I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me? Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such an one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. For to this end also did I write that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things. To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ. 2 Cor. ii. 2. 6 to 10. What have I to do to judge them that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? 1 Cor. v. 12.

1, 2. It is not necessary that Traditions and Ceremonies be in all places one, and utterly like; for at all times they have been divers, and may be changed according to the diversities of countries, times, and men's manners, so that nothing be ordained against God's Word. Whosoever through his private judgment, willingly and purposely, doth openly break the traditions and ceremonies of the Church, which be not repugnant to the Word of God, and be ordained and approved by common authority, ought to be rebuked openly, (that others may fear to do the like,) as he that offendeth against the common order of the Church, and hurteth the authority of the Magistrate, and woundeth the consciences of the weak brethren.

1, 2. Let all things be done decently and in order. 1 Cor. xiv. 40. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake. Rom. xiii. 1. 5. Judge this, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. Rom. xiv. 13. 17. 19.

Though I be absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ. Col. ii. 5. Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. 3 John 9, 10. Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye received of us. 2 Thess. iii. 6. If any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God. 1 Cor. xi. 16. Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly. 1 Thess. v. 14. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. 1 Tim. v. 20. I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. xvi. 17, 18. When ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. 1 Cor. viii. 12.

3. Every particular or national Church hath authority to ordain, change, and abolish ceremonies or rites of the Church ordained only by man's authority, so that all things be done to edifying.

3. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake. 1 Pet. ii. 13. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. Heb. xiii. 17. Let all things be done unto edifying. 1 Cor. xiv. 26.

CCCXXXVI. Article XXXV. Of the Homilies.

The second Book of Homilies, the several titles whereof we have joined under this Article, doth contain a godly and wholesome doctrine, and necessary for these times, as doth the former Book of Homilies, which were set forth in the time of Edward the Sixth; and therefore we judge them to be read in Churches by the Ministers, diligently and distinctly, that they may be understanded of the people.

CCCXXXVII. Article XXXVI. Of Consecration of Bishops and Ministers.

The Book of Consecration of Archbishops and Bishops, and Ordering of Priests and Deacons, lately set forth in the time of Edward the Sixth, and confirmed at the same time by authority of Parliament, doth contain all things necessary to such Consecration and Ordering; neither hath it any thing, that of itself is superstitious and ungodly. And therefore whosoever are consecrated or ordered according to the Rites of that Book, since the second year of the forenamed King Edward unto this time, or hereafter shall be consecrated or ordered according to the same Rites; we decree all such to be rightly, orderly, and lawfully consecrated and ordered.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Take Aaron and his sons with him, and gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. This is the thing which the Lord commanded to be done. And Moses took the anointing oil, and he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his sons, and sanctified Aaron, and his sons. Lev. viii. 1, 2, 3. 5. 10. 12. 30. Thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together: and thou shalt bring the Levites before the Lord: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites: and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the Lord for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the Lord. Num. viii. 9, 10, 11. Then said Jesus, As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. John xx. 21, 22, 23. Paul, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons. Phil. i. 1. For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee. Tit. i. 5. If a man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work. A Bishop must be blameless. Likewise must the Deacons be grave, holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. Let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blameless. 1 Tim. iii. 1, 2. 8, 9, 10. Whom they set before the Apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. Acts vi. 6. Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Acts xx. 28. Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands. 2 Tim. i. 6. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 1 Tim. iv. 14. See the Offices for Ordering Deacons and Priests; and that for the Consecration of Bishops: pages 603—668.

CCCXXXVIII. Article XXXVII. Of the Civil Magistrates.

1, 2. The Queen's Majesty hath the chief power in this Realm of England, and other her Dominions, unto whom the chief Government of all Estates of this Realm, whether they be Ecclesiastical or Civil, in all causes doth appertain, and is not, nor ought to be, subject to any foreign Jurisdiction.—Where we attribute to the Queen's Majesty the chief government, by which Titles we understand the minds of some slanderous folks to be offended; we give not to our Princes the ministering either of God's Word, or of the Sacraments, the which thing the injunctions also lately set forth by Elizabeth our Queen do most plainly testify; but that only prerogative, which we see to have been given always to all godly Princes in holy Scriptures by God himself; that is, that they should rule all states and degrees committed to their charge by God, whether they be Ecclesiastical or Temporal, and restrain with the civil sword the stubborn and evil-doers.

1, 2. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. Rom. xiii. 1. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. 1 Pet. ii. 13, 14. And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city. Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the Lord, and for controversies. 2 Chron. xix. 5. 8. And Asa appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the Lord, and to record, and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel. 1 Chron. xvi. 4.

3. The Bishop of Rome hath no jurisdiction in this Realm of England.

It is lawful for Christian men, at the commandment of the Magistrate, to wear weapons, and serve in the wars.

3. When Uzziah was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the altar of incense. And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the Lord, that were valiant men: and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense. And while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, from beside the incense altar. 2 Chron. xxvi. 16 to 19. And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers. Isa. xlix. 23. Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house. 2 Kings xii. 7. And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the Lord. 2 Chron. xxxi. 2. And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the Lord your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant. 2 Kings xxiii. 21. So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the Lord; and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar. 1 Kings ii. 27. 35. Let none of you suffer as a busybody in other men's matters. 1 Pet. iv. 15. The powers that be are ordained of God. The ruler is the minister of God to thee for good. He beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Rom. xiii. 1. 4. A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them. Prov. xx. 26. There was a certain man in Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. Acts x. 1, 2. And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. Luke iii. 14.—See also, 2 Chron. xvii. 7, 8, 9.—viii. 14.—xxxiv.—Jonas iii. 5 to 9.

The Riches and Goods of Christians are not common, as touching the right, title, and possession of the same, as certain Anabaptists do falsely boast. Notwithstanding, every man ought, of such things as he possesseth, liberally to give alms to the poor, ac-

And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the Apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. Acts iv. 32. 34, 35. Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? Acts v. 3, 4. We hear that there are some which walk disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 2 Thess. iii. 11, 12. Give alms of such things as ye have. Luke xi. 41. Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate. 1 Tim. vi. 17, 18. Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 John iii. 17. To do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Heb. xiii. 16. Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Rom. xii. 13. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the houshold of faith. Gal. vi. 10. God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. Heb. vi. 10. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come. 1 Cor. xvi. 2. The liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand. Isa. xxxii. 8. As touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you. But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver: as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. 2 Cor. ix. 1. 6, 7. 5. The poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land. Deut. xv. 11. Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx. 35. Godliness with contentment is great gain. 1 Tim. vi. 7.

CCCXL. Article XXXIX. Of a Christian man's Oath.

As we confess that vain and rash Swearing is forbidden Christian men by our Lord Jesus Christ, and James his Apostle, so we judge, the Christian Religion doth not prohibit, but that a man may swear when the Magistrate requireth, in a cause of faith and charity, so it be done according to the Prophet's teaching, in justice, judgment, and truth.

Ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: but I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. Matt. v. 33 to 37. But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. James v. 12. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. Exod. xx. 7. I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against false swearers. Mal. iii. 5. Ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord. Lev. xix. 12. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. Deut. vi. 13. Swear now therefore unto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. And David sware unto Saul. 1 Sam. xxiv. 21, 22. And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul. And they sware unto the Lord with a loud voice; and all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them. 2 Chron. xv. 12. 14, 15. Men verily swear by the greater; and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath. Heb. vi. 16, 17. Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said. Matt. xxvi. 63, 64. Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth. 2 Cor. i. 23. God is my witness, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers. Rom. i. 9. Thou shalt swear, The Lord liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness: and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory. Jer. iv. 2.

"Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord,"—or, "The same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord," Eight.
"Through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour,"—or, "Jesus Christ our Lord,"—or, "Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,"—or, "The merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost," Fourteen.
